CHARTER MEMBER AMERICAN LEAGUE

MODEST BEGINNINGS

Joining Boston, Chicago and Cleveland as the only charter members of the American League, the Tigers history actually predates the beginnings of the league itself. Detroit professional baseball dates to 1881 when the city sported a franchise, known alternately as the Wolverines or simply the Detroit, for the first of eight seasons in the National League. One of those clubs, the 1887 entry, won the league's title and went on to take 10-of-15 games from the American Association champion St. Louis club in a cross-country playoff series.

After the National League club moved to Cleveland following the 1888 season, the city was home to various minor league clubs through 1900. It was during this time, however, that the foundation for today's Tigers was laid.

In 1894, baseball legend Ban Johnson, who later would go on to serve 27 years as the American League's first President, awarded Detroit a slot in the reorganized Western League. It was a significant move because just six years later Johnson changed the name to the American League and gained major league status for the circuit in 1901.

It was also in those early years that the Detroit baseball club first became known as the Tigers. Some baseball historians credited Philip J. Reid, editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. The team's manager that same season, George Stallings, also took credit for initiating the nickname because, he said, the black-and-brown stockings he put on his players reminded the fans of "Tiger Stripes."

It appears, however, that the name dates back one year earlier, a year before Stallings became manager, and has been credited to an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press.

"Stroutner's Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely" read a headline in the paper on April 16, 1895. The same page also listed a series of baseball notes, headed by "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." The name caught on, and the Detroit Tigers were officially christened.

Under Johnson's leadership, the American League in 1901 declared that it would conduct business as a major league. Unlike predecessors such as the Union Association, the fledgling league would not only survive but thrive, and the Detroit Tigers played a major role as the game took on its modern shape.

TIGERS DEBUT, COBB EMERGES

On April 24, 1901, the Tigers prepared to take to the field for their first official American League game. A standing room only crowd was anticipated at Bennett Park, but unpredictable weather postponed the opening by a day.

On that historic afternoon in front of 10,000 fans, the Tigers entered the ninth inning trailing Milwaukee, 13-4. A series of hits and miscues followed, moving the score to 13-12 with two runners on. With two out, Tiger Frank "Pop" Dillon faced reliever Bert Husting, and the lefthander hitler rapped a two-run double to complete a 14-13 comeback win.

The 1905 season was a remarkable one for the organization in that it marked the first in a Detroit uniform for Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the most famous Tiger of all. Acquired in exchange for pitcher Eddie Cicotte and $700 from Augusta of the Sally League (plus an additional $50 for "immediate delivery"), Cobb played the first of his 3,033 major league games on August 30, 1905. He would remain with the Tigers for 22 years, and when he retired in 1928, he had collected more records than any player in major league history.

The 1907 season saw the emergence of two individuals, neither of them players, who would both play significant roles in turning the fortunes of the young Tigers. One was Frank Navin, who began as a bookkeeper with the franchise in 1902 before acquiring a full half interest ownership in the club and becoming team president. After Ban Johnson's retirement in 1927, Navin came to be regarded by many as the most powerful man in the American League.

The other was Hughie Jennings, a keen judge of talent who would lead the club to three consecutive league championships as one of the most colorful managers in major league history.

ONE STEP AWAY

That same 1907 season, the Tigers won their first pennant, taking the American League by one and one-half games with a mark of 92-58. A disappointing loss to the Cubs in the World Series followed.

The next two years the Tigers repeated their regular-season successes, winning league titles both seasons. Like 1907, however, the club was defeated by Chicago and Pittsburgh, respectively, in the Fall Classic.

It would be years before the Tigers would have an opportunity to erase the memories of their post-season struggles in World Series play. The period from 1910-34, however, is not lacking of historical interest as it featured some remarkably talented teams and individuals that came up just a little shy of taking the next step.

In 1911, Cobb finished with a personal-best batting average of .420, finishing just short of the all-time American League single-season record of .422 set by Nap Lajoie in 1901. In 1912, the club moved into its new ballpark, named after Frank Navin, but the campaign was marked by a one-game players' strike in retaliation for a suspension levied on Cobb for taking a punch at a fan in New York. The May 18 strike forced the Tigers to put together a team of sandlot players for one game, a 24-2 loss at Philadelphia.

Ty Cobb and Commissioner Kenesaw Landis

Three seasons later in 1915, Jennings and his club posted a regular-season record of 100-54, yet the skipper remembered the campaign as "the biggest disappointment" of his career after Babe Ruth's Red Sox claimed the pennant with 101 wins. The following season marked the beginning of the career of first baseman Harry Heilmann, a future Hall-of-Famer who would spend 15 years in Detroit, while 1917 saw the end of 15 seasons in the Tiger outfield for fellow Cooperstown inductee Sam Crawford.

By 1920, the Tigers had plunged to seventh place, Jennings was released and the managerial position fell into the hands of Cobb. The highlight of Cobb's tenure was 1924, the same season that Hall-of-Famer Charlie Gehringer first wore the Tiger uniform, when the club remained in the race until the season's final week with a record of 86-68.

After a sixth-place finish in 1926, Cobb drew his release from Detroit and concluded his career with two more seasons in Philadelphia and an all-time major league record .367 career batting average.

From 1927 through 1932, the club placed no higher than fourth in the league standings. Highlights of the era included the arrival of Hank Greenberg, who played 12 of his 13 seasons in Detroit and found his way to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

After five seasons with Bucky Harris at the helm, Navin attempted to hire Babe Ruth as manager in 1934. Unable to land him, Navin turned to Mickey Cochrane, purchased from Philadelphia for $100,000. With Cochrane as catcher/manager, the Tigers soared to a 101-53 record in 1934 for the first of two consecutive league pennants. Schoolboy Rowe set a record with 16 consecutive pitching wins, but in the World Series the Tigers once again failed to capture the post-season magic, dropping a seven-game decision to Frankie Frisch's St. Louis Cardinals in a series that featured Commissioner Landis removing St. Louis outfielder Ducky Medwick from Game 7 for his own safety as Detroit fans pelted the field with debris.

BREAKING THROUGH IN "PRINCE"-LY FASHION

The following season, the long-awaited title dreams came true for Tiger fans and players. After winning the American League by three games, Detroit took six games to mow down the Chicago Cubs in the 1935 World Series, with Cochrane making a daring dash from second in the ninth inning of Game Six to score the winning run on a single by Goose Goslin. For their accomplishments, each player was awarded a share of $6,544.

On November 13, 1935, Frank Navin was stricken by a heart ailment and died at the age of 64. Walter Briggs Sr., already half-owner of the club, purchased the remainder of the team and became president.

In 1940 under manager Del Baker, Detroit earned its sixth pennant with a 90-64 mark and faced Cincinnati in the Fall Classic. A 21-game winner in the regular season, righthander Bobo Newsom pitched the Tigers to wins in two games of the Series but fell in Game Seven as the Reds won the title.

A strange end to the 1945 season marked the Tigers successful surge to their eventual second World Series title. With little hope of making it to the post-season, the Washington Senators scheduled their season to close a week early to make their park available for pro football. The Senators, however, played inspired baseball all the way but were forced to sit and watch during the season's final week as the Tigers nosed them out of a pennant. In the ensuing World Series, the Tigers, managed by Steve O'Neill, knocked off the Cubs in seven games, with Hall-of-Famer "Prince Hal" Newhouser winning two times.

After a pair of second-place finishes in 1946 and '47 and the acquisition of Hall-of-Famer George Kell, the Tigers watched as a fresh influx of talent from the minors matured and nearly captured the 1950 pennant, falling just three games short after leading the pack for 119 days and finishing with a 95-59 record.

A NEW ERA IN TIGERTOWN

The 1950s were highlighted by the emergence of young outfielder Al Kaline who, with a .340 batting average in 1955, became the youngest player in league history to win a batting title.

The Tiger front office was also seeing sweeping change after the death of Briggs Sr. in 1952. After a four-year presidency by his son, Walter Briggs Jr., the Briggs stock was sold to a syndicate of 11 radio/television executives led by John Fetzer, Fred Knorr and Kenyon Brown. In 1960, Fetzer purchased the entire team and became entrenched as club president.

After finishing just one game out of first place in 1967, the Tigers were poised and loaded with talent entering the 1968 campaign. Under manager Mayo Smith, the club took the lead on May 10 and never relinquished it, finishing 12 games ahead of second-place Baltimore. Denny McLain was the hero of the campaign with a 31-6 record, becoming the first pitcher since Lefty Grove in 1934 (and remaining the last currently) to win 30 or more in a season. His efforts earned McLain unanimous acclaim as MVP and Cy Young winner in the league.

In a tight World Series, Mickey Lolich pitched the club to three wins, the final win coming on just two days rest as the Tigers captured the crown.

With divisional play starting in 1969, the Tigers next visited the post-season by winning the American League East in 1972 under Billy Martin with a 92-70 mark. The club was unable to capture the pennant, however, as the Oakland A's won the best-of-five series in five games.

The late 1970s featured the first of an American League record 1,918 appearances together by Tiger middle infielders Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker.

The 1979 season saw another significant change in leadership when on June 14, Sparky Anderson took over the club's managerial reigns. For the next 16 seasons, Anderson would lead the Tigers from the dugout, claiming two division titles and a World Championship along the way.

TEAM OF THE '80s

After a second-place finish in 1983, success was expected for a talented Tiger club the following season. With Jack Morris tossing his first no-hitter on April 7 of 1984, the club vaulted into the division lead by winning its first nine games and going 35-5 through May 24, the best 40-game start in major league history. The Tigers went on to a 104-58 mark, 15 games in front of the pack, and continued by sweeping the Royals in the Championship Series. After defeating the Padres, four-games-to-one, in the World Series, the Tigers became the first major league team since the 1955 Dodgers to hold first place wire-to-wire and finish by winning the championship. In addition, a club-record 2,704,794 fans passed through the turnstiles.

The Tigers returned to glory in 1987 in dramatic fashion. The club struggled to an 11-19 start but closed strong and looked ready to make a move after first-place Toronto lost four straight entering the final weekend of play. Trailing the Blue Jays by just one game with a three-game set in Motown against Toronto to close the regular season, the Tigers took the first two. With a one-game lead, Detroit's Frank Tanana out-dueled the Jays Jimmy Key on Sunday as Larry Herndon's solo homer proved the only scoring in a 1-0 triumph. After the dramatic ending to the regular season, Detroit bowed out of the playoffs to Minnesota, losing a best-of-seven series in five contests.

REBUILDING A PROUD FRANCHISE

The 1992 season included the most recent change in ownership for the team as Mike Ilitch purchased sole interest in the team from Tom Monaghan, and other structural changes were not far down the road.

In 1995, Tiger President and CEO John McHale was hired, and the following off-season, Vice President/General Manager Randy Smith was brought on board. The organization began a process of rebuilding the franchise through scouting and player development, and the past five campaigns have seen the emergence of talented homegrown players such as Tony Clark, Brian Moehler and Juan Encarnacion.

After the 1999 season, Detroit named veteran skipper Phil Garner as the club's manager in October.

COMERICA PARK

Ballpark Shines Into its Second Year

RAISING THE EXPECTATIONS

Last April, The Detroit News produced a commemorative section on the Detroit Tigers first game at their new home, Comerica Park. A quote from the headlining story read as follows:

"Comerica Park is expected to make the Detroit Tigers part of baseball's nouveau riche..."

Those who have visited the ballpark agree with the expectations. A carousel. A ferris wheel. A mammoth water feature in center field that can be choreographed to any music. A decade-by-decade pedestrian museum enveloping the main concourse. But wait, there is also a field with a game being played as well. These are but a few examples of what Comerica Park introduced to fans visiting downtown Detroit last summer.

Groundbreaking for the $300 million project took place on October 29, 1997. More than 60 percent of the financing is private, with the rest contributed from public sources. In the time since groundbreaking, the design has continued to evolve. The resulting goal realized is a combination of a classic design for the seating area with amusement and entertainment features that are unique to Comerica Park.

Tigers owner Mike Ilitch played a direct role in designing the facility and brought years of family entertainment experience to the process.

"If the fans feel the pride that this is their park, and a pride of ownership, then we've accomplished what we set out to do," said Ilitch.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park itself is built around the configuration of the playing field. All planning efforts established fan sight lines as the highest priority. The surrounding "outbuildings," however, conform to the property boundaries of Montcalm, Witherell, Adams and Brush Streets.

As one enters these boundaries, Comerica Park appears rooted at the center of an urban village, a village that includes shops, restaurants, offices and other attractions. Eight, two- and three-story buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result is a landscape that blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown.

And with no upper deck outfield seats, no ballpark offers a better view of a downtown skyline than Comerica Park.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. The general standard for concourses in existing ballparks is 32 feet in width. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level and measured 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into different eras from the 20th century, and as the fan progresses on his or her walk, they move into a different time frame of history. Decade Monuments covering two decades each are placed throughout the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from appropriate eras. Heading into the next century, plans call for "The Walking Museum" to be incorporated into the upper concourse as well.

THE SCOREBOARD

Comerica Park features a main scoreboard larger than any other facility in existence. The face of the structure, in fact, is equivalent to the size of the face of the Fox Theatre Office Building facing Woodward Avenue (180' wide). The structure includes one video screen (42'x24'), one large black and white matrix board with the line score (64'x34'), and a color matrix board (42'x24').

An old-time, out-of-town scoreboard is placed at field level within the wall in right-center field, and a Pitch Information board alerts fans to the speed of each pitch thrown in the game.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Concessions (including those for premium seating and suites) are under the direction of Olympia Entertainment, Inc. (OEI). Among the features are the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area behind third base and the Big Cat Court food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

CAROUSEL, FERRIS WHEEL AND WATER FEATURE

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the Brushfire Grill stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. Center field features a giant water feature, "Liquid Fireworks," that synchronizes music to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 11,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. Therefore, the upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. The Tiger Den is the first of its kind in baseball. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, it resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private Tiger Den lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

THE TIGER CLUB

The Tiger Club, open on a membership basis, features approximately 20,000 square feet of entertaining space. There is seating for 300 overlooking the playing field in right field, a bar for 200, a cigar bar and banquet facility.

SPECIAL NEEDS ACCESS

Comerica Park complies with all guidelines of the ADA. In completing the facility, the Tigers worked extensively with organizations including The Paralyzed Veterans of America's Michigan Chapter and the Michigan Commission for the Blind to ensure accessibility for all fans and a great baseball experience for every guest who enters Comerica Park.

GATED ENTRANCES

There are three main gated entrances to Comerica Park, each featuring attractions on a grand scale. Among the features are immense 80-foot high baseball bats framing the gates, tiger sculptures and Pewabic tile accents.

COMERICA ON BOARD

On December 21, 1998, Detroit-based Comerica Incorporated and the Tigers partnered on a naming rights agreement for the Tigers new home. The announcement came on the eve of Comerica's 150th anniversary of their service to the Detroit community.

THE TEAM

The design team of HOK Sport and the Detroit-based Smith, Hinchman and Grylls served as architects for Comerica Park, while Huber, Hunt & Nichols, Inc., Turner Construction Company and White Construction Company joined forces to form Hunt-Turner-White as construction management team. Private financing accounts for more than 60 percent of Comerica Park, with partners including the Tigers and a bank syndicate led by Sumitomo Bank, Limited. Societe General, First Chicago NBD, Provident Bank of Maryland, First of America Bank, Standard Federal Bank and Michigan National Bank. Public financing participants include the Michigan Strategic Fund (infrastructure), City of Detroit Downtown Development Authority and Wayne County.

DETROIT 300

City Set to Celebrate Tricentennial

Detroit's tricentennial celebration is taking place throughout the metro Detroit-Windsor area this summer. Millions will converge on downtown Detroit to participate in a series of events from a parade of tall ships and a reenactment of Cadillac's landing to a large scale music festival celebrating the "Sounds of Detroit" via a celebrity homecoming, and more.

Detroit 300 is an independent, non-profit organization responsible for implementing a major campaign to attract residents from Detroit as well as Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Essex counties to community programs, special events and to invest in permanent legacies that highlight the greatness of the city's past and the promise of its future. Chairman Edsel B. Ford II heads the 40-member Detroit 300 Commission and the Detroit Tigers own Denise Ilitch co-chairs the Development Campaign, with a goal of raising $27 million for the initiative.

Part of the campaign includes spearheading the Legacy Project, a $15-million urban improvement project designed to beautify Detroit's neighborhoods and civic core while educating residents about their shared heritage. The Legacy Project, a permanent gift provided by Detroit 300 and its supporters, will also create an endowment for the maintenance and expansion of civic green spaces.

The world-class Detroit 300 celebration will spotlight the city's successes while simultaneously instilling a renewed feeling of pride and unity in residents. It is also a way to raise regional and national awareness about the dramatic changes occurring in the city. With seven components to the overall initiative, including the Legacy project, Festival, Partner Program, Youth Program, Education Program, Business and Community recognition Program and Family Reunion, the initiative is no small undertaking.

The celebration, which began in December 2000 with the opening of the Detroit Century Box, will include the Detroit 300 Festival extravaganza July 13-29. The festival features events such as the Concert of Colors, Sail Detroit and the Detroit 300 Celebration at Comerica Park on July 18, which coincides with the commemoration of 100 seasons of American League Baseball of which the Tigers are one of four charter member teams. The Comerica Park celebration will include a special salute to Detroit's tricentennial.

"Our goal is to increase awareness of Detroit's 300-year history and all that the city currently has to offer," said Detroit 300 Executive Director Maude Lyon.

The grand Sail Detroit event taking place July 19-21 will feature vessels participating in the Tall Ships Challenge Great Lakes® 2001, in which schooners, brigs and other classic sailing vessels will grace the skylines of both Detroit and Windsor. The vessels will also be available for tours on both sides of the river.

The Parade of Historic Ships on July 22 will include tall ships as well as other historic vessels, including canoes and freighters. And on July 24, participants will be treated to Cadillac's Landing Re-enactment, an event designed to educate participants about the day in 1701 when Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac set up a commanding site on the banks of the Detroit River.

Detroit 300 will also work with the Detroit Tigers as part of the Partnership Program. This program is designed to entertain and educate through programs such as Baseball Tivv, a math game for sharpening math skills in the Detroit's four-county area, and Breaking Barriers, a Major League Baseball program spearheaded by Sharon Robinson, Jackie Robinson's daughter. Breaking Barriers is a curriculum that teaches the nine values of Jackie Robinson, and includes an essay contest for area students. The winner of the contest will receive 40 tickets to a ballgame for his or her classmates and will be recognized at the game.

The Detroit 300 Concert of Colors, taking place July 13-15 in Chene Park, is a multi-cultural event celebrating diversity through numerous performances by artists from around the world.

"The Concert of Colors is designed to spotlight Detroit's long history of ethnic and cultural diversity, a diversity which has helped make the city an incredibly unique place," Lyon said.

The Sounds of Detroit, taking place July 20-22 in downtown Detroit's Hart Plaza and the Promenade, will spotlight the talents of homegrown musicians who went on to gain national success and recognition. Performances will cover a wide range of genres, providing something for every music fan.

Spiritual Day on July 25 is a way for participants to recognize and acknowledge the spiritual dimension of the celebration. Taking place in Chene Park, the interfaith event will recognize the importance of religion in shaping the character of the region. Spiritual Day also happens to fall on the eve of the founding of the oldest house of worship, Ste. Anne de Detroit. The Tricentennial of Ste. Anne de Detroit on July 26 is a daylong celebration of faith at the church founded by Antoine de la Mothe Cadillac.

For more information on any of these events, community programs or legacies, call (877) DET-2001 or visit the Detroit 300 Web site at www.detroit300.org.

MICHAEL ILITCH

OWNER/DIRECTOR

A leader in the diverse fields of sports, entertainment and business development, Michael Ilitch enters his ninth full season as Owner/Director of the Detroit Tigers.

- Was a driving force behind the creation of the Tigers spectacular new home, Comerica Park, and contributed more than 60 percent of the financing for the $300 million facility.
- Served a key role in designing the new ballpark, bringing years of entertainment experience to the efforts that resulted in many of the features that make Comerica Park unique.
- Founded Little Caesars Pizza in 1959 with his wife, Marian...today, Little Caesars has more than 4,000 restaurants and is one of the top three international pizza chains with restaurants in five continents.
- Ilitch's acquisition of the Tigers on August 26, 1992 was the culmination of a long association with the club that saw him originally sign a minor league contract with the organization in 1952.
- After batting .340 in his first three campaigns, he saw his playing career shortened in 1954 due to a knee injury.
- Committed to business ventures in their hometown Detroit, the Ilitches purchased the Detroit Red Wings in 1982 and have built them into an elite NHL powerhouse with two Stanley Cup titles in the last four years.
- Also purchased Olympia Entertainment, the management company for Joe Louis and Cobo Arenas.
- While many businesses were leaving Detroit's urban center, the Ilitches in 1987 purchased the neglected Fox Theatre, a 1928 landmark on the famous Woodward Avenue...with great effort, the building was restored to its original splendor and was reopened with 5,000 seats in November 1988...in recent years, it has been the second-highest grossing theatre in the country, trailing only the famed Radio City Music Hall.
- In 1989, the family further committed their efforts to reviving Detroit's downtown by relocating their suburban Little Caesars headquarters to the Fox Theatre's adjacent 10-story office building...in recent years, the area around the Fox and Comerica Park has seen significant development, including the Ilitch-owned Second City Detroit Comedy Theatre and the Hockeytown Café.
- More recently (May, 1996), Olympia Development, L.L.C., was created to focus on projects in downtown Detroit...in addition to Comerica Park, the organization is coordinating efforts to develop the Columbia Street project next to The Fox that will include the Hard Rock Café as an anchor tenant.
- Ilitch has been honored by many for his tireless efforts in Detroit and surrounding communities, including the Distinguished Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Service Award from the Michigan Department of Health for promoting and demonstrating exemplary performance in advancing principles of human rights, equality and positive social change.

DENISE ILITCH

PRESIDENT,
ILITCH HOLDINGS, INC.

Denise Ilitch is the vice chairwoman of Little Caesar Enterprises, Inc.; president of Olympia Development, the Ilitch family's downtown Detroit real estate and entertainment development company; and president of Ilitch Holdings, the company that oversees the management and operations of Little Caesar Enterprises, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development, the Detroit Red Wings and the Detroit Tigers.

- As one of two presidents at Ilitch Holdings, she is part of the Office of the President team that directs the company's business and major functions, and focuses on future planning for the food, sports and entertainment entities that comprise the company.
- As the vice chairwoman of Little Caesars, Ilitch directs the business operations of one of the top three international pizza chains with restaurants on five continents.
- In her role with Olympia Development, L.L.C., she was part of the team that put together the $600-million plan to develop side-by-side stadiums near the Theatre District in Detroit for the Tigers and Lions (the Detroit Tigers new home - Comerica Park - which opened April 2000, and the Lions new Ford Field which is expected to open in July 2002).
- Ilitch is a member of the Board of Directors of RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company, the Detroit Branch of the NAACP and the Atanas Ilitch Osteosarcoma Foundation. She is a past board member of the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.
- Is a Detroit Red Wings Alternate Governor for the National Hockey League.
- Received her undergraduate degree from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and earned a law degree from the University of Detroit School of Law.
- Ilitch has two children - a daughter, Brooke and a son, Sam.

CHRIS ILITCH

PRESIDENT,
ILITCH HOLDINGS, INC.

Chris Ilitch, president of Ilitch Holdings, Inc., directs the company that oversees the management and operations of Little Caesar Enterprises, Olympia Entertainment, Olympia Development, the Detroit Red Wings, and the Detroit Tigers.

- As one of two presidents at Ilitch Holdings, he is part of the Office of the President team that directs the company's business and major functions, and focuses on future planning for the food, sports and entertainment entities that comprise the company.
- Has worked with his family for two decades to build Little Caesars Pizza into one of the top three international pizza chains.
- Most recently held the position of president of the Little Caesars Pizza Kit Fund-Raising Program.
- Before starting the Pizza Kit program in 1997, he was a group vice president for Little Caesars.
- During his years with the pizza chain he has focused on almost every area of the company, where he has headed up the marketing, communications, and research & development areas, and guided company restaurant development both domestically and internationally.
- Chris has been a force in the strategic planning for the future growth of all companies owned by the Ilitch family.
- Is on the Board of the Atanas Ilitch Osteosarcoma Foundation.
- Graduated from the University of Michigan in 1987 with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration.
- Is a Detroit Red Wings Alternate Governor for the National Hockey League and is also a Red Wings Vice President.

COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD

Nate Ford

Tom Goss

Carmen Munoz

Jim Stapleton

S. Martin Taylor

The Tigers Community Advisory Board was established in February, 2000. The board, comprised of five individuals with a wide range of experience and philanthropy in the Greater Detroit area, was designed to work with the Tigers organization on matters related to Equal Employment Opportunities, the Diverse Business Partners Program and Tigers community relations activities.

NATE FORD

- Currently operates his own business, Ford Consulting...is a member of Detroit's Board of Zoning Appeals.
- Served as vice president of Detroit Company Diamond Dismantling.
- Former executive director of the Booker T. Washington Business Association (1992-95).
- Served eight years on the executive board of the NAACP Detroit Chapter...spent three years as a board executive for the Detroit Urban League.

TOM GOSS

- Former University of Michigan athletic director...was a former All-Big Ten tackle for the university's football team in the 1960s.
- Was managing partner for The Goss Group, Inc. prior to his stint as athletic director.
- Named president and CEO of PIA Merchandising, the nation's largest supplier of regular scheduled merchandise services, in 1993.
- Prior to joining PIA, was executive vice president and general manager of ShasCo Inc. for the National Beverage Corp, which distributes Faygo and Shasta Beverages.

CARMEN MUNOZ

- Born and raised in Detroit's Hispanic Community, she brings more than 40 years of area business and community project experience to the board.
- Is chairperson for Munoz Machine Products...also chairperson of the Commission on Spanish Speaking Affairs and is membership director of the MMBDC.
- Is a past chairperson of the Detroit Empowerment Zone...was recognized as one of Michigan's 10 Most Influential Women by Crain's Detroit Business.
- In role with Munoz Machine Products, established a work-training program to give former gang members an opportunity to develop job skills.

JIM STAPLETON

- Serves as chairman of the board of directors for the Detroit Urban League.
- An attorney and businessman whose successful career includes marketing management for Colgate Palmolive's fifth-largest U.S. sales territory...began legal career in 1990 and formed B&R consultants, a full-service consulting business for economic and business development, in 1996.
- Has chaired multiple political committees, including three during the mayoral campaign for Mayor Dennis Archer.
- Spent three years as president of The Think Twice Foundation, which provided housing for Detroit residents.

S. MARTIN TAYLOR

- Is Senior Vice President, Corporate and Public Affairs for DTE Energy...joined Detroit Edison in 1989, totting extensive political background at the federal, state and local levels.
- Early in career, worked as a corporate attorney in Chicago and later served on cabinets of two Michigan governors.
- Is a graduate of the Detroit College of Law and Western Michigan University...received WMU's Distinguished Alumni Award in 1994.
- Elected to the University of Michigan Board of Regents in 1996.
- Is a past chairman of Kids Voting Michigan, a non-partisan organization dedicated to educating the country's youth about the right, privilege and responsibilities of voting.

TIGERS CARE

One of the most important responsibilities of the Detroit Tigers organization is to have a positive impact on the community. Through Tigers Care, the Detroit Tigers community relations department, the club supports needy individuals, groups and institutions. The Detroit Tigers strive to improve the quality of life for children and the underprivileged and to strengthen the social and economic conditions of the community.

Tigers Care coordinates the efforts of Tigers players, coaches, alumni and front office staff in their charitable and community-oriented services. Thousands of organizations and individuals throughout Detroit, the state of Michigan and surrounding areas have been touched by the efforts of Tigers Care.

100 Percent Participation

In a special program administered by Tigers Care, each Tiger player and coach makes a commitment to work with a charity in the metro Detroit area. The 100 Percent Participation program is the cornerstone of the Tigers charitable work. Each year, more than 25 area organizations benefit from the dedication and caring of all Tiger players and coaches. The work includes counseling students, visiting youth groups, conducting baseball clinics, visiting hospitals, serving as chairmen or spokesmen, appearing in public service announcements and much more.

March of Dimes WalkAmerica

For four years, Tigers President John McHale has served as chairman of the Southeast Michigan March of Dimes WalkAmerica. The Tigers have been a major sponsor of the annual event. The club also coordinates an award ceremony for top fund-raisers at Comerica Park. During McHale's tenure, more than 60,000 walkers raised almost $6 million for the March of Dimes Campaign for Healthier Babies.

Charitable Donations and Ticket Programs

Each year, more than 1,000 charitable groups from Detroit and surrounding areas receive memorabilia for fund-raising auctions. In addition, more than 50,000 tickets are distributed to provide community groups with an opportunity to attend Tigers games.

Ambassadors for Education

This is the umbrella for the Tigers involvement in educational and academic support services. Programs include 1st B.A.S.E. (Bridging Academic & Sports through Education); the Tony Clark Negro League Scholarship; the Detroit Free Press Scholar-Athlete Program and the Detroit Public Library Summer Reading Program in which Tigers players read to children. The Perfect Attendance Program awards tickets to Detroit Public middle school students who maintain perfect attendance during a designated period of the school year, while the Jackie Robinson Essay, Art and Poetry Contest encourages students to learn and appreciate the history and impact of minorities in baseball.

1st B.A.S.E. (Bridging Academics and Sports through Education)

As part of the Ambassadors for Education program, the Tigers collaborate with the Detroit Public Schools to run this year-round mentoring, study skills and baseball training program, which targets high school baseball and softball players. As part of the program, the Tigers sponsor "rap sessions" in which students are exposed to successful community leaders who speak on the importance of education, establishing goals and community service.

Tigers Wives

The Tigers Wives Association was formed to better serve the needs of the community. The wives hosted "Picnic in the Park," a fundraiser at Comerica Park benefiting the Boys and Girls Clubs of Southeastern Michigan. The association also collects food for C.O.T.S. (Coalition on Temporary Shelter), conducts craft sessions at Children's Hospital and organizes a Tigers Pet Calendar to benefit the Dearborn Animal Shelter. The wives also created a quilt that was auctioned in Comerica Park and benefited Starr Commonwealth.

Detroit Tigers Traveling Camps

Tigers Care hosts baseball skill development day camps for youth ages 9-16 at City of Detroit recreation centers. The camps enhance participants' understanding of the game and teach them fundamental baseball skills. Present and former Tigers players visit the campers and deliver motivational talks.

PHIL GARNER

MANAGER #33

Completed first season with a record of 79-83...the 79 wins were fifth-most of Tigers first-year managers in the modern era (1961-present).

- Finished sixth in American League Manager of the Year voting in 2000, receiving two third place votes.
- Earned 600th career victory on July 4, 2000, in an 11-0 win at Tampa Bay.
- Suspended for eight games due to involvement in bench-clearing brawl incidents at Chicago on April 22, 2000...served suspension from April 28-May 5.
- Was named the Tigers 33rd manager on October 14, 1999, after seven-plus seasons as the Milwaukee Brewers skipper.

• Replaced Larry Parrish, who had been Tigers manager since being named to the interim post on September 1, 1998, succeeding Buddy Bell.

- Was replaced as manager by the Brewers on August 12, 1999...left as the club's all-time leader in games managed and victories with a 563-617 mark.

• Passed Tom Trebelhorn for first place in Brewers history in wins with his 423rd on August 24, 1997 in a 6-0 victory versus Detroit...earned his 500th career win on August 26, 1998 at Colorado.

- Managed his 1,000th career game on July 17, 1998 at Atlanta.

• Twice finished in the top three in balloting for the American League Manager of the Year award (third in 1997, second in 1992).

- Piloted Milwaukee to a 78-83 record in 1997 as the Brewers finished third in their final season in the AL, eight games out of first place.

• Became the third manager in club history to win 300 games in 1996 as he led a young club to an 80-82 record and third in the AL Central...the team closed with a 25-16 record down the stretch, third-best in the league.

- Kept his team in the wild card race until the final month of the 1995 season...the Brewers were just one-half game out of the playoffs on August 27 but finished 14 games behind the Yankees, who eventually captured the fourth post-season slot.

- Finished sixth in AL Manager of the Year voting in 1995 as the Brewers also tied a big league record with 10 grand slams and led the majors in double plays turned.

• His 1994 club started out 17-14 but endured a franchise-record 14-game losing skid and played in the second division the remainder of the season.

- Led the Brewers to a 92-70 record and second place in the AL East in 1992, his first season as a big league manager...his club was the last to be eliminated from the division chases, finishing four games behind eventual World Champion Toronto.

• The Brewers 92 wins in 1992 were their most since winning 95 games in 1982...finished second to Oakland's Tony LaRussa for AL Manager of the Year that season.

- Succeeded Trebelhorn as the Brewers ninth manager on October 30, 1991.

• Retired as a player following the 1988 season and assumed a coaching role on the staff of Houston Manager Art Howe...coached first base in 1989-90 and third base in 1991 while also serving as the club's infield and baserunning instructor.

- A three-time All-Star, he enjoyed an 18-year professional playing career beginning in 1971, when he was the first pick in the secondary phase of the January draft by Oakland...played primarily second base and third base during his career.

• Spent 14 full seasons and parts of two others in the major leagues with five clubs...made his big league debut with the A's in 1973 and also played for Pittsburgh, Houston, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

- Earned his first career All-Star selection for Oakland in 1976 as he was named to the AL squad in his second full year in the big leagues...led AL second basemen in total chances that season (865).

• Was traded to Pittsburgh on March 15, 1977 along with Tommy Helms and Chris Batton in exchange for Tony Armas, Mitchell Page, Doc Medich, Rick Langford, Doug Bair and Dave

- Tied a major league record for most grand slams in two consecutive games as he hit bases-loaded homers on September 14 and 15, 1978...the two grand slams also tied the NL mark for slams in a single month.
- Batted a career-best .293 with 32 doubles as he helped the Pirates to the 1979 World Championship.
- Set a World Series record for most double plays by a second baseman in a seven-game series (nine)...also tied Series marks for highest batting average (.500) in a seven-game series and by collecting at least one hit in each of the seven games.
- Led NL second basemen in assists (499), total chances (869) and double plays (116) in 1980.
- Was named to the NL All-Star team in both 1980 and 1981 for the Pirates before being dealt to Houston on August 31, 1981...was acquired by the Astros in exchange for Johnny Ray and two players to be named (Randy Niemann and Kevin Houston).

- Played a total of six seasons for the Astros, including 1986, when he was the primary third baseman on the Houston club which lost to the Mets in the NLCS.
- Split his final two seasons between the Astros, Dodgers and Giants...appeared in 15 games for San Francisco in 1988 to conclude his career.
- Graduated from the University of Tennessee with a business degree in 1973.
- Played for the Volunteers from 1968-70...was a two-time All-Southeastern Conference selection, the 1969 NCAA home run champion (12) and a 1970 honorable mention All-American.
- Was drafted by Montreal in the eighth round of the June 1970 draft but did not sign.
- Is nicknamed "Scrap Iron," a moniker given to him by former teammate and Hall-of-Famer Willie Stargell.
- Resides in Kingwood, TX in the off-season with his wife Carol, sons Eric and Ty and daughter Bethany.

How They Became Known as "Tigers"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tiger nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroit," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

DAN WARTHEN

PITCHING COACH #31

Begins second full season with the Tigers after guiding the pitching staff to a fifth-place finish in AL ERA (4.71) in 2000 -- was the Tigers first foray into the top five since 1988.

- Emphasis on control resulted in the staff leading the league in fewest walks allowed (496) in 2000 -- it was the first time since 1961 that the Tigers issued the fewest bases on balls in the AL.

- Effectively utilized a bullpen that finished first in the AL in Rolaids Relief points (116) and third in ERA (4.14).

- Assumed duties as the Tigers major league pitching coach on July 9, 1999, after serving the first half of the season as pitching coach at Triple A Toledo.

- Replaced Rick Adair, who had been the Tigers pitching coach since September, 1996.

- Also served as big league pitching coach for San Diego (1996-97) and Seattle (1992).

- Began his coaching career in 1981 in the Pittsburgh organization after pitching for the Pirates Triple A Portland affiliate in 1979 and 1980.

- Was the Phillies roving minor league pitching instructor from 1984-86.

- Was named pitching coach at Double A Chattanooga in the Seattle system in 1987...served as pitching coach at Triple A Calgary from 1988-90.

- First appeared on a big league coaching staff in 1991 when he was named the Mariners bullpen coach...served as Seattle's pitching coach the next season.

- Was hired by the Padres as minor league pitching instructor in 1993, joined Triple A Las Vegas as pitching coach in 1994 and returned to his roving duties in 1995 in the San Diego organization.

- Became the Padres major league pitching coach in October of 1995 and served for two seasons, including

#14

2000 SEASON

At the age of 24, Anderson completed his first full season in the major leagues, leading all Tigers pitchers in appearances with 69.

- Held opponents to a .228 batting average (61x268), which was lowest amongst Tigers pitchers (6+ appearances).
- Allowed just one run in 16 outings from April 23-May 29 (12.1IP, 0.73 ERA).
- Made the 100th appearance of his major league career on May 24 versus Cleveland.
- Was the first Tigers pitcher to three wins, earning his third by pitching two perfect innings of relief on June 4 at the Chicago Cubs.
- First batters faced managed just a .200 batting average (11x55) versus Anderson.
- Posted third consecutive winning record for the Tigers.
- Had best strikeout/walk ratio of his career at 1.58 (71SO/45BB).
- Had career-high of four strikeouts on two occasions -- May 31 versus Texas (2.0IP) and June 11 versus St. Louis (2.1IP).
- Pitched 2.2 innings on June 25 at Cleveland to set a career high...suffered his first loss of the season.
- His 2.87 road ERA (12ER/37.2IP) in 32 appearances was a career best and second only to Patterson (2.86) on the staff.
- Allowed two earned runs (July 14 versus Houston and July 22 versus Kansas City) in 13 appearances from June 27-July 24 (15.0 IP).
- Picked up first career save September 2 versus Texas.
- Closed the season allowing runs in six of his last nine outings (11ER/8.2IP -- 11.42 ERA).
- An ERA of 10.24 (11ER/9.2IP) in September/October raised his overall ERA close to one run, from 3.90 at the beginning of the month to its final 4.72.
- Batters fared well putting his first pitch into play, a .391 batting average (9x23) when doing so...struggled to a .158 batting average (24x152) after an 0-1 count.

- Was 3-1, with a 4.05 ERA (18ER/40.0IP) prior to the All-Star break; 0-1 with a 5.50 ERA (21ER/34.1IP) following the break.
- Posted a 0.00 ERA in eight games (10.0IP) versus Minnesota, allowing five hits while striking out eight.
- Strikeout total of 71 nearly surpassed the total for his first two seasons (76).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

After jumping from Double A to the major leagues his rookie year, Anderson spent part of the 1999 season with Triple A Toledo after struggling during May in Detroit.

- Major league opponents batted .232 against Anderson...only Doug Brocail and C.J. Nitkowski posted tougher opponent averages on the Tigers staff.
- Did not give up a run in his first six home appearances (April 12-21), allowing only two hits while striking out seven.

How Obtained: Selected by the Tigers in the first round (first overall) of the June 1997 draft

- Boasted a 0.90 ERA in 10.0 innings of work through 10 games in April, striking out 14 and giving up one run...opponents batted only .121 against him in that stretch.
- His ERA jumped to 9.22 in May with 13.2 innings pitched and 14 earned runs allowed...also walked 17 batters, an average of 11.2 per nine innings.
- Surrendered two walks, a hit and an earned run on June 5 versus the Cardinals while failing to retire a batter...it marked his final big league appearance until August.
- Was optioned to Triple A on June 8 and was placed in the starting rotation to work out his control problems.
- Returned to the Tigers on August 16...did not allow an earned run in four games in August, totaling 5.0 innings pitched.
- Hurlled 2.0 innings in relief six times.
- Fanned three batters on April 24 at Chicago.

- Averaged 7.6 strikeouts per nine innings pitched in the big leagues but also struggled with his control, averaging 8.3 walks per nine innings.
- Also posted his best numbers for the Tigers away from home, compiling a 4.34 ERA (9ER/18.2IP).

Progressed from Single A to the major leagues in 1998, his first pro season, and was named Tiger Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters' Association.

- Was the top overall selection in the June 1997 draft and was the third player from that draft to make it to the big leagues, behind Jim Parque of the White Sox and the Reds Mike Frank.
- His ascension to the major leagues was the quickest by a Tiger draft pick since Billy Bean, the club's fourth-round selection in the June 1986 draft who was promoted to Detroit on April 25, 1987.
- Regularly topped 100 mph on the radar gun, including a high mark of 103 mph twice.
- Ranked fourth among AL rookies with 42 appearances, all coming after his contract was purchased from Double A Jacksonville on June 25.
- Registered the third-lowest ERA among AL rookies with at least 25 relief outings...in the majors, just six rookie relievers with at least 25 outings had a better ERA.
- Five victories tied him with Doug Brocail for the team lead among relievers and won his final three decisions of the campaign.
- Struck out 28 hitters in his last 23.1 innings and averaged a strikeout per inning over the course of the season for the Tigers (44SO/44.0IP).
- Enjoyed his best success at Tiger Stadium, where he posted a 2.96 ERA (8ER/24.1IP) and was scored upon in just three of his 23 appearances there.
- Five of the 16 runs he allowed on the season came in one appearance, a stint lasting one-third of an inning on September 14 versus the White Sox.
- Surrendered just three home runs, an average of 0.6 per nine innings of work.
- Allowed just one run in his first 15 major league appearances, totaling 15.1 innings.
- Made his major league debut on June 25, his first game in a big league uniform, earning the victory in a 6-4 Tiger win over the Chicago Cubs.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Made his Triple A debut with Toledo on June 13, 1999 with 4.0 innings pitched in his first professional start, giving up no runs and striking out three.

- Was used predominantly as the Mud Hens closer (in 18 out of 24 appearances)...notched five saves, tying Erik Hiljous for the team lead.
- Gave up 32 hits, the lowest total among all Toledo pitchers with 20-or-more games.
- Enjoyed his best success on the road for Toledo, allowing only five runs in eight road games and maintaining a 3.29 ERA.

Split his minor league time in 1998 between Single A

Lakeland and Double A Jacksonville in his first professional season.

- In 17 appearances at Lakeland, he allowed just two earned runs in 26.0 innings and fanned 34 batters while walking eight.
- Was promoted to Jacksonville on May 22 where he was installed as the Suns closer and went 1-0 with 10 saves in 13 appearances.
- Allowed just one run for the Suns in 15.0 innings (0.60 ERA), that coming on a solo home run...fanned 11 while allowing only seven hits, and just 12-of-56 total batters faced reached base safely against him (21%).
- Combined for a 2-0 record, 13 saves and a 0.66 ERA (3ER/41.0IP) in 30 minor league games...fanned 45 and walked just 13 for an average of 9.9 strikeouts and 2.9 walks per nine innings pitched.
- In his combined minor league action, just 38-of-164 batters faced reached base safely off him (23%).

AMATEUR/COLLEGIATE CAREER

Was selected by the Tigers first overall in the June 1997 draft after earning first-team All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball as a short reliever at Rice University.

- The selection marked the first time in the history of the June draft that the Tigers had the top overall selection...came to terms with the club on December 19.
- Was rated as the top pitching prospect in college baseball prior to the draft by Baseball America.
- Rated by the publication as having the best collegiate fastball (clocked up to 99 mph during the season).
- Notched a 10-1 record with nine saves and a Western Athletic Conference-best 1.82 ERA in 28 relief appearances in his junior year.
- For the season, he pitched 74.1 innings and allowed just 44 hits, 26 walks and a .173 batting average against while averaging 11.7 strikeouts per nine innings.
- Earned the WAC Tournament MVP award even though he did not pitch in the championship game.
- Had a pair of saves in the NCAA Central Regional, preserving Owl triumphs over Southwest Missouri State and Clemson.
- Broke the Rice record for career wins with No. 28 on April 20 against New Mexico...finished his college career with a 30-6 record, 2.93 ERA and 230 strikeouts in 224.1 innings of work.
- Also holds the Rice career records for saves (14) and games pitched (83).

Earned consensus All-Southwest Conference honors as a freshman in 1995, going 11-2 with a conference-best 2.51 ERA and a .190 batting average against.

- Was a member of Team USA in the summer of 1995, compiling a 2-0 record with a 1.96 ERA and five saves...one of the wins came in the NBC World Series title game.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Matt, wife Rebecca and son Jacob (8/18/00) reside in Louisville, KY in the off-season.

• Pitched for Phoenix in the Arizona Fall League during the 1998 off-season, posting a 4-0 record with a 2.08 ERA and 13 strikeouts in 13.0 innings pitched.

• Was named the top pro prospect in the prestigious Cape Cod League in 1996.

Qualifications for League Batting and Pitching Titles

A batting champion is determined each season in each league by the highest batting average (number of hits divided by the number of at bats) based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, which may include walks, sacrifices and hit by pitch.

The pitching champion is determined in each league by the lowest earned run average (number of earned runs multiplied by nine, then divided by innings pitched) with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

2000 SEASON

Showed poise and promise after arriving in Detroit for good on August 1, rapidly moving through the Tigers minor league system to the majors.

- Made his major league debut in a start on August 1 at Anaheim and was impressive, tossing 5.1 innings and allowing two runs on five hits while striking out five -- departed a tie game and received a no-decision.
- Suffered first loss in a start on August 12 at Oakland -- gave up four runs on six hits in a 9-5 defeat.
- Was 0-1 with a 4.98 ERA (12ER/21.2IP) in four games as a starter.
- Appeared out of the bullpen for the first time after three straight starts on August 18 versus Oakland -- struck out two of the three batters he faced in a scoreless inning.
- Posted a 2.84 ERA (4ER/10.2IP) as a reliever, walking two while striking out 11.
- Was 3-1 with a 2.47 ERA (13ER/47.1IP) in seven starts at Toledo...held opponents to a .201 batting average (34x169)...had 37 strikeouts and just 10 walks.
- Won his first two starts at the Triple A level, allowing just one earned run while fanning 12.
- In his last game at Toledo prior to recall, July 25, he tossed a complete game, three-hit shutout (seven innings) at Norfolk.
- Began the season at Double A Jacksonville and was 2-5 with a 2.79 ERA (19ER/61.1IP) in 10 starts.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER

Posted an 8-4 record with a 2.54 ERA with Single A West Michigan in 1999, his first professional season after signing as a non-drafted free agent.

- Led all Tigers minor leaguers with a 2.54 ERA...fourth on the Whitecaps staff with eight wins despite only pitching 15 games.
- Owned a .210 batting average against (75x357), second best in the Midwest League.
- Made his professional debut on May 29 at Rockford...took the loss as he allowed five runs on seven hits in 5.0 innings...gave up a career-high three home runs.

- Earned his first professional win June 8, tossing 7.0 innings and allowing two runs (one earned) on five hits against Beloit.
- Posted a five-game winning streak June 8-29...in the five starts, he posted a 1.12 ERA, allowing seven runs (five earned) on 22 hits, walking eight and striking out 33 batters.
- Struck out 10 batters, limiting Fort Wayne to one run on four hits in 8.0 innings in a win on June 18.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout on June 29 at Lansing, striking out 11 batters while walking just two...earned Midwest League Pitcher of the Week honors for June 27-July 3.
- Earned Midwest League Pitcher of the Week honors a second time, July 18-24...posted a 2-0 record with a 1.65 ERA in two starts, striking out 16 while allowing four runs (three earned) on just 12 hits and four walks.
- Named the Tigers Minor League Pitcher of the Month for June, posting a 5-0 record with a 0.99 ERA in six starts...allowed seven runs (five earned) on 24 hits while striking out 39 batters in 45.1 innings.

- Struck out a career-best 12 batters in a no-decision on July 29 against Lansing...allowed two runs (one earned) on five hits in 8.2 innings.

2000 SEASON

An injury-plagued season hampered his progress, as he appeared in just 15 games, two with the Tigers.

- Was recalled from Toledo on April 23 and made a start that day at Comiskey Park in place of the ailing Brian Moehler (appendectomy)...suffered the loss, lasting 1.2 innings and allowing eight runs on six hits while walking five -- four of the six hits went for extra-bases (2-2B, 3B, HR).
- Worked out of the bullpen on May 1 at Boston, allowing five runs on five hits in a 10-6 loss.
- Was optioned to Toledo on May 3 when the Tigers opted to purchase the contract of Jose Macias from the Mud Hens.
- Began the season at Toledo and was 1-0 with a 2.81 ERA (5ER/16.0IP) at the time of his recall to Detroit.
- Experienced discomfort in his pitching elbow after a start on May 26 versus Syracuse...diagnosed as bone chips and underwent surgery on May 30.
- Returned on August 3 and made three rehab starts for the Gulf Coast League Tigers...posted a 2.25 ERA, striking out six and walking none in 8.0 innings.
- Was transferred to Lakeland and made two starts for the Tigers affiliate to end his season...lost first start versus Daytona, allowing four runs on five hits in 3.0 innings.
- Last start came on September 2 at Charlotte, where he worked 4.1 innings and allowed three runs on six hits while fanning four.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

The Detroit native joined the Tigers on July 16, 1999 for his first taste of major league action.

- Made 12 starts for the Tigers, going 1-6 as a starter and 2-6 overall with a 6.10 ERA.
- Earned no-decision in his major league debut on July 17 at Houston on national television, tossing 7.1 innings and striking out eight while giving up only two runs in a 3-2 Tigers loss...the two runs came on homers by Craig Biggio and Jeff Bagwell.

2000 SEASON

Received his first taste of the big leagues this season after six years in the Tigers minor league system.

- Was recalled from Toledo for his first major league stint on May 30 when Gregg Jefferies was placed on disabled list.
- Entered his first career game as a defensive replacement in a 13-5 loss versus Texas on May 31...fired out to right field against Matt Perisho in first career at-bat.
- Made first major league start on June 5 at Pittsburgh with Mlicki on the mound and collected his first hit off of Francisco Cordova, an infield single.
- Optioned to Toledo on June 12 when Clark was activated from the disabled list.
- Returned to the Tigers on July 6 to replace the injured Robert Fick.
- Drilled first career home run on August 5 versus Minnesota, a solo shot off of Joe Mays.
- Appeared in 26 games (12 starts) for Detroit and went 7x40 (.175) with nine strikeouts and no walks.
- Began the season at Toledo and was batting .242 with nine homers and 34 RBI in 39 games prior to his first stint with the Tigers...completed his year at Toledo batting .275 (60x218) with 11 home runs and 43 RBI in 56 games.

- Batted .339 (20x59) in June for the Mud Hens.
- Went 4x5 with two runs and three RBI on June 23 versus Ottawa...had 17 multi-hit games at Toledo.
- Hit in 13-of-14 games (21x56, .375), including eight straight, leading up to his final recall to Detroit.
- Named the best defensive catcher in the International League.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER

The Tigers Minor League Player of the Year captured the Southern League home run crown with a career-high 26 longballs in a career year at Double A Jacksonville in 1999.

- Baseball America named him to its overall Double A All-Star squad and selected him as the Southern League's fifth-best prospect...was also named to the TOPPS/Minor League Baseball overall Double A All-Star team.

- Played in the MLB All-Star Futures Game with other top minor league prospects, held at Boston's Fenway Park prior to the major league All-Star festivities...started at DH and went 0x3 for the victorious World team.
- Was one of four Suns named to the Southern League All-Star squad.
- Paced the league in slugging percentage (.569)...ranked fourth in batting average (.309) and RBI (92), numbers which led all Tigers minor leaguers.
- Was the only player in the Southern League with at least 20 home runs to also rank in the league's top 10 in batting average.
- His .309 batting average was fifth-best among all minor league catchers, second-best among Double A backstops.
- His 26 homers were 19 more than his previous career-best (1997) and his 92 RBI were 36 more than his previous high (1998)...also set career-highs in doubles (31), walks (46) and games played (108).

The Offensive Fireworks of May 28, 1995

At Tiger Stadium on May 28, 1995, an offensive explosion unlike any other in major league history erupted as the Chicago White Sox topped the Tigers, 14-12. The two clubs combined for a big-league record 12 home runs in that contest, one more than the previous record accomplished four times. Other interesting facts included:

- Ten of the 12 home runs were solo shots, another major league record.
- Four players had multi-home run games including three Tigers, tying two big-league marks.
- With nine doubles included, a record 21 extra-base hits were also collected in the game.
- The game fell on Kirk Gibson's 38th birthday, and he celebrated with a pair of homers.

Following is a list of all 12 of the home runs hit at Tiger Stadium on May 28, 1995:

1. Detroit, Chad Curtis, none on, off James Baldwin, 1st inning
2. Detroit, Cecil Fielder, two on, off James Baldwin, 1st inning
3. Detroit, Chad Curtis, none on, off James Baldwin, 2nd inning

2000 SEASON

Led the Astros with 25 stolen bases despite appearing in only 74 games.

- Was Houston's Opening Day centerfielder...hit just .175 (14x80) in April but rebounded to hit .337 (28x83) in May.
- Tripled to right field for his first hit as an Astro April 8 versus Philadelphia.
- Swiped four bases April 22 versus San Diego, tying his career high and matching the club record for an extra-inning game.
- Tied a career-high with five hits May 12 versus Cincinnati...stole three bases and notched two RBI.
- Posted six multi-steal games on the season, with four two-steal efforts in addition to his three- and four-steal games.
- Went 14x37 in a 10-game span May 4-14, hitting safely in nine of those contests...had a triple, two home runs, eight RBI, four stolen bases and drew eight walks.
- Went on the disabled list May 26 and missed 75 games with fractured metacarpals in his left hand and a ruptured tendon in his left ring finger.

- Appeared in six games with Triple A New Orleans on rehab, batting .350 (7x20).
- Activated from the disabled list August 18 and went 3x5 with a season-high three runs scored versus Milwaukee, batting leadoff and making his first start in left field since June 6, 1999.
- Stole two bases in that game and went 5x9 with four runs scored and two RBI in his first two games back.
- Drilled a first-inning, leadoff home run versus the Mets on August 28 in his first at-bat back at Shea Stadium since playing for the Mets in 1999...was his first career leadoff homer and the first by an Astro since Craig Biggio on August 29, 1999 versus Florida.
- Went 3x3 September 10 against the Cubs at Wrigley Field before leaving the game with flu-like symptoms.
- Went 4x5 September 19 at St. Louis.

- Hit .370 (20x54) in September.
- Posted a .388 on-base percentage when hitting lead-off, sixth-best in the National League.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Enjoyed the best offensive season of his major league career in 1999, posting a .314 average and more than doubling his career-best hit total with 141 while playing with the New York Mets.

- Appeared in a career-high 155 games, and also set career numbers with 90 runs (previous high: 33, 1998), 141 hits (previous high: 58, 1998), 23 doubles (previous high: 11, 1996 & 1998) and 36 RBI (previous high: 17, 1997 & 1998).
- Stole 66 bases on the season, eclipsing his previous high of nine set in 1997 with the Dodgers...the 66 steals were second-most in the majors behind Arizona's Tony Womack (70).
- Notched 16 steals of third base, most in the NL.
- Stole his 59th base of the season August 30 at Houston, setting a Mets single-season mark...Mookie

Wilson held the previous high with 58 steals in 1982.

- Tied a Mets club record with four steals on May 14 at Philadelphia...Vince Coleman accomplished the feat twice, once in 1992 and once in 1993.
- Led all major leaguers with a .351 average hitting in the seventh spot as well as a .399 average when leading off an inning.
- Started eight games in left field, 18 in center and 82 in right...led the Mets with nine outfield assists.
- Went 5x8 with two doubles in consecutive games April 16-17 versus Montreal.
- Hit .344 (32x93) in May, including nine multi-hit efforts...posted 37 multi-hit games for the season.
- Collected a season-high four hits as he went 4x4 with two doubles and a stolen base May 12 at Colorado.
- Stole 17 bases in 13 games (12 starts) May 12-25...notched seven multi-steal efforts in May and totaled 16 multi-steal games for the season.

Hitting for the Cycle

In all, since 1900, major league batters have hit for the cycle 200 times, 100 in the American League and 100 in the National.

The most recent Tiger to hit for the cycle was Travis Fryman on July 28, 1993.

Bob Meusel of the Yankees set the major league record by becoming the first player to accomplish the feat three times in a career. Meusel's record-setting third cycle came at Detroit's Navin Field on July 26, 1928. The Cubs' - Babe Herman later tied the record in 1933.

Following is a list of every cycle hit in a game involving the Tigers:

2000 SEASON

After appearing in over 100 games in each of the last four seasons, was limited to 60 this year due to injuries to his rib cage and lower back.

- Reduced playing time resulted in low power numbers, though he still hit 13 home runs and drove in 37...streak of three straight seasons of 30-or-more homers came to an end.
- Rebounded from a slow start that included a .115 batting average in the opening month to finish at .274...combined to hit .340 (50x147), with 11 HR and 33 RBI over the last five months of the season.
- Suffered a strained left rib cage while batting May 4 at Minnesota -- placed on the disabled list May 13...played three games at Toledo in a rehab assignment and went 1x12.
- Hit in 17-of-22 games (28x84, .333) after coming off the disabled list on June 12 with 24 RBI in that span.
- Named the American League Player of the Week for June 19-25...went 9x26 (.346) with four home runs and 11 RBI, both tops in the league...posted a .923 slugging percentage, scored seven runs, and collected three doubles to add to 24 total bases.
- Belted a pair of two-run homers June 20 at Toronto, the 12th multi-HR game of his career and his first since October 1, 1999.
- Went 3x5 June 26 at Cleveland, with a double, a two-run homer and three RBI, one of two three-hit games on the season.
- Homered in three straight games June 26-28...posted five multi-hit games in six games June 26-July 7.
- Two-run single in the 15th inning provided Tigers with 4-2 win on July 8 at Milwaukee.
- Heads for his second stint on the 15-day disabled list on July 15 due to a lumbar spine strain.
- Activated from disabled list on September 1 after three games of rehab at Toledo (1x10, HR).
- Hit in 10 of his 13 games once coming off his second disabled list trip, going 14x39 (.359) with five doubles, a HR and six RBI.

- Compiled two six-game hitting streaks on the season, his last coming June 24-July 1, hitting .462 (12x26) during that span.
- Batted .100 (9x90) with two strikes, the lowest average in the American League in that situation.
- Was shut down for the season and returned to the 15-day disabled list on September 19 (retroactive to September 17) to allow his back more time to heal...later transferred to the 60-day disabled list on September 22.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Compiled a career-high and team-best 19-game hit streak in 1999, posting some of the Tigers best offensive totals in his third full major league season.

- Finished the season one RBI shy of becoming the first Tiger ever to post 100 RBI in each of his first three full big league seasons.
- Became only the fifth Tiger in history to hit 30-or-more homers in three consecutive campaigns...only Hank Greenberg and Cecil Fielder topped 30 homers in four straight seasons.

- Led the Tigers with 150 hits...finished second to Dean Palmer with 31 homers.
- Homered from both sides of the plate in the same game twice, the last time coming on July 25 against Boston (sixth career)...posted three total multi-homer games.
- Finished second on the team with 39 multi-hit games, topped only by Deivi Cruz's 41.
- Ranked second on the team with 25 multi-RBI games, including four with four RBI.
- Reached base by hit or walk in 66 of his last 75 games...reached in 26 straight games from July 10-August 10, the longest streak of any Tiger that season.
- Batted .308 (119x386) in his last 102 contests...was batting .203 on May 12.
- Had 23 homers and 59 RBI in 73 games after the All-Star break...prior to the break he had only eight homers and 38 RBI in 70 games.

How Obtained: Selected by the Tigers in the first round (second overall) of the June 1990 draft

- Batted .240 in the first half of the season but hit .317 after the All-Star break.
- Hit .318 with runners in scoring position (42x132), second only to Luis Polonia's .333 among Tigers with 60-or-more at bats.
- Drilled his 100th career home run on May 16 off Cleveland's Jaret Wright.
- Made his first appearance on the disabled list since 1993 on May 26...was placed on the 15-day disabled list with a sprained ligament in his right shoulder (sternoclavicular joint).
- Batted .370 (23x73) during his 19-game hit streak from July 10-August 1...that streak tied for the longest by a Tiger since Alan Trammell's 21-game run in 1987.
- Named Tiger Player of the Month for July and August...batted .289 in July with 28 hits, nine homers and a team-best 27 RBI, the most by a Tiger in any month in 1999.
- Hit .317 in August with 32 hits...added six doubles, six homers and 14 RBI.
- Homered in three straight games twice, August 12-14 and September 5-8.
- The tallest switch-hitter in major league history, he had 425 at-bats from the left side of the plate, where he batted .282, and 111 at-bats from the right side (.270).
- Ranked sixth among American League first basemen with a .992 fielding percentage.
- Struck out 133 times, sixth-most in the American League.

After a slow start in 1998, he went on to lead the Tigers with a .291 average, 34 homers and 103 RBI in 157 games.

- Became the first Tiger since 1938 (Rudy York) to post 100 RBI in each of his first two full major league seasons.
- Also became just the ninth player to lead the Tigers in batting, homers and RBI in the same season and the first since Steve Kemp in 1979.
- His 34 homers (tied for 12th in the AL) were the most ever by a Tiger switch-hitter.
- Had 30 homers in his last 440 at-bats (1/14.7AB) after hitting just four in his first 162.
- Hit .312 (77x247) over his last 64 games and notched a .307 mark (90x293) after the All-Star break.
- Had 75 RBI in his last 107 games...collected just 14 RBI in his first 31 contests.
- Hit .331 from the right side of the plate (57x172) after starting the season with a .283 average as a righthanded hitter.
- Reached base safely by hit or walk in 101 of his last 120 games and hit .305 during that span (138x453).
- Homered from each side of the plate on August 1 at Tampa Bay for the third time on the year (fourth career) to set a single-season record, one short of the major league mark.
- Was named Tiger Player of the Month for June, July and August.
- Hit 10 homers in June, making him one of just four Tigers to drill 10 roundtrippers in a month during in the 1990s (also Palmer, Easley and Fielder).

- Recorded the first-ever hit and run scored in the inaugural game for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays in the second inning on March 31.
- Hit his first home run of 1998 on April 19 off Hideki Irabu to snap a 62 at-bat streak without a home run, the longest single-season homerless drought of his career...also homered in his next at-bat, coming on April 21 off Boston's Brian Rose.
- Hit homers in back-to-back games four times on the year.
- Had a 13-game hitting streak (July 20-August 1) and a 10-game streak (May 13-22).
- Tied his career-best with four hits on May 21 at Minnesota and on July 25 at Cleveland.
- Posted a 48-game errorless streak at first base (June 28-August 21), the sixth-longest streak by a Tiger first baseman since 1961.
- After fanning 45 times in his first 169 AB (1/3.8AB), he struck out 83 times in his next 433 AB (1/5.2AB)...finished 10th in the AL with 128 strikeouts on the season.
- Started at DH in six straight contests from May 28-June 2 due to a sore left shoulder.

Led the Tigers with 117 RBI and 32 homers in 1997 in his first full season in the majors.

- Shared Tiger Player of the Year honors with Bobby Higginson as selected by the Detroit chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.
- Ranked among AL leaders in RBI (T6th-117), runs scored (T10th-105), walks (7th-93) and intentional walks (6th-13).
- Became the fifth-fastest player in ML history to hit 50 career homers, coming in career game number 202, June 28 at Boston (trailed Mark McGwire-151 games, Rudy York-153, Chuck Klein-195, Bob Horner-196).
- Became just the 13th switch-hitter all-time to hit 30 homers in a season...with Mickey Tettleton's 30 homers (1991, '92, '93), the Tigers became just one of two major league teams (joining the Mets) with two switch-hitters to belt over 30 homers.
- Along with Travis Fryman (102) and Bobby Higginson (101), his 117 RBI helped the Tigers finish with three players over 100 RBI for the first time since 1950 (Evers, Kell and Wertz) and the eighth time in team history.
- Started the season with one-or-more RBI in each of the season's first five games (four multi-RBI contests)...in research dating to 1953, it was the longest season-opening streak of consecutive RBI games for a Tiger.
- Posted 27 RBI during April, the most for a Tiger in the season's first month since 1953.
- Was named American League Player of the Week for April 14-20, hitting .458 (11x24) with six runs, four home runs and 11 RBI.

pair of homers three times (last on May 17 at Kansas City).

- Set a career-high with five RBI on June 21 against Boston.
- Collected his first major league stolen base on April 15 at Milwaukee.
- Tied a Tiger record with two doubles in one inning on August 22 at Milwaukee, just the second Tiger to accomplish the feat (Pop Dillon, April 25, 1901 at Baltimore).
- Was hit by a pitch on April 14 for the first time in his big league career (140 games).
- Placed fourth among American League first basemen with a .993 fielding mark.

Was recalled from Triple A on June 7, 1996, and went on to finish third in voting for American League Rookie of the Year...finished behind winner Derek Jeter and runner-up James Baldwin.

- Paced all major league rookies in homers (27).
- Named Tiger Rookie of the Year by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters' Association.
- Led the club with 27 homers despite appearing in just 100 games.
- The 27 longballs were the most by a Tiger rookie since Matt Nokes hit 32 in 1987.
- Also was named to TOPPS Rookie All-Star team at first base.
- Earned American League Player of the Week honors for September 23-29...was the only Tiger to earn the honor in 1996.
- Enjoyed his first career two-homer game on September 15 versus Baltimore and duplicated the feat on September 29 against Milwaukee...his first homer on the 15th cleared the right field roof, the 30th homer in Tiger Stadium history to be hit out of the stadium.
- Notched 18 homers in his last 60 games and 24 RBI in his final 18 contests.
- Recorded his first career grand slam on August 1 in Detroit off California's Greg Gohr.
- Started 53-of-54 Tiger games at first base after Cecil Fielder was traded to New York on July 31.
- Earned Tigers Player of the Month honors for August and September.

Was recalled from Toledo on September 2, 1995, for his first stint in the big leagues.

- Recorded his first two hits in his first game on September 3 versus Cleveland...both hits came off Indians closer Jose Mesa.
- Hit safely in each of his first five games (.350; 7x20), including his first big league homer on September 8 at Toronto off Jeff Ware.
- Posted a six-game hitting streak (.478; 11x23) to close the season before going hitless in his final game on October 1 at Baltimore.

2001 Postseason Facts

The 2001 American League and National League Division Series will feature the winners of each of the three divisions and a wild card team squaring off in best-of-five series. The wild card team will be the second-place team with the best record in each league, and that club will play the division winner with the best record, unless that team is from the same division as the wild card.

Games One, Two and Five (if necessary) of each Division Series will be held at the home field of the team with the better record, unless it is a wild card team. The wild card will never have home-field advantage for the Division or League Championship Series.

The two winners from each Division Series will then advance to the best-of-seven League Championship Series, with the winner of each LCS moving on to the World Series. The team with the better record will host Games One, Two, Six and Seven of the LCS.

The National League representative is scheduled to host Games One, Two, Six and Seven of the 2001 World Series.

2000 SEASON

Had an impressive year, posting career bests in batting average, hits, runs, doubles, triples and RBI while continuing to play solid defense.

- Posted a career-best .302 batting average and 46 doubles to lead all Tigers regulars...was second on the team to Higginson with 583 at-bats and 176 hits.
- His 46 doubles were the most by a Tiger since George Kell hit 56 in 1950...ranked third in the AL in that category.
- Had 55 multi-hit games, the most by a Tigers player since Alan Trammell had 64 in 1987.
- Was the second-hardest batter to fan in the American League, striking out an average of once every 14.3 at-bats...total of 43 strikeouts were the fewest for his career...had only three multiple strikeout games.
- Went 4x5 on May 12 versus New York, tying a career high in hits (set August 15, 1998 versus Oakland).
- An eight-game hitting streak from June 6-16 (11x29, .379) was the longest of his season.
- Was a double shy of hitting for the cycle June 28 versus New York, going 3x4 with three RBI and three runs scored.
- Went 7x12 (.583) in three straight multi-hit games July 18-20.
- Batted in the number four spot on July 25 versus Tampa Bay for the first time in his major league career and went 2x4 with a double and two RBI.
- Ranked fourth among American League shortstops with a .982 fielding percentage.
- Had doubles in four consecutive at-bats on August 19-20 versus Oakland.
- Ranked eighth in the AL with a .345 batting average (48x139) versus lefties.
- Had eight straight doubles in eight games August 15-23.
- Eclipsed the .300 mark with a .349 average (38x109) in the last month of the season.
- Walked only 13 times, his fourth straight season with totals in the teens.
- Batted .286 (12x42) with an 0-2 count, ninth-best in the American League.

- Grounded into 25 double plays, tied for third-most in the American League.
- Was successful hitting with men on base as his .349 batting average (96x275) ranked ninth in the league...hit .307 (50x163) with runners in scoring position.
- Ranked second in the American League in percentage of swings put into play at 54.1% (555/1025).
- Averaged the third-fewest pitches seen per plate appearance at 3.16 (1943/615).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Enjoyed a career year at the plate in 1999, besting his previous personal highs for home runs, RBI, hits and doubles while maintaining his status as one of the league's top defensive shortstops.

- Was hitting .223 (23x103) through May 21 with five doubles, no home runs and three RBI...hit .299 after that date (124x415) with 30 doubles, 13 home runs and 54 RBI.
- Batted .299 after the All-Star break with 10 homers and 40 RBI...had 21 RBI in his final 28 contests.

- Matched his career-best with a 10-game hitting streak, August 31-September 10...also amassed an eight-game streak and two seven-game streaks during the season.
- Named Tigers Player of the Month for September/October, batting .346 with six homers and 22 RBI...his 37 hits in that period were the most for any Tiger player in a single month.
- His .346 September/October average marked the highest monthly average in his major league career.
- Led the Tigers in doubles (35) and multi-hit games (41)...tied for second with 147 hits.
- Ranked second on the team with a career-high .284 batting average, his best single-season average since hitting .294 at Single A Burlington in 1996.
- Posted his first career multi-homer game on September 12 against the Blue Jays.
- Hit his first home run of 1999 on June 6 after 222 at-bats without one dating to September 1, 1998.
- Had 18 total RBI in July after driving in just 17 prior to the All-Star break.

- Drove in four runs twice in a span of three games (July 21-23), matching his career game-high for RBI... totaled three four-RBI games on the season.
- Led the team with 155 games played...his previous career-high was 147 in 1997.
- Hit second in the order 17 times in 1999, the only time he had ever hit higher than seventh...went 26x81 (.321) with five homers and 15 RBI in those 17 games.
- Ranked second among league shortstops and third in the majors in fielding with a .984 average (12 errors).
- Ranked second in the league with 14 sacrifice bunts.
- Struck out an average of once every 9.3 plate appearances, making him the third-hardest Tiger to fan.
- Recorded a 42-game errorless streak from July 30-September 14.

Started 131 games at shortstop in 1998 despite missing all of Spring Training and most of April due to injury.

- Fractured his left ankle playing winter ball...activated from the disabled list on April 27.
- Struck out in just one out of every 8.3 at-bats, second-best on the team.
- Had 14 multi-hit efforts in his last 48 games played and hit .299 (49x164) with 12 doubles in that stretch.
- Hit .340 versus lefties (35x103), a mark which would have tied for seventh-best in the AL had he qualified.
- Ranked fourth among major league shortstops in fielding (.983) and made just two errors in his last 42 games...committed just one error in his first 31 games.
- Cracked his first career grand slam on September 1 off Texas' Danny Patterson...had a career-best seven total bases in the game.
- Was 3x9 with two doubles, a homer and eight RBI with the bases loaded.
- Posted his first career four-hit game versus Oakland on August 15...homered and drove in three runs.

Was a Rule 5 draft selection from Single A in 1997 but established himself as one of the league's top defensive shortstops after inheriting the starting spot in Spring Training.

- Was slated to play mainly as a backup, but a back injury to Orlando Miller in March gave him the opportunity to win the job.
- Started 133 games and became just the third rookie shortstop (100 games or more) since 1965 to make 13-or-fewer errors in a season (Dick Schofield in 1984 and Ozzie Guillen in 1985 each made 12 errors)...the last rookie shortstop to play in more than 100 games and make fewer than 12 errors was Milwaukee's Woody Woodward in 1965 (nine errors, 112 games).
- Had a 48-game errorless streak from June 23-August 20, the longest by a Tiger shortstop since Ed Brinkman's club-record 72-game streak in 1972.
- Finished fourth among American League shortstops in fielding percentage (.979)...made six errors in his last 81 games but committed two of those in the season's final contest, his only two-error game of the year.
- Was rated by Baseball America as having the American League's third-best infield arm.

- Placed fourth in balloting for AL Rookie of the Year.
- Hit .279 (57x204) over his final 64 games.
- Finished third among American League rookies with 105 hits and 26 doubles...his 40 RBI, 137 total bases and 22 multi-hit games all ranked sixth.
- Hit .371 with runners on third base (13x35), including a .444 mark (8x18) mark with two outs.
- Second in the AL with 14 sacrifice bunts.
- Was forced out of the lineup for three September games after colliding with Bobby Higginson (September 13-15)...suffered a slight concussion on the play.
- Drilled his first major league homer on June 2 at Oakland off Steve Karsay, a two-run shot.
- Posted his first two major league hits on Opening Day (April 1 at Minnesota), the first coming off Brad Radke.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Appeared in two games during rehab at both Single A Lakeland and Triple A Toledo in 1998.

Set a Midwest League all-time record in 1996 with a .980 fielding percentage as a shortstop at Single A Burlington.

- Led the league with 427 assists and ranked among the circuit's top 20 in batting with a .294 average.
- Ranked among the league's top 10 with 210 total bases (5th), 152 hits (5th) and 517 at-bats (3rd)...was the Midwest League's second-most difficult batter to strike out (once every 11.5 plate appearances).
- Was ranked by Baseball America as the league's 10th-best prospect.
- Made just 13 total errors on the season in 121 games at short and seven at third base.
- Hit .317 (118x372) with nine homers and 51 RBI in his final 92 games.

Spent the majority of the 1995 season at Single A Bellingham of the Northwest League, but also saw action at Burlington.

- Was primarily a third baseman, leading the Northwest League with a .941 fielding mark and 47 putouts.
- Tied for ninth in the league with a .296 batting average, tied for second with 17 doubles and was the second-most-difficult batter to strike out (1/11.7PA).

Missed over a month in 1994 after mid-season surgery to repair a left knee ligament.

Led his 1993 Scottsdale club with a .341 average.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Was selected by Los Angeles in the 1996 Rule 5 draft from San Francisco before being traded to the Tigers following the draft.

- In his pro career, he has played every position in the infield except catcher.
- Originally signed by the Giants as a non-drafted free agent on April 23, 1993.
- Attended Liceo Alvaro Paulino Nizao school in the Dominican Republic.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Continued his stellar play at second base in 1999, becoming the first Tigers second baseman ever to hit 20-or-more homers in three straight seasons.

- Agreed to a four-year contract extension with the Tigers on April 22 that will eventually take him through the 2004 season (club option for 2005).
- Ranked second in the American League and fifth in the majors among second basemen with a .989 fielding percentage...was named the league's second-best defensive second baseman by Baseball America behind Roberto Alomar.
- Did not commit an error in his final 39 games and had only two over his last 70 games.
- Started seven games at shortstop...played 15 games at that position without an error.
- Batted in every position in the lineup except ninth...started 85 games batting in the middle third of the order.
- Named Tigers Player of the Month in April, batting .286 with 22 hits including four homers, six doubles and a triple...had 15 RBI and a team-leading 15 runs scored.
- Led the Tigers and ranked third in the American League in being hit by pitches (19).
- Tied an American League record when he was hit by pitches three times on May 31 at Boston.
- Led the team with 11 three-hit games...had a career-high four hits on May 3 at Tampa Bay.
- Posted his seventh career multi-homer game on August 29 versus Baltimore with both shots coming off starter Jason Johnson.
- Finished among the top-three Tigers in several categories with 151 games played (second), 83 runs scored (second), 30 doubles (tied for second) and 146 hits (third).
- Hit safely in 28 of his final 38 games (43x145, .297).
- His best offensive month was August, when he batted .333 with 29 hits...hit safely in 19-of-24 games during the month.

Earned his first career All-Star selection in 1998, recording career-highs in most offensive categories.

- Was the first Tigers second baseman to play in an All-Star game since Lou Whitaker in 1986 (Whitaker was selected but did not play in 1987 due to injury)...Easley singled in a pinch-hit appearance and participated in the Home Run hitting contest as well.
- Won the Hillerich and Bradsby Silver Slugger Award as the top offensive second baseman in the league.
- Was named Tiger of the Year by the Detroit chapter of the BBWAA...also was named by Sports Illustrated to its mid-season All-Star Team.
- Paced AL second basemen in fielding (.985) and had a 59-game errorless streak from May 14-July 20 (Game 2)...it was the longest streak by a Tigers second baseman since Scott Fletcher (no errors in 63 games at second) in 1995.
- Was named the circuit's third-best defensive second baseman by Baseball America.
- Shattered his career-best with 100 RBI, 28 more than his previous best in 1997...also reached career-highs with 27 homers, a team-high 38 doubles and 153 games.
- His 90 RBI were the most for a Tigers second baseman since 1938 (Charlie Gehringer, 107).

- Knocked in a six runs (the most for a Tiger on the year), matching his career-best, May 20 at Minnesota.
- Hit .327 (50x153) with runners in scoring position.
- Owned two 19-game hitting streaks on the year...was the fourth player in the majors since 1989 and the first in 1998 to post two hitting streaks of 19-or-more games in one season...the streaks were the longest for a Tiger since Alan Trammell in 1987 (21 games).
- Recorded his fifth career two-homer game and his third of 1998 on September 17 and homered in four of the last nine games of the season...three of his final four homers either won (September 17 and 19) or tied (September 18) the game in the ninth inning or later.
- Was hit by pitches 16 times, tied for second-most in the league.
- Batted .343 (35x102) in May with 10 homers and 34 RBI to earn Tiger Player of the Month honors for the second straight month.
- His 34 RBI in May were second-most in a calendar month for an American League player on the year (Juan Gonzalez, 35 RBI in April and 35 in May) and were the most by a Tiger in one month since Rocky Colavito had 38 RBI in July of 1961.
- With 10 May homers, he joined Dean Palmer, Tony Clark and Cecil Fielder as the only Tigers to belt 10 roundtrippers in one calendar month in the 1990s.
- Was selected as the American League Player of the Week for May 18-24 (.367 average, 4 homers, 14 RBI, 27 total bases, .900 slugging average).
- Fractured his right ring finger on August 14 when hit with a thrown ball...missed five starts.
- Hit his first career grand slam on August 14 off Oakland's Blake Stein.
- Collected his 500th career hit on June 19 off Kansas City's Glendon Rusch.
- Reached base safely by hit or walk in 34 straight contests from April 21-May 30.
- Toured Japan with a team of major league All-Stars in November.

Paced all American League second basemen in 1997 with 21 homers (also hit one while playing shortstop) and 70 RBI.

- His 22 total homers were five more than his entire career total entering 1997 (371 games played entering 1997) and the most by a Tiger second baseman since Lou Whitaker had 23 in 1991.
- Knocked in 72 runs total, more than double his prior high (surpassing 35 in 1995).
- His 28 stolen bases, which ranked eighth in the American League, were the second-most by a Tigers second baseman since 1912 (Jake Wood had 30 in 1961).
- With his 20th homer on September 8, he joined Kirk Gibson (1984, '85, '86), Alan Trammell (1986, '87) and Chad Curtis (1995) as the only 20-20 men in Tigers history.
- Became the third second baseman in the 1990s (joining Craig Biggio and Ryne Sandberg) with 20 homers, 30 doubles and 20 steals in one season.

- Fourth in the American League with a .981 fielding percentage, making just eight errors (12 total on the season) after April.
- Also started seven games at shortstop and was the designated hitter for four contests.
- Set a career-best with six RBI and tied his career-high with two homers (second time) on September 21 at Baltimore.
- Stole four bases on June 28 at Boston, a personal career-high and tied for the most by a Tiger in 1997... the four steals were also one shy of the club record.

Raised his season average 112 points after coming to Detroit in a July 31, 1996, trade with the Angels (.156 to .268).

- Hit safely in 14-of-21 games as a Tiger...posted seven multi-hit games in just 17 starts, including three straight from August 9-11 at New York.
- Batted .375 over his last 17 games (21x56) with seven multi-hit efforts.
- Missed 28 of the Tigers final 31 games, primarily due to a hamstring injury suffered on August 25 at Kansas City and aggravated on September 15 versus Baltimore...also sprained his right ankle on September 11 against the Yankees, forcing him to miss two games.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list the day before Opening Day with a sore right shoulder...was activated on May 10 after rehab stints with Triple A Vancouver (April 30-May 3) and Double A Midland (May 6-9).
- Had just seven hits in 45 at-bats for the Angels, six of them coming in a four-game span...recorded back-to-back two-hit games on June 10-11 at Kansas City.

Earned a spot on the Angels Opening Day roster for the third straight season in 1995.

- Started Opening Day at second base, the first of 82 starts at the position...also was in the lineup 25 times as the starting shortstop.

Began the 1994 season by appearing in 47 of the Angels first 51 games at third base, 44 of them starts, before being sidelined by a shoulder injury.

- Went 3x6 with three runs scored on Opening Day (April 5) versus Minnesota.
- Recorded his first career two-homer game and drove in three runs on August 5 against Chicago...became the first Angels second baseman in 11 years to hit two homers in a game (Bobby Grich, June 25, 1983 versus Kansas City).
- Posted a .994 fielding percentage at second base, making one error in 179 total chances.

Opened 1993 as California's starting second baseman despite missing most of Spring Training with shin splints.

- Compiled a 10-game hitting streak from June 5-16, batting .333 (12x36).
- Was placed on the disabled list from June 19-July 4 with shin splint troubles.

- Returned to the disabled list on July 28 with shin splints, cutting his season short...underwent surgery (performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum of Centinela Hospital) on August 24 in a fasciotomy of the deep posterior compartment (a procedure that cuts muscle tissue from the lower leg bone).

Made his major league debut on August 13, 1992, at Oakland after having his contract purchased the previous day.

- Posted no hits in his first nine at-bats before singling off Oakland's Kelly Downs on August 16...continued to hit in seven straight games and 10-of-11 to raise his average to .326.
- Hit his first home run on September 20 versus Minnesota in a pinch at-bat against closer Rick Aguilera, a three-run shot.

2000 SEASON

Set a new career-high and a team season-high with a 19-game hitting streak and established career-highs in games (141), runs (75) and hits (158).

- Led the team in stolen bases for the second consecutive season...was also tops with six triples.

- Went 3x4 with a home run, a stolen base and three runs scored on April 7 at Baltimore.

- Failed to collect at least one hit in only three April games...had 10 multi-hit efforts on the month.

- Drilled three doubles in six games April 11-16...had 10 hits in eight games during the Tigers inaugural homestand at Comerica Park.

- Hit .360 (31x86) in April, including four home runs, three doubles, 10 runs, nine RBI and two stolen bases en route to being named Tigers Player of the Month.

- Launched into a 19-game hitting streak on April 16 (2x4, double, two RBI)...hit .341 (28x82) during the stretch which included nine multi-hit games...his previous career-best was a 13-game streak in 1999.

- Helped the Tigers top the Twins in 11 innings with a two-run homer on May 4.

- Notched his first triple of the season on May 7 at Minnesota.

- Saw hitting streak end on May 8, going 0x5...rebounded with hits in eight of his next nine games.

- Served a three-game suspension May 27-29 for his part in an altercation with the Chicago White Sox on April 22...collected two hits in his first game back on May 30 after also sitting out seven games due to injury (strained right rib cage).

- Went 2x3 with a double, a stolen base and two runs scored on June 3 against the Cubs...hit a 3x40 skid after that (June 4-17).

- Collected 19 hits in 11 games June 20-29...went 2x5 with a triple, a homer and two RBI on June 20 at Toronto, 3x5 with two RBI at Cleveland June 23, and notched one of two four-hit games on the season on June 26 at Cleveland with two doubles, two RBI and three runs scored.

- Drove in a season-high four runs on June 28 against the Yankees...went 3x3 with a home run and three runs scored.

- Doubled three times in five games July 3-8...doubled twice and drove in two runs July 16 versus Cincinnati.

- Had 10 hits in six games July 20-24, including four multi-hit efforts, two triples and three stolen bases.

- Drilled a two-run homer on July 28 at Texas, and homered in consecutive games July 31-August 1 at Anaheim.

- Hit safely in 13-of-14 games August 8-25 with five consecutive multi-hit games (August 13-18)...hit .339 (21x62) in that 14-game stretch, with three doubles, a triple, three homers and 16 RBI.

- Drove in three runs on August 13 at Oakland and August 23 vs. Seattle...ranked third on the team with 20 multi-RBI games on the season including 15 two-RBI games, four three-RBI games and one four-RBI game.

- Notched his second four-hit game on August 29 at Baltimore, going 4x6 with two RBI and his 11th stolen base.

- Had five doubles in 10 games September 9-20, and tallied three doubles on September 25 at New York.

- Scored the deciding run in the Tigers 1-0 win over the Twins on September 29.

- Finished the season with 158 hits, third-most on the team and a new career high...was second with 49 multi-hit games.

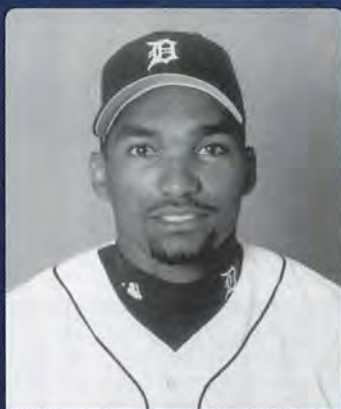

- Had ninth-best stolen base success rate in the league at 80.0% (16-of-20)...ranked eighth in ground ball-to-fly ball ratio at 1.67 (226/135).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Played his first full season at the major league level in 1999, leading the Tigers in stolen bases and ranking fifth in home runs.

- Homered on the first pitch of the 1999 season on April 5 at Texas off Rick Helling...became the first Tiger to hit a leadoff home run on Opening Day since Roy Johnson accomplished the feat on April 13, 1932, at Navin Field against Cleveland.

- Became the ninth different Tiger since 1919 to steal 30-or-more bases in a season...his team-best 33 steals ranked seventh in the American League and represented the second straight season he surpassed the 30-steal mark (including minors).

- Was successful in 16 of his last 18 attempts to steal...tied a career-best with two stolen bases in a game four times.
- Posted a career-high five RBI on August 22 at Anaheim, making him one of only three Tigers to drive in five runs in a game last season.
- Drilled his first career grand slam on June 11 at St. Louis off Manny Aybar.
- Recorded 35 multi-hit games, tying him for third-most on the team.
- His first career multi-homer game came on September 19 at Boston, both off Tim Wakefield.
- Compiled two hitting streaks of 10 games or more in 1999, including a career-best 13-game streak from May 11-25 during which he hit .333 (17x51).
- Earned Tiger Player of the Month honors for May...in addition to the 13-game hit streak, he posted a .311 average for the month with 28 hits (10 doubles, three triples, one homer), 12 RBI and nine stolen bases.
- Tied for ninth in the league with 10 outfield assists.
- Tied with Brad Ausmus for second on the team with six triples...marked his major-league best for three-baggers and the most in his professional career since hitting seven with Fayetteville in 1995.
- Hit an eighth-inning homer on June 24 at Kansas City in his only at-bat to provide an insurance run as the Tigers rallied to beat the Royals, 6-4.
- Missed four games in late May with a hip pointer on his right side that was suffered sliding into third May 25.
- Sprained his right ankle in the top of the first inning on July 23 against Boston...missed six straight games before returning on July 31.
- Was hit in the face by a pitch from Kansas City's Blake Stein in the second inning on September 26...suffered a fractured left cheekbone and broken nose, missing the remaining games of the season.
- Had surgery to repair the fractures on September 27 at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital.

Rebounded from an early-season injury in 1998 with an impressive major league trial in the campaign's second half.

- Was recalled on August 17 from Triple A Toledo...recorded a .329 average for Detroit, best among Tiger players with a minimum of 150 at-bats.
- Earned Tiger Player of the Month in September with a .327 average, five homers and 13 RBI.
- Notched one-or-more hits in 30-of-40 games played.
- Had 17 multi-hit efforts (one every 2.4 games) and hit safely in each of his first 11 games (.381; 16x42) with the Tigers.
- Posted career-highs with five hits, five runs scored and four RBI on September 14 versus the White Sox in a 17-16 loss in 12 innings.
- Was the first Tiger to score five runs since Travis Fryman on April 17, 1993, versus Seattle and was the lone Tiger on the year to collect five hits in a game.

- Hit leadoff for the first time in his career September 23 and September 25 and homered in both contests.
- Despite playing in just 40 games, he ranked among the league's top 10 rookies with four triples (tied for fourth), seven stolen bases (tied for sixth) and four outfield assists (tied for fifth).
- Had a career-high 11-game hitting streak August 18-28, tied for the fourth-longest by a major league rookie in 1998.
- Drilled a three-run homer in game two on August 29 for his first three-RBI game.
- Stole a career-best 35 bases in combined major and minor league action.
- Suffered a broken bone in his left foot in a March 4 exhibition game and was out of action until April 24.

Recalled from Double A on September 2, 1997, and played in 11 games for Detroit, batting .212 with one home run and five RBI.

- Started nine contests, including his major league debut on September 2 at Atlanta...went 0x3 in that game.
- Collected his first major league hit and RBI with a single off Atlanta's Paul Byrd on September 3.
- Blasted his first big league home run, a two-run shot, on September 6 off Anaheim's Allen Watson at Tiger Stadium.
- Fractured the fifth metacarpal in his right hand in the same game on September 6 when hit by a pitch from Watson...continued to play with the injury before appearing in his last game on September 14 at Oakland.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Tigers Hold All-Time Triple Play Lead

Skeeter Barnes' efforts on July 3, 1992, in Detroit with Omar Vizquel of Seattle at the plate helped to continue an historic Tigers reign in the category of triple plays. He and first baseman Cecil Fielder participated in the Tigers 32nd all-time triple play, more than any other team in major league history.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the St. Louis Cardinals are tied for the National League lead with 31. The Tigers of 1908 made two triple plays (both against the Red Sox) to start the club's historic run of three-play killings. The 1911 Tigers posted three triple plays.

- Batted .147 (10x68) with five doubles, a home run and seven RBI in 17 rehab appearances with Triple A Toledo.
- Returned from the disabled list September 1...went 0x5 in five outings (four appearances at first base, one pinch-hit appearance) before going 2x3 with a triple, an RBI and his second stolen base of the season in his start behind the plate September 16 versus Boston.

- Started in five of the Tigers last seven games of the year, four as the DH...went 6x19 (.316) in those games including a 4x8 effort with a double, a homer and two RBI in his final two games September 28 and 30.
- Was 3x12 (.250) with four RBI as a pinch-hitter for the Tigers.
- Started in 41 of his 66 games in 2000 -- made 20 starts at first base, 11 as DH and 10 as catcher.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Provided the most memorable moment of the 1999 season when he blasted an eighth-inning grand slam off Kansas City's Jeff Montgomery that nearly cleared the rightfield roof in the final game at Tiger Stadium on September 27.

- Began the season on the 15-day disabled list after suffering a left shoulder strain (shoulder subluxation) swinging a bat in Spring Training...was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on April 15 and underwent surgery on May 13.

- Was reinstated from the 60-day disabled list on September 7 and called up to Detroit, where he made 11 starts (seven at DH, four at catcher) and appeared in 15 games.
- His grand slam on September 27 contributed to his career-best five-RBI game.
- Became the first player ever to hit a grand slam as the last homer in a major league park that closed with at least 100 home runs hit there.

Fielder Clouts 25 Homers in Seven Straight Seasons

Former Tiger first baseman Cecil Fielder blasted 26 home runs in a Detroit uniform in 1996 to give him a club-record seven consecutive seasons with at least 25 home runs. No other Tiger in history has done it more than four straight seasons. Starting with his first year in Detroit in 1990, Fielder had consecutive years of 51, 44, 35, 30, 28, 31 and 26 longballs. In 1999, Tony Clark joined Hall-of-Famer Hank Greenberg as the only other Tigers to hit 25 or more in four straight seasons. From 1937 through 1940, Greenberg belted 40, 58, 33 and 41 homers. Clark came up short in his bid to reach five consecutive seasons as he managed just 13 in an injury-plagued 2000 season. He had 27, 32, 34 and 31 from 1996-99.

2000 SEASON

Missed the entire 2000 season while on the 60-day disabled list.

- Recovering from "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery on his right elbow performed on June 15, 1999 by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Alabama.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

The Tigers 1996 No. 1 draft choice was projected to be a member of the Tigers starting rotation but was sidelined for the entire 1999 season after undergoing surgery on his right elbow on June 15.

- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on March 29 after battling right elbow soreness during Spring Training.
- Had "Tommy John" ligament replacement surgery performed on June 15 by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL.
- Was transferred to the 60-day disabled list on June 18, where he remained for the rest of the season.

Made his first appearance in the big leagues and started 21 games for the Tigers in 1998 after beginning the season at Triple A Toledo.

- His 21 starts were tied for third-most among American League rookies and his 130.0 innings ranked fifth.
- Averaged better than six innings per start for the Tigers and tossed at least six frames 16 times.
- Permitted three earned runs or less in 11 of his 21 starts.
- Had his contract purchased from Toledo on June 3 and made his first big league start that night at Toronto...allowed five runs (four earned) in 6.1 innings and took the loss, 5-1, as Roger Clemens held the Tigers to four hits and struck out 10.
- Went 0-3 in his first five major league starts with a 6.67 ERA (21ER/28.1IP) but went six innings or more in four of the five outings.
- Earned his first major league win on July 1 at Pittsburgh, giving up just one run on five hits in eight innings...also went 1x4 at the plate and registered the first RBI by a Tigers pitcher since Joe Coleman's pair on September 21, 1972 versus Boston.

- Lost four straight decisions from July 15 through August 12 and opened his big league career with a 1-7 record.
- Followed that four-game skid with a three-game win streak from August 18-29...compiled a 4.50 ERA (10ER/20.0IP) during the streak.
- Earned Tiger Pitcher of the Month honors for August (3-1, 4.36 ERA).
- Put up 14.0 consecutive scoreless innings over three starts from September 9-20, the longest scoreless streak of the season by a Tigers pitcher.
- Allowed seven home runs in his first five starts but just 10 in his final 16 outings, including a total of three during a nine-start span from July 1 through August 18.
- Surrendered a career-high three home runs on September 4 versus Cleveland...also allowed three homers in an 11-inning game on June 24 versus the White Sox.

How Obtained: Selected by the Tigers in the first round (sixth overall) of the June 1996 draft

- Improved his ERA each month after joining the Tigers, posting a 6.67 mark in June, 5.30 in July, 4.36 in August and 4.31 in September.
- Won each of his last three road decisions, despite a 6.00 ERA (16ER/24.0IP) during that stretch.
- Opponents batted .282 against him overall...was most effective against righties, who hit .250 (61x244) off him.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Made the first start of a rehab assignment with Single A Lakeland on May 12, 1999 at Charlotte, tossing 4.2 innings and giving up two hits and two runs (one home run) while striking out two and walking one.

- Later made two rehab appearances with Toledo, starting both games...threw 5.2 innings on May 22 against Richmond, giving up five hits, two runs, three walks and striking out two.
- His final appearance of the season came when he took the loss in a start against Rochester on June 1...tossed two innings and allowed three runs on four hits.

Made 10 starts at Toledo in 1998, going just 3-4 in spite of a 2.91 ERA.

- His ERA ranked sixth in the International League at the time he joined the Tigers.
- Allowed two runs or less in six of his starts for Toledo, limiting opponents to one run or less five times.
- Held Triple A batters to a .229 batting average (50x218) overall, .220 (31x141) by right-handers.
- Was named IL Pitcher of the Week for April 20-26.

Struggled early at Double A Jacksonville in his first professional season in 1997 but recovered to close the season strong, winning five of his final eight starts.

- Posted a 10-6 overall record...was one of only two Jacksonville hurlers to record a double-digit win total (Brandon Reed, 11).
- Paced the Suns staff with 105 strikeouts on the year and posted nearly a 2-to-1 strikeouts-to-walks ratio (105SO/53BB).
- Was fifth in the league in innings (159.1) and second on the team in that department.
- Allowed a Southern League-leading 29 home runs.
- Lasted three innings in his pro debut on April 4 versus Huntsville but rebounded to win his next two starts against Mobile on April 10 and Huntsville on April 15.
- Won five games in a row between July 25 and August 15, including an August 5 contest at Huntsville in which he gave up only one run and struck out seven.
- Recorded his first complete game as a pro in a loss on August 20 at Orlando.
- Enjoyed a promising spring, coming to the major league camp as a non-roster invitee, and tossed eight innings without surrendering a run...yielded only two hits and two walks while fanning eight in three outings.
- Was named Detroit's second-best prospect by Baseball America before the campaign.

AMATEUR/COLLEGIATE CAREER

Set a Team USA record with nine wins during Olympic and Summer Tour play in 1996 and was the winning pitcher as the U.S. claimed the bronze medal over Nicaragua.

- Ended his junior season at the University of Virginia with a 12-2 record and a 1.76 ERA...his ERA ranked fourth among all collegiate hurlers.
- Started 16 games and completed six...pitched 123.0 innings, allowed just 78 hits, 30 runs, 24 earned runs and 36 walks.
- Was named a first-team All-American by Collegiate Baseball and Baseball America and was named to the "Smith Super Team."
- Was ranked by Baseball America as possessing the best breaking pitch among all draft-eligible prospects.
- Was the top USA winner in Olympic play with a 3-0 mark in three starts...combined that with a 6-0 mark and a 2.06 ERA (9ER/39.1IP, 44 SO) in pre-Olympic Tour play.
- Combined, his collegiate and Team USA record for the year was a stunning 21-2.
- His overall Team USA stats (Tour and Olympics) included a 9-0 mark in 10 starts with a 2.98 ERA...led Team USA in wins, starts, ERA, innings pitched and strikeouts.
- Clinched the Olympic bronze medal with a win over Nicaragua in Atlanta...went seven innings, allowed two hits and three runs with one walk and five strikeouts.
- Set the Cavaliers school record with 295 career strikeouts in his three seasons and tied the mark for wins with 21.
- Reported to the Tigers Instructional League following his signing on August 27, 1996.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Was the 1993 Gatorade Virginia Player of the Year at McLean (VA) High School.

- Also earned American Legion Player of the Year honors in 1993.
- Is single and makes his off-season home in Falls Church, VA.

McLain Wins 31 Games in 1968

Tiger righthander Denny McLain led Detroit to the 1968 World Championship with a season that recalled the era of Grove and Dean and has not been duplicated since. That year, McLain won an amazing 31 games and was named both American League MVP and Cy Young Award-winner.

En route to becoming baseball's first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934 and the first in the AL since Lefty Grove in '31, the brash McLain won nine games by June 9, including a 10-inning complete-game victory on May 20 at Minnesota. But it was the following month which put him on pace to make history. McLain reeled off a nine-game winning streak, and by July 16 he had a stunning record of 18-2 and was well on his way to the magic number of 30.

McLain earned his 30th victory on September 14 with a 5-4 complete-game win over Oakland, and three days later the Tigers clinched the American League pennant. He ended the year with a record of 31-6 and a 1.96 ERA, completed 28-of-41 starts and struck out 280 hitters in 336 innings.

Five Tigers Squads Have Won 100 Games

Five Tiger teams have won 100 or more games in a season, most recently the 1984 club led by Trammell, Gibson, Whitaker, Morris, Hernandez and the rest. Believe it or not, however, two of the Tigers 100-game winners did not even capture the American League pennant.

Hughie Jennings' 1915 Tigers (100-54) finished two-and-a-half games behind Babe Ruth and the Red Sox. Bob Scheffing's 1961 club (101-61) ended the season eight games back of the Yankees, piloted by Ralph Houk and featuring Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle.

Two of the five clubs, though, did win the World Series. Under Sparky Anderson, the aforementioned '84 Tigers (104-58) set a club record for regular-season wins and went on to defeat the San Diego Padres in the Fall Classic. Mayo Smith's 1968 Tigers (103-59) went all the way with a seven-game victory over the St. Louis Cardinals for the World Championship.

Finally, the 1934 Tigers (101-53) fell in the middle of those two groups. Managed by Hall-of-Famer Mickey Cochrane, who was also the club's starting catcher and was named AL MVP that season, the Tigers won the pennant but lost the World Series to the Cardinals.

2000 SEASON

Established new career-highs in games played (105), runs (26), hits (62) and RBI (27), and proved his versatility both in the field and at the plate by playing all nine positions and posting a 4x5 effort with three RBI in the Tigers final game of the season.

- Made 60 starts for the Tigers, including 18 at first base, 28 at third base, one at second base, eight at shortstop, one in left, three in center and one in right.
- Appeared in eight of the Tigers first 15 games and six of the first nine at Comerica Park.
- Got his first start of the season April 22 at Chicago, playing shortstop...went 1x3 with a run scored and a stolen base.
- Posted three consecutive two-hit games April 30-May 2...went 2x4 with a double, a home run and two runs scored May 1 at Boston and added a double in three of his next five games.
- Compiled a season-high six-game hitting streak April 22-May 3, matching his career-high set May 8-16, 1998...also had two five-game streaks.
- Started at five different positions in five games May 3-20 (3B, 2B, SS, LF, CF)...added a start in right field May 29, and moved to first base later in that game.
- Swiped two bases in three games May 20-25.
- Went 2x5 with a double and drove in the game-winning run on a bunt single in the Tigers 3-2 12th-inning victory over the Cubs on June 4.
- Went 4x5 June 13 versus Toronto in his second career four-hit game and his first since August 30, 1997 at St. Louis while with the Royals.
- Had the first of seven multi-RBI games with two RBI June 26 at Cleveland.
- Played his eighth position for the Tigers when he caught the eighth inning July 4 at Tampa Bay.
- Doubled and drove in a run on July 9 at Milwaukee in a 3x4 effort.
- Appeared at first base in 10 consecutive games July 4-18 (five starts)...would later make seven straight starts at first August 13-24 during a consecutive 12-start span.

- Hit safely in five straight games July 28-August 1, including three consecutive multi-hit games...drove in five runs and went 4x8 July 29-30 at Texas with his first triple since 1997.
- Collected two sacrifice bunts on August 2 at Anaheim and one on August 1 to bring his total to nine...finished the season with a team-high 10.
- Drilled his second home run on August 13 at Oakland...went 5x19 with a double, a home run, three RBI and a sac bunt in five road games August 11-16.
- Started in 24-of-26 games July 24-August 29, including 14 times at third base.
- Launched his third home run on August 26 at Minnesota, a solo shot in the ninth.
- Doubled and scored two runs on September 16 versus Boston and added his second triple of the season September 24 at New York.
- Became only the fourth player in Major League Baseball history to play all nine positions in a single game on October 1 against Minnesota...Texas Scott Sheldon also accomplished the feat on September 6 of the 2000 season, in addition to Cesar Tovar of the Twins on September 22, 1968 and Bert Campaneris of the A's on September 8, 1965.

• Halter started at first base in that game before moving to third in the second inning. He went to right field in the third, center in the fourth, left field in the fifth, played at short in the sixth, caught in the seventh, and took the mound to pitch in the eighth, becoming the first position player to pitch for the Tigers since Mark Koenig did so on September 22, 1931...after walking Matt LeCroy, the only batter he faced, Halter moved to second base to complete the nine-position feat.

• In addition to his defensive display, Halter also matched a career-high at the plate, going 4x5 with a double and three RBI...he also scored the game-winning run to cap the

Halter's Historic Game

On October 1, 2000, Shane Halter became the fourth player in the history of Major League Baseball to play all nine positions in a single game. He accomplished the feat on the last day of the season, in a thrilling 12-11 win versus Minnesota. Halter started at first base before moving to third base in the second inning. In the third inning, Halter moved to right field, played center in the fourth inning and left field in the fifth. In the sixth, Halter moved back to the infield to play shortstop. He moved behind the plate to catch the seventh, and in the eighth he took the mound to pitch. Toeing the rubber as part of playing all nine positions, Halter became the first position player to pitch for the Tigers since 1931 when infielder Mark Koenig hurled four innings in a 8-6 loss to the Philadelphia Athletics.

After walking the only batter he faced, Matt LeCroy, Halter moved from the mound to second base. His feat overshadowed a four-hit performance at the plate. To top it off, Halter also scored the winning run in the ninth inning to cap his historic accomplishment.

2000 SEASON

Enjoyed the best offensive season of his career, posting career-high and team-leading numbers in hits (179), runs (104), home runs (30) and RBI (102) while batting .300 and leading the majors with 19 outfield assists.

- Named Tiger of the Year by the Detroit BBWAA chapter for the second time in his career (also 1997).
- Doubled and hit his first two home runs of the season, both solo shots, April 23 against the White Sox as he went 4x4 with two RBI.
- Served a five-game suspension May 10-16 for his part in an altercation with the Chicago White Sox at Comiskey on April 22.
- Went 1x15 in the four games following his return before exploding for a 12x32 (.375) effort over the subsequent nine-game homestand with seven doubles, two home runs, 11 RBI, seven runs and seven walks.
- Drove in four runs in consecutive games May 23-24 versus Cleveland...combined with Dean Palmer for back-to-back homers in the fifth inning May 23 and was involved in four of the Tigers seven back-to-back home run efforts on the season.
- Compiled a season-high 11-game hitting streak June 9-21 in which he hit .463 (19x41) with five homers, three doubles and 13 RBI.
- Earned American League Player of the Week Honors for June 12-18, going 12x22 (.455) with five homers and 12 RBI...when Tony Clark captured the award the following week, the pair became the first Tigers to win the honor in back-to-back weeks since 1986 when three Tigers -- Jack Morris (July 7), Kirk Gibson (July 14) and John Grubb (July 21) -- were award winners.
- Tied his career-best and set a team season-high with seven RBI June 13 versus Toronto...went 4x4 with two three-run homers for his most RBI since collecting seven on June 30, 1997 versus the Mets.
- Had a streak of seven hits, including three homers, in seven consecutive at-bats snapped in the fifth inning on June 14 against Toronto.

- Combined with Juan Gonzalez on back-to-back homers for the second time in three games June 16...doubled, homered and scored three runs June 17, both games against Cleveland...hit .357 (15x42) with six doubles, six homers and 17 RBI against the Indians in 2000.
- Fueled the Tigers 14-8 come-from-behind win in Game 2 at Cleveland June 24 with three two-run homers and six RBI...it was his second career three-HR game (June 30, 1997 versus NYM) as he became the first visitor to hit three homers in a game at Jacobs Field.
- Of nine hits June 20-25, seven went for extra-bases (four homers, three doubles)...went 4x6 with a stolen base June 27 versus the Yankees and scored the game-winning run in the 11th inning.
- Named Tigers Player of the Month for June, batting .333 (33x99) with 25 runs, eight doubles, 10 home runs, 25 RBI and a .717 slugging percentage.

- nine games on the road trip June 30-July 9 (11x39, .282).
- Had multi-hit efforts in five-of-eight games July 8-18, including three three-hit contests...went 3x4 with a double and a home run July 16 versus Cincinnati.
- Hit safely in 19-of-21 games June 30-July 23 (.353, 30x85)...had three doubles in five games July 25-30.
- Garnered Tigers Player of the Month honors for the second straight month in July...hit .296 (32x108) for the month with 10 doubles, five home runs and 19 RBI.
- Posted five multi-hit games August 10-16 with three three-hit efforts...went 3x4 with a double and four RBI August 10 versus Baltimore.
- Hit .370 (10x27) on the six-game road trip August 11-16...was 8x14 in three games at Seattle including a 3x5 performance August 14 with a home run, three RBI and three runs and another 3x5 night with a double and two runs August 15.
- Swiped two bases September

5 versus Anaheim, establishing a new career-best with 12 and his first multi-steal game since July 4, 1997 versus Baltimore...finished the season second to Juan Encarnacion (16) with 15 steals.

- Set a new career-high with his 38th double on September 9 versus Anaheim after totaling 37 in 1998...added his 39th the next day, going 3x4 at Toronto.
- Drilled a three-run homer, his 26th, on September 12 at Chicago -- one shy of tying his career-best set in 1997...hit his 27th on September 20 versus Chicago.
- Went 7x16 in four games at New York September 22-25 with a double, a homer and his 15th stolen base...added seven hits in three games at Kansas City September 26-28, including two homers which brought his season total to a career-best 30 longballs.
- Tied a personal best with his 174th hit September 29 versus Minnesota, his 42nd double...tallied three doubles in his last three games for a career-high 44, just two shy of the team lead behind Deivi Cruz.
- Went 3x4 in the Tigers final game October 1 versus Minnesota, driving in three runs for a total of 102 on the season...marked the second time in his career that he had posted 100+ RBI (101, 1997) and established a new career high.
- Received the season's final American League Player of the Week award (September 25-October 1)...hit .500 (14x28) with three homers, three doubles and 10 RBI...one of five players to win the award twice this season (Tim Salmon, Manny Ramirez, Carlos Delgado, Frank Thomas).
- Became the first Tiger with a .300 batting average, 30 homers and 100 RBI since Norm Cash in 1961.
- Led the majors with 19 outfield assists...also finished among the league leaders in doubles (T-5th, 44) and extra-base hits (T-4th, 78) and was the fourth-hardest batter to double up with 119.4 AB per GIDP (5GIDP/597AB).
- Grounded into just seven double plays in the last two seasons (974 AB), averaging one every 139 at-bats.
- Led the Tigers with 24 multi-RBI games, and posted 46 multi-hit games, third-most on the team...tied Dean Palmer for the team-high with 102 RBI, and also led the team with 74 walks and 321 total bases -- the next closest teammate was Deivi Cruz with 262 total bases.
- Tied for second in the league with 220 fly balls hit...sixth in slugging percentage against RHPs (.600).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Missed much of the second half of the 1999 season after injuring his right big toe, landing him on the disabled list and requiring season-ending surgery in mid-September.

- Tied teammate Tony Clark with a team-high 64 walks despite missing over six weeks of action...compiled nearly a 1:1 strikeout/walk ratio (66:64).
- Left the game on July 24 in the bottom of the second inning after spraining his toe chasing after a ball in the top of the first...an MRI revealed damage to the toe.
- Was placed on the disabled list on July 24, his first appearance on the disabled list since 1997...was limited to DH and pinch-hitting roles after his return on August 24 and made his last 12 starts as designated hitter.

- Hit into only two double plays on the season (377 AB), making him the toughest Tiger to double up (60-or-more AB)...was also the toughest batter in the league to double up in double-play situations (2.1%, 2 GIDP in 94 situations), third-best in the majors.
- Became one of only three Tigers on the year to collect five RBI in a game with a two-run and a three-run homer on May 16 against Cleveland.
- Walked four times in a game twice, a team high.
- Batted .419 (13x31) with runners on third including .500 (7x14) with two outs and .268 (26x97) overall with runners in scoring position.
- Posted his ninth career multi-HR game (second of the season) on September 2 with two solo shots versus Texas.
- Belted a game-tying home run off Yankees closer Mariano Rivera on July 6 in the bottom of the ninth.
- Opened the season with strong numbers in April, ranking second on the team with a .289 average, 22 hits and 13 runs and topping the Tigers with seven doubles...led the team with 17 RBI in May.
- Did not commit an error in his first 64 games, and had only three on the season...his .983 fielding percentage for the season was his best since 1995.
- Had season-ending surgery on his injured toe performed on September 15 by Dr. John Gould at the Andrews Clinic in Birmingham, AL.

Tied for the club lead with 157 games played in 1998 and set a career-best with 37 doubles.

- Placed 10th in the league with 612 at-bats...was fifth among rightfielders in fielding percentage at .983 (five errors/298 total chances).
- Hit at least 25 homers for the third straight season, with 19 off righthanded pitchers.
- Had 48-multi-hit games, most on the Tigers...included were a pair of four-hit games.
- Tied for second in the American League and fourth in the majors with 18 outfield assists after leading the majors with 20 in 1997...one assist came while playing an extra infield position September 26 at Toronto -- a 9-3 GIDP to push the game into extra innings.
- Was the Tigers top hitter for average in the season's first half, batting .325 with 16 homers and 46 RBI prior to the All-Star Game.
- Batted a team-best .355 (38x107) in the month of May with seven homers, 22 RBI and 20 runs scored.
- Posted his sixth career multi-homer game on May 1 with a pair of solo shots at Seattle.
- Notched his 500th career hit on July 4 off the Twins Dan Serafini.
- Twice hit two homers in a game, July 11 versus Toronto and May 1 at Seattle.
- Belted a game-winning grand slam (fourth career) on August 18 at Seattle.
- Broke up Toronto rookie Roy Halladay's no-hitter on the season's final day with a two-out, first-pitch, ninth-inning homer...the homer came in a pinch-hit at-bat.

Named co-Tiger Player of the Year (with Tony Clark) in 1997 by the Detroit Chapter of the BBWAA after establishing career-highs with 27 homers and 101 RBI.

- His 20 outfield assists (the most in the majors since Joe Orsulak had 21 in 1991) paced both leagues by three (five more than any other AL player).
- Excelled in the season's second half, batting .326 with 13 homers and 52 RBI after the All-Star break.
- Named Tigers Player of the Month in August (.347, 5 HR, 15 RBI) and September (.304, 4 HR, 23 RBI).
- Twice in August posted seven hits in consecutive at-bats (August 16-17 and August 21-22), five short of the American League and Tigers record.
- Hit .337 (68x202) over his final 48 games and drove in 61 runs in his last 79 contests.
- Closed the season with the Tigers longest hitting streak of the season, a 14-game streak (September 12-28; .345; 20x58) that tied his career-best set in 1996.
- Hit safely in the season's first 11 games to mark the Tigers longest streak to begin a season since Chet Lemon also hit safely in the first 11 games of 1988.
- Became the 17th player in Tigers history to hit three homers in a game June 30 versus the Mets (the first since Cecil Fielder, April 16, 1996 at Toronto) and had a career-best seven RBI, one short of the club record.
- Homered in four straight at-bats between June 30-July 1 versus the Mets, tying a major league record (23rd time it was accomplished by 21 players total, four of them Tigers).
- Belted three grand slams, tying him for second in the majors behind Albert Belle (four).
- Had a career-best five hits August 22 at Milwaukee.
- Doubled three times on May 11 versus Cleveland, the first Tiger to do so since June 11, 1994 (Lou Whitaker at California).
- Drilled his first career grand slam on April 9 versus Minnesota off lefthander Eddie Guardado.

Increased his batting average by 96 points in 1996 over the previous season (.224 to .320), marking the highest increase in American League history among players with at least 100 games played in consecutive seasons.

- Narrowly missed finishing in the top 10 in AL batting leaders...his .320 average ranked 12th, with the AL's 10th-best mark belonging to Mo Vaughn at .326.
- Placed second by one vote to Travis Fryman in voting by the Detroit BBWAA chapter for Tiger of the Year.
- Ranked fourth in the league with a .623 slugging percentage against righthanded pitching...led the AL with a .667 average with the bases loaded (4x6, 12 RBI).
- Surged in the season's second half, batting .333 (79x237) with 12 homers and 39 RBI after the All-Star break, hitting safely in 54-of-67 games.
- Hit safely in 47 of his final 56 games (.345; 68x197), including in 21-of-26 September contests with a .352 (32x91) average, five homers and 14 RBI.
- His 35 doubles, .577 slugging average, .404 on-base mark and 65 walks led the team.
- Enjoyed his greatest success out of the leadoff spot...batted leadoff for the first time in his career June 20 and hit two homers for the second time in his career.

- Led all big league batters with a .500 on-base average (76x152) out of the leadoff hole...had 11 homers in 32 games (including twice in his first at-bat) and hit .415 (49x118) from that spot.
- Was Tiger Player of the Month in June (.394, seven homers, 20 RBI) and July (.345, six homers, 19 RBI).
- Had a team-best 14-game string from July 23-August 12 (.404, 21x52).
- Homered in three straight games, April 4-7 against the A's in Las Vegas.
- Drilled pinch-hit homers on September 6 at Baltimore (5-4 win) and on May 6 at New York, becoming the first Tiger with two in a season since 1994 (Kirk Gibson).
- Played all three outfield positions extensively, including 12 starts in center field.

Earned 1995 Tiger Rookie of the Year honors as selected by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters' Association.

- Paced American League outfielders with 13 assists in his first major league campaign.
- Made his debut on Opening Day in Anaheim, striking out as a pinch-hitter.
- Recorded his first big-league hit off the Mariners Bob Wells on April 30 in Seattle, a fifth-inning single.
- Belted his first major-league homer on May 3 off the Indians Jason Grimsley in Detroit.
- Recorded 10 of his 14 homers and 28-of-43 RBI before the All-Star break...hit .246 (49x149) before the All-Star Game, .204 (43x211) after.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Batted .308 (4x13) during a three-game rehab assignment with Triple A Toledo in 1996.

Led all Tigers farmhands in 1994 with 234 total bases and 81 runs scored at Triple A.

- Paced Toledo with 23 homers and 137 games played in his first year at Triple A.
- After the regular season concluded, he led the Arizona Fall League with 10 homers and a .536 slugging percentage.

Hit a combined .304 in 1993, splitting the year between Double A London and Single A Lakeland.

- His .304 mark was the third-highest among all Tigers organization players with at least 100 games played.
- Tied for the organization lead with 11 triples.

Was second on the 1992 Single A Niagara Falls club with 37 RBI in his first pro season.

- Seventh in the league with a .293 batting average.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Attended Temple University in his hometown of Philadelphia, batting .377 in three collegiate seasons.

- Finished his college career as Temple's all-time home run leader with 30.
- Established the Bobby Higginson Fund in 1997, which donates money for every RBI and homer to local charities.
- Single and resides in Bloomfield Hills, MI.

Tigers Triple Crown

Just nine Tigers have led the club in batting average, home runs and RBI in the same season, led by Harry Heilmann who accomplished the feat six times. In 1998, Tony Clark became the first player in 19 years to win the team's Triple Crown. All but three of the players are enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

#41

2000 SEASON

Tied his career-high with eight wins and notched a career high with 124 strikeouts.

- Pitched a team-high three of the Astros eight complete games.
- Tossed a one-hitter, his first career shutout and first major league complete game, April 28 at Milwaukee...was the first one-hitter by an Astros pitcher since Pete Harnisch on September 17, 1993 and just the 23rd in franchise history.
- Went 2-1 with a 2.65 ERA in five home starts May 8-June 3...also made two road relief appearances in that stretch.
- Had a no-decision May 13 versus Cincinnati...left the game with a 6-2 lead before the bullpen allowed six runs in an 8-7 loss.
- Made consecutive relief appearances May 16 and 20...pitched 1.1 relief innings in a 16-inning, 6-5 loss to the Brewers on the 16th and took the loss after allowing one run on two hits.
- Pitched two scoreless relief innings May 20 at Montreal.
- Helped end the Astros seven-game losing streak by scattering eight hits in the 10-2 win over Philadelphia on May 23 at home...threw 137 pitches in notching his second career complete game.
- Tied his career-high with eight strikeouts for the second time in his career on May 28 versus Atlanta.
- Lasted eight innings in his second win in three starts on June 2 versus the White Sox...allowed a solo homer in the seventh (Carlos Lee).
- Lost on July 6 versus the Diamondbacks, despite pitching eight strong innings and allowing two runs (one earned).
- Snapped a four-game losing streak in his start July 14 at Detroit, his first win since June 3 versus the White Sox.
- Was hit in the face in the fourth inning on a line drive by the Expos Peter Bergeron August 4.
- Missed his start on August 9 versus the Mets with a bruised left cheek bone.

- Returned to the mound August 14 and tossed his third complete game, allowing five hits in a 16-2 win over Pittsburgh...took a no-hitter into the seventh inning.
- Beat the Expos on August 25...did not allow a run until the fifth inning, retiring 12 of the first 15 batters he faced.
- Scattered nine hits and allowed one first-inning run, but took the 1-0 loss against the Mets on August 30...leadoff hitter Benny Agbayani walked and later scored on a wild pitch for the game's only run.
- Had a no-decision in an 8-7 win over Pittsburgh September 14 in his 100th Major League game.
- Tied his career-high with his eighth win on October 1 versus Milwaukee, allowing five hits and one unearned run over seven innings.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Compiled a 4.66 ERA in 26 starts and six relief appearances in 1999, even notching a save in one outing.

Schoolboy Rowe Wins 16 Straight

Former Tiger Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe is one of three pitchers who still share the American League record for most consecutive games won in a season with 16. Rowe is joined by the Washington Senators Walter Johnson (1912), Smokey Joe Wood of the Boston Red Sox (also 1912), and the Philadelphia Athletics Lefty Grove (1931). Rowe tied the feat on August 25, 1934, against Washington in a 4-2 Tiger victory, and although Rowe's streak was subsequently stopped by the A's in game two of an August 29 doubleheader, he finished the season with 24 victories.

Ten Tiger Managers Have Been Ex-Catchers

Since 1901, the Tigers have had 31 different managers and 10 of those managers have been former major league catchers. They include Les Moss, Ralph Houk, Joe Schultz, Bob Swift, Bob Scheffing, Jack Tighe, Steve O'Neill, Del Baker, Mickey Cochrane and George Stallings. There have been two Tiger managers who never played in the majors — Ed Barrow and Bill Armour. Of the remaining 19 managers, two were pitchers, four were outfielders and 13 were infielders in their playing days.

NON-ROSTER PLAYER

2000 SEASON

Split his first season in the Tigers organization between Detroit and Triple A Toledo after being selected in the Rule 5 Draft.

- After making the team out of spring training, was roughed up in his major league debut for the Tigers, April 7 at Baltimore...was tagged for six runs (four earned) on three hits, including two home runs, in 2.2 innings of work.
- Tossed one inning April 12 versus Seattle with a walk, a strikeout and a sacrifice bunt.
- Retired all three batters he faced in the ninth inning April 15 against Tampa Bay.
- Allowed one run on five hits in 3.0 innings April 19 at Boston.
- Made his longest relief appearance for the Tigers April 23 against the White Sox at Comerica...gave up one run on three hits in 4.1 innings (4.1,3,1,1,2,3).
- Got his first start in his next appearance, May 2 at Boston...pitched 5.0 innings and allowed four runs on five hits.
- Took the loss in his only decision with Detroit this season May 7 at Minnesota...lasted only 3.1 innings as the starter and gave up four runs on four hits while walking six, hitting a batter and throwing a wild pitch.
- Gave up just one hit in 1.2 scoreless innings May 17 at Cleveland.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list May 18 with a lower back strain.
- Assigned to Triple A Toledo for injury rehab on May 22...started against Buffalo that day, tossing 3.1 innings and allowing nine runs on seven hits (one home run) in the loss.
- Made four more rehab starts while with Toledo, all losses...gave up four runs on eight hits in 7.0 innings May 27 against Syracuse and eight runs (six earned) on six hits in 4.0 innings June 7 versus Richmond...walked three in each game.

- Gave up five home runs and walked nine in his first four games with Toledo.
- Posted a 9.47 ERA (27ER/25.2IP) in five rehab appearances before being activated from the disabled list on June 24.
- Pitched for the Tigers that night at Cleveland in the second game of a day-night doubleheader...allowed six runs on four hits (one home run) in 2.0 innings.
- Designated for assignment June 25...unconditionally released June 28, then signed to a minor league contract June 30.
- Assigned to Toledo...made 12 starts for the Mud Hens from July 5-September 3, posting a 2-6 record in that span with a 5.57 ERA (46ER/74.1IP).
- Took the loss in a complete game effort July 5 against Charlotte in the first game of a doubleheader...

went 7.0 innings and allowed just one run on five hits.

- Struck out six and did not allow a walk but took the loss July 10 versus Norfolk.
 - Allowed seven runs on 11 hits with two home runs in just 3.2 innings July 22 at Richmond...gave up more than one home run in four of his 17 starts, and at least one home run in 11 appearances with the Mud Hens.
 - Earned his first win August 1 versus Columbus, tossing 7.0 innings in his only scoreless outing of the season (7.0,4,0,0,2,5).
 - Went 8.0 innings, his longest outing of the season, but did not factor in the decision August 17 at Norfolk (8.0,4,1,1,2,2).
 - Got the win in his final start of the season, September 3 versus Columbus...went 6.1 innings and allowed three runs on six hits with three walks and three strikeouts.

2000 SEASON

Had a record-setting year for the Tigers, setting a new Tigers season saves record with 42, making his first trip to the All-Star game, and becoming the first Tigers pitcher to capture the AL Reliefs Relief Man Award.

- Struck early on his road to 42 saves, earning his first on Opening Day, April 3 at Oakland...notched his second in the inaugural game at Comerica Park on April 11 against Seattle.

- Did not give up a run in his first four appearances before allowing three runs on five hits in one inning April 16 versus Tampa Bay, his first loss of the season.

- Totaled four saves in April but struggled with a 7.88 ERA...allowed seven runs, six in back-to-back outings April 16-22.

- Posted a 2.00 ERA in May, converting all 10 save opportunities in 12 games and garnering Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors.

- Did not allow a run in nine straight appearances May 2-21 (7.0 IP), striking out eight with no walks and just four hits.

- Earned a save in three consecutive appearances May 2-5 as the Tigers swept the Yankees at Comerica Park and in six straight appearances May 12-24.

- Gave up his only earned runs of the month May 24 against Cleveland, earning the save despite allowing two runs on three hits (1.0,3,2,0,1).

- Those two runs would be the only two earned runs allowed by Jones from May 2-July 29, a span of 29.2 innings and 31 games.

- Posted exceptional numbers in June, maintaining a 0.00 ERA with seven saves in 10 games and giving up just five hits in 10.1 innings.

- Fanned two-of-three batters he faced on June 3 against the Cubs...collected saves #15-16 at Wrigley June 3-4 in inter-league play and added one at Pittsburgh June 6 and one against St. Louis June 9.

- Gave up a hit and a walk but struck out three batters in his 20th save, June 23 at Cleveland.

- Wrapped up the month of June with his 21st save on June 30 at Kansas City and picked up Tigers Pitcher of the Month honors for the second straight month.

- Was selected for the Major League Baseball All-Star Game for the first time in his career...pitched a perfect seventh inning with one strikeout.

- Carried his unblemished June ERA through the first six of his eight July appearances, giving up four hits and two walks while fanning four in 5.2 innings (four saves) ...named Tigers Pitcher of the Month for the third straight month.

- All of his earned run damage came in the final two games of the month...allowed two runs on two hits but still earned his 29th save July 30 at Texas...was saddled with his second loss July 31 at Anaheim as he was lit up by two home runs and two walks that led to four earned runs in two-thirds of an inning.

- Tied his career season-high with his 31st save, August 2 at Anaheim...also tallied 31 saves in 1997...the 31 saves brought his career total to 120, tying him for third place on the Tigers all-time saves list with Guillermo Hernandez.

- Moved into sole possession of third place on the list and set a new career-high in his next appearance with his 32nd save August 5 against Minnesota.

- Tied John Hiller for second place on the all-time saves list on August 23 against Seattle when he collected his 36th save.

- Took the loss August 27 at Minnesota...allowed two runs on four hits in 1.2 innings.

- His 37th save on September 1 against Texas edged him past Hiller for sole possession of second place all-time with 126 saves.

- With save #38 on September 5 versus Anaheim, tied Hiller for the Tigers highest single-season saves total which Hiller set in 1973.

- Set a new Tigers record with his 39th save, September 17 against Boston...followed with his 40th save September 18 against the White Sox.

- Earned his 41st save September 22 at New York, striking out the only batter he faced.
- Took his fourth loss September 28 at Kansas City, giving up five runs (two earned) on five hits in one-third of an inning.
- Closed out the season with a save and two wins in his final three games...tied Boston's Derek Lowe with his 42nd save September 29 versus Minnesota.
- Earned his first win September 30 against Minnesota, making his longest relief outing of the season (3.0 IP) and allowing just one hit while facing 12 batters.
- Finished the season with a second win in the Tigers final game, October 1 versus Minnesota...retired the only batter he faced to seal Detroit's 12-11 victory.
- Maintained a 3.00 home ERA and a 0.93 ERA over 22 games in May and June (2 ER/19.1IP).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Registered his second career 30-save season in 1999 and moved into fourth place on the Tigers all-time saves list with 89.

- Joined Guillermo Hernandez and Mike Henneman as the only three Tigers in history to post 20-or-more saves in three seasons.
- Also joined Hernandez as the second Tiger ever to post two 30-plus save seasons.
- Ranked sixth in the AL with 30 saves and ranked fourth in the league overall with 62 games finished.
- Converted 20 of his last 22 save opportunities.
- His .857 success rate in save situations was seventh-best in the AL...his 35 total save opportunities tied him for eighth in the league.
- Ranked sixth in the AL with 80 Roloids relief points.
- Tied for 10th among AL relievers with opponents batting only .186 (13x70) with runners in scoring position...also ranked third in the league with opponents batting .208 with runners on base (among all AL pitchers with 150 or more batters faced).
- Recorded his 100th career save April 22 versus Boston.
- Became the final pitcher to take the mound at Tiger Stadium on September 27, 1999...struck out Kansas City's Carlos Beltran to record the final out at the park.
- Appeared in 65 games, the second straight season he reached that total.
- Did not allow a run and gave up only one hit in his first eight games (April 6-27), the longest scoreless streak by any AL pitcher to start the 1999 campaign.
- Allowed just two runs in a 14-game span from August 1-September 8.
- Posted a 0.96 ERA for August, going 1-0 with six saves in 9.1 innings pitched...gave up five hits and only one run while striking out eight.
- Pitched a season-high 2.0 innings three times...fired two scoreless innings on June 12 at St. Louis, allowed one run on July 6 versus New York and permitted one run against Cleveland on September 20.
- Collected a season-high nine saves in September/October.

- Allowed only two-of-11 inherited runners to score (.182), third-best among Tigers relievers.
- Posted a 2.73 ERA following the All-Star break (9ER/29.2IP), including a 2.19 mark in 24 games from August 1 through the end of the season.

Converted 28-of-32 save opportunities (88%) in 1998, including his last nine in a row, en route to his second straight season of 25-plus saves.

- His success rate in save situations ranked eighth in the American League.
- Placed 10th in the AL in the Roloids Relief Man of the Year standings with 70 points.
- Reached the 15-save mark for the fourth straight season and ended the campaign two saves short of 100 for his career.
- Led the AL and ranked third in the majors in first-batter efficiency (.117, 7x60)...allowed just 12-of-65 first batters faced (18%) to reach base, best on the team.
- Stranded 12 of the 17 runners he inherited on base (71%), including each of his last nine.
- Entered five games with two-or-more men on base and allowed just two of the 12 runners he inherited in those situations to score (17%)...entered twice with the bases loaded and stranded all six of those runners.
- In 20 games after June 8 that he entered in a save situation, he allowed just five runs in 18.1 innings (2.45 ERA) with 21 strikeouts.
- Began the season with seven consecutive scoreless outings (7.0IP) and compiled a 3.00 ERA in April (3ER/9.0IP) with three saves.
- Notched six saves three times (May, July and September), his monthly high for the season.

Converted 23 of his final 24 save opportunities in 1997 and tied for fourth in the league with a career-high 31 total saves.

- Collected 22 of his 31 saves in the season's final three months.
- His save percentage of .861 was fifth-best in the major leagues.
- His only blown save over the final three months was on September 10 at Baltimore in a game he won, 5-3 in 10 innings.
- Was perfect in his final 20 attempts when entering a game at the start of an inning in a save situation.
- Was Roloids July Reliever of the Month (1-0, 1.29 ERA, 10 saves)...earned Tiger Pitcher of the Month for September, going 3-1 with a 2.84 ERA and six saves.
- In his final 38 games after June 17, he compiled a 1.99 ERA (9ER/40.2IP).
- Ten of his saves came in one-run victories.
- Limited righthanded hitters to a .213 batting average and no homers on the season...lefties hit only .248.
- Earned his first AL save on April 5 at Chicago against the White Sox.

Posted a team-high 17 saves in 1996 and tied his career-best with six wins after being designated as the Astros closer out of Spring Training.

- Converted 17-of-23 save opportunities and ended his term with the Astros ranked seventh on the club's career saves list with 39.

- Notched saves in 14 of his final 17 opportunities (82.3%)...was successful on each of his last six and eight of his final nine save opportunities.
- Won three games and saved four in the month of April...picked up his first win in his first game on April 2 against the Dodgers.
- Was 6-1 with 16 saves and a 3.43 ERA before the All-Star Game...limited to 15.1 innings after the break due to two stints on the disabled list with right shoulder tendinitis (July 19-August 12 and August 18-September 12).

Was second among 1995 National League relievers with 99.2 innings pitched and tied for fifth in the circuit with 68 appearances.

- Began the season in a setup role but inherited closer duties when John Hudek was injured on June 23.
- Went 5-1 with a 1.83 ERA in action through the All-Star break but struggled to an 0-2 mark with a 7.56 ERA in August despite saving four games.
- Returned to a setup role after Houston acquired Mike Henneman from Detroit on August 10.
- His 96 strikeouts were second-most among NL relievers, with 61 strikeouts over his final 55.1 innings...fanned at least one batter in 53-of-68 games pitched.
- Notched 15 saves in 20 opportunities.

Rebounded from a rough first month in 1994 to post solid numbers in his first full big league season.

- From May 1-June 19 he allowed only two runs over 17 games, a 0.70 ERA (2ER/25.1IP) with 21 strikeouts.
- Did not allow a run in nine straight contests to close the season (16.2IP) and did not allow a home run from April 20-July 10 (42.0IP).
- Tied for third in the National League with 72.2 relief innings pitched.

Was recalled from Triple A Tucson on July 7, 1993, and made his major league debut that night versus Pittsburgh.

- Was scored upon in just one of his first 15 games.
- Tossed 19.1 scoreless innings from July 17-August 20...allowed just one hit in 12.1 innings from July 26-August 13.
- Earned his first major league save on August 18 against Florida, a 2-1 win.
- Picked up his first win on September 7 at home against the New York Mets, 4-3.

Mullin, Summers Do Double Duty

On September 22, 1906, George Mullin won both ends of a doubleheader for the Tigers against the Washington Senators, 5-3 and 4-3, by pitching complete games in both. Two years later on September 25, 1908, Ed Summers equaled the task and defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-2 and 1-0. Both pitchers went nine innings in each game. This feat has been accomplished 10 times in the American League, the last time coming in 1926.

Rudy York's Awesome August

The Tigers Rudy York had one of the best months in baseball history back in August of 1937. In 1998, Sammy Sosa's terrific tear in June brought back memories of York's historic month. Sosa set a major league record by clubbing 20 homers in June of 1998, breaking York's mark of 18 from August of '37. Sosa actually broke the record at Tiger Stadium on June 25, 1998 with a homer off of Brian Moehler.

Hitting home runs was not the only thing that York did in prolific fashion that month, however. He also compiled a .363 batting average (41x113) in 30 games during the month, and his 18 homers and 50 RBI for the month equaled roughly half of his total for the entire season (35 homers and 103 RBI).

York actually hit 12 longballs in his last 14 games in August and drove in 29 runs during that stretch. He also scored 27 runs, produced five doubles and two triples and totaled 104 total bases. York's slugging percentage in August of 1937 was an astounding .920.

Tigers with Consecutive 100-Walk Seasons

In 1993, Mickey Tettleton became the first batter in Tiger history to draw 100 or more walks in three consecutive seasons. On six other occasions, Tigers have done it in back-to-back seasons, a distinction first achieved by Donie Bush in 1914-15. The following Tigers reached the century mark in free passes at least two years in a row:

Player	Years	Walks by Season
Mickey Tettleton	1991-93	101, 116, 109
Tony Phillips	1992-93	114, 132
Norm Cash	1961-62	124, 104

Stearnes' Star Shines at Hall of Fame

Norman "Turkey" Stearnes, a standout slugger for the Detroit Stars of the Negro League, earned his spot in baseball history as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2000. Stearnes, a gifted outfielder and powerful hitter, played for the Stars from 1923-30 and 1937, and also played with several other Negro League teams. Legendary Negro League player Satchel Paige was quoted as saying that "Turkey Stearnes was one of the greatest hitters we ever had...he was as good as anybody ever played ball."

Following his successful career in baseball, Stearnes and his wife, Nettie, stayed in Detroit. Stearnes could almost always be found at Tigers home games before he passed away on September 4, 1979 at the age of 78. Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. In 2000, Turkey Stearnes' legacy was finally given its due recognition with his induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

2000 SEASON

Was named Rookie of the Year by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA after posting a .300-season during which he hit 14 home runs and drove in 69 runs.

- Placed fifth in NL Rookie of the Year balloting, receiving one second place vote and four third place votes.

- Ranked among NL rookie leaders in several categories with 14 home runs (3rd), 69 RBI (2nd), 21 multi-hit games (5th), 47 runs (6th), 101 hits (6th), 164 total bases (6th), 21 doubles (5th), 55 walks (4th) and 35 extra-base hits (5th).

- Batted .374 (40x107) when hitting with runners in scoring position, third-best in the National League.

- Joined teammates Chris Truby and Julio Lugo as the first Houston rookies to hit 10-or-more home runs since Jeff Bagwell (15) and Luis Gonzalez (13) in 1991.

- His 14 longballs were the most ever by an Astros rookie catcher, eclipsing John Bateman's 10 homers in 1963 and tying Joe Morgan's 1965 mark for the third-most home runs by a Houston rookie.

- His 68 RBI tied John Bateman's 1966 club mark for most RBI for a catcher...his other RBI came in a pinch-hit appearance.

- Hit his first home run of the season April 23 versus San Diego.

- Broke up Francisco Cordova's no-hit bid with an eighth inning double in his first start of the season on April 6.
- Batted .231 (9x39) in April before having a breakout month in May, during which he hit .431 (25x58) with six doubles, five homers and 21 RBI.

- Had Houston's first five-hit game since 1995 (Derek Bell) when he went 5x6 in a 10-inning win at Los Angeles on May 7.

- Became the first player to hit the Enron Field roof on June 3 versus the White Sox when his second inning pop fly hit the girder of the south panel in foul territory.

- Recorded the first of five four-game hitting streaks June 7-10, going 5x14 with a double and two RBI in that stretch.

- Drove in a career-high four runs June 27 at Arizona as he went 3x5 with a double.

- Went 7x15 (.467) with a double, two home runs and four RBI during a four-game stretch July 7-14.

- Hit safely in 11-of-14 games July 7-28, going 16x48 (.333) with four doubles, three home runs and nine RBI.

- Left the game in the fifth inning July 30 at Atlanta and was put on the disabled list the next day due to right bicep tendinitis...missed 17 games before being activated on August 17.

- Launched two homers September 3 versus Atlanta, his first career multi-homer game.

- Homered in consecutive games September 2-3...also notched homers in back-to-back games April 23-26.

- Drew a career-high three walks September 7 versus Florida, including two intentional passes.

- Recorded seven multi-hit efforts in 25 September games (22 starts).

- Hit .538 (7x13) in four straight games September 17-22.

- Hovered around the .300 mark for most of the season's second half...hit safely in 16 of his final 23 games (.325, 25x77) to end the year with a .300 average for the season.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Made the major league team out of Spring Training in 1999 and appeared in 10 games before having his season cut short by injury.

- Recorded his first major league RBI April 7 versus the Cubs with a base hit that scored Richard Hidalgo...also marked his first major league start behind the plate.

- Hit his first major league home run April 20 at Chicago off of Matt Karchner, a solo shot that immediately followed a homer from Hidalgo.

- Underwent season-ending surgery May 12 due to right shoulder laxity.

Called up from Triple A New Orleans on August 30, 1998 for his first taste of big league action.

- Walked in his first major league plate appearance on

Ruth, Rowe Miss Chances to Manage Tigers

When Tigers owner Frank Navin went looking for a manager before the 1934 season, Babe Ruth was at the top of his list. However, Ruth, after being offered the job, postponed his decision to take a trip to Honolulu, Hawaii. Impatient for Ruth's answer, Navin dumped the home run king and hired Mickey Cochrane instead. Cochrane, of course, went on to be named league MVP as the club's catcher in 1934 and took the Tigers to their first World Series in 25 years.

Former Tiger Lynwood Thomas "Schoolboy" Rowe also had an opportunity to manage the Tigers in 1952 when Walter "Spike" Briggs, Jr., then President of the Tigers, decided to change skippers in mid-season. He first offered the job to former White Sox Hall-of-Famer Ted Lyons who turned it down. Briggs then tried to contact Rowe, but Rowe had gone fishing and could not be reached. Fred Hutchinson, Briggs' third choice, ended up with the position, taking over for Red Rolfe.

- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on October 12 to remove loose bodies from his right elbow...performed by Mets team physicians Dr. David Altchek and Dr. David Dines at Manhattan's Hospital for Special Surgery.

Rebounded from right shoulder surgery performed during Cleveland's 1993 spring camp and made three starts for the Indians after a September call-up.

- Had his shoulder surgically repaired by Dr. Louis Keppler on March 11.

Reached the major leagues for the first time in 1992 in just his third season of pro ball.

- Was recalled by the Indians on September 9 and went 0-2 with a 4.98 ERA in four starts with the big league club.
- Made his major league debut on September 12 at Chicago...earned a no-decision after allowing two earned runs on four hits in six innings in a 5-3 win.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Made 28 starts at Triple A Charlotte in 1994, one shy of the International League lead, in his first and only season at the Triple A level.

- Led Charlotte in strikeouts (152) and ranked second in innings pitched (165.1).
- Averaged 8.3 strikeouts per nine innings.

Made six appearances at Double A Canton-Akron in 1993, first as part of a rehab assignment before being optioned there on August 4.

- Allowed just one earned run and fanned 21 in six starts covering 23.0 innings.
- Was named the Indians sixth-best prospect by Baseball America prior to the season.

Pitched the majority of the 1992 season at Double A Canton-Akron before a September call-up by the Indians.

- Led the Eastern League with 27 games started and ranked second in the circuit with 172.2 innings and 146 strikeouts...ranked second on the club with 11 wins.
- Baseball America rated him as Cleveland's seventh-best prospect before the season.

Made 22 starts for Single A Columbus in 1991, his second professional season.

- Second on his staff with 136 strikeouts and tied for second with eight victories.
- Tossed the first two complete games of his career, also tied for second on the team.
- Fanned 10.5 batters per nine innings, the best ratio in the South Atlantic League.

Made his professional debut for rookie Burlington in 1990 before earning a mid-season promotion to Single A Watertown.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

He and wife, Annie, reside in Columbus, OH during the off-season.

- Attended Oklahoma State from 1988-90...in his final season there as a junior, he helped the Cowboys to a second-place finish at the College World Series.
- Majored in business administration at Oklahoma State.
- Was an all-state selection at Cheyenne Mountain H.S. in Colorado Springs, CO.

Newhouser Captures Back-to-Back MVP Awards

Hal Newhouser's blazing fastball made him a strikeout king and in just over 17 seasons in the majors (15 with Detroit), he won 207 games. The most dominant pitcher of the 1940s, Newhouser is also the only pitcher in major league history to win back-to-back Most Valuable Player Awards, taking American League honors in 1944 and 1945.

In all, just 11 players have won consecutive MVP Awards, five in the American League and six in the National League. The other 10 include Jimmy Foxx (AL 1932-33), Yogi Berra (AL 1954-55), Mickey Mantle (AL 1956-57), Ernie Banks (NL 1958-59), Roger Maris (AL 1960-61), Joe Morgan (NL 1975-76), Mike Schmidt (NL 1980-81), Dale Murphy (NL 1982-83), Barry Bonds (NL 1992-93) and Frank Thomas (AL 1993-94).

2000 SEASON

Led the Tigers staff with 12 wins in his fourth full season in the majors...has posted a double-digit win total and pitched 175.0-or-more innings in each of his four seasons with Detroit.

- Started the first game in the history of Comerica Park April 11 versus Seattle...tossed 6.0 innings, allowing just two runs to earn the win as the Tigers defeated the Mariners 5-2...the start was the 100th of his career.
- Scratched from his start April 23 at Chicago due to an emergency appendectomy...placed on the disabled retroactive to April 17.
- Assigned to Single A West Michigan May 13 for a rehab assignment...allowed three runs on five hits while striking out four in 6.1 innings in a loss to South Bend.
- Activated from the disabled list May 19, making the start at Boston that evening...allowed three runs in 6.0 innings to take the loss.
- Posted a three-game winning streak May 30-June 16...in his four starts during that span, he posted a 2.92 ERA (24.2IP/8ER).

• Defeated St. Louis June 10, allowing just one run in 7.0 innings...issued his first walk since May 19, a span of 26.0 innings...the latest in his career that he recorded his third win of the season.

• Struck out seven batters in a loss to Milwaukee July 7...his seven strikeouts were his most since striking out eight batters against Tampa Bay August 28, 1998.

• Hurlled a complete game, allowing only two runs, as he defeated Houston July 13...the complete game was his first since he shut out Texas on August 30, 1999.

• Established a career-high with a six-game winning streak August 2-September 5...in the seven starts during the streak, he posted a 2.61 ERA (48.1IP/14ER) with 35 strikeouts.

• Tossed his second complete game of the season August 8 versus Baltimore, allowing one run on eight hits with seven strikeouts.

• Struck out a season-high eight batters in a no-decision at Baltimore August 31...allowed one run on five hits in 6.2 IP.

• In six starts during August, he posted a 5-0 record with a 2.13 ERA...he allowed 10 runs on 39 hits in 42.1 innings, walking 10 and striking out 32 batters.

• Tied for the most wins (5) in the American League with his fellow teammate Steve Sparks and the Yankees Andy Pettitte...second to Sparks (1.69) with his 2.13 ERA during the month...tied for fifth in the league with 32 strikeouts.

• Suffered the loss at Chicago September 11, his first loss since July 28 at Texas, after allowing four runs in 5.0 innings.

• Pitched 6.0-or-more innings in 21 of his 29 starts during the season, including the eight starts he pitched 7.0-or-more innings.

• Fifth in the American League with 2.02 walks-per-nine innings (40 walks in 178.0 innings)...allowed a season-high three walks only four times...in 16 of his starts, he either did not walk a batter or walked only one batter.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Made his first career Opening

Day start for the Tigers and led the club in starts and innings in 1999, falling just short of reaching 200 innings for the second straight season.

- Was the winning pitcher in the final game ever at Tiger Stadium on September 27, his last start of the year...led the Tigers to an 8-2 victory over the Royals, tossing 6.0 innings and fanning five.
- Walked just nine batters in his final 49.2 innings, an average of 1.6 per nine innings...averaged a team-best 2.7 walks per nine innings for the season.
- Tied for second in the league with two complete game shutouts (June 25 against Minnesota and August 30 against Texas), accomplishing the feat six times in the last three years...set a season-low with only three hits allowed in the August 30 contest.
- Surrendered just two home runs in his last 60.0 innings and three in his last 73.1 innings...did not give up a homer in five straight starts from August 14-September 4.
- Ranked second in the AL in fielding percentage by a pitcher with no errors in 49 total chances, raising his career fielding percentage from .966 to .978.
- Suffered from one of the worst run support totals in the AL, with the Tigers offense averaging just 4.49 runs per nine innings in his starts...the team scored just 54 runs in his losses (3.4 per game) and two runs or less in nine of his defeats.
- Led the AL and tied for second in the majors with a career-high 16 losses...was the first Tiger since Doyle Alexander (18) in 1989 to lead the league in defeats.
- Earned the win on April 5 at Texas in his first career Opening Day start, 11-5 (7.0,2,1,1,2,6)...held the Rangers hitless for the first 6.1 innings before Juan Gonzalez singled to break up the no-hit bid.
- Was ejected from his start on May 1 at Tampa Bay for illegally defacing the ball...was subsequently issued a 10-day suspension by the AL starting on May 3.
- Made his shortest career appearance on June 9 versus Pittsburgh, lasting only 1.1 innings and giving up five runs on six hits...it was his only appearance of the season in which he did not record a strikeout.
- His complete game on June 25 snapped a club-record string of 71 straight games to open the season without a pitcher going the distance.
- Posted a 3.94 ERA in April, going 3-2 in five starts and allowing 14 runs on 31 hits...saw his ERA rise to 5.59 in August after struggling in July with a 9.25 ERA.
- Held opponents to a .100 batting average (1x10) in bases-loaded situations.

Proved to be the Tigers best starter in 1998, his second full big league season, pacing the club in wins and shutouts while posting the lowest ERA among the starting staff.

- His 3.90 ERA was just out of the top 10 in the AL and nearly a run lower (0.77) than his mark in 1997...allowed three-or-fewer earned runs in 22 of his 33 starts.
- Set career-highs in wins (14), innings pitched (221.1), starts (33), shutouts (3), complete games (4) and strikeouts (123)...led the team in wins and shutouts while finishing second to Justin Thompson in the other four categories.

- His three shutouts tied for second in the league behind David Wells' five and were the most by a Tiger since Jack Morris' six in 1986.
- Was one of just eight major league pitchers to post three-or-more shutouts.
- His 221.1 innings were 10th-most in the league...joined Thompson as the first Tigers duo to each pitch 200-or-more innings in the same season since 1991.
- Went six innings or more in 27 starts and tossed seven innings or more 18 times.
- Walked more than three hitters in just three of his 33 starts...his 2.28 walks per nine innings and 11.3 baserunners per nine both ranked ninth in the AL.
- Permitted opposing hitters a .306 on-base average, ninth-lowest in the AL.
- Tied for third in the AL and fifth in the majors in total GDPs induced (28).
- Ranked sixth in the AL (eighth in the majors) in GDPs induced per nine innings (1.14).
- Was voted Tigers Pitcher of the Month in each of the season's first three months...owned an 8-5 record and a 3.58 ERA at the end of June.
- Started the Tigers home opener on April 7 versus Tampa Bay and received a no-decision in the 3-1 Tigers victory...allowed one earned run in 4.1 innings.
- Tossed his first shutout of the season and his second complete game on May 30 versus the White Sox (6-0) ...scattered seven hits and did not walk a batter.
- Closed June with a five-hit shutout at Pittsburgh (3-0) on June 30.
- Defeated Toronto 5-2 on July 11 at Tiger Stadium after taking a no-hitter into the seventh inning...Shawn Green spoiled the bid with a leadoff double in the seventh.
- Blanked the Devil Rays on August 1 in Tampa (8-0) for his third shutout of the year...allowed five hits and walked one in facing three batters over the minimum.
- Started the season 9-0 at home (12 starts), the first Tiger pitcher ever to do so...posted a 1.97 ERA (19ER/87.0IP) during that stretch.
- Posted a 2.83 home ERA for the season (38ER/121.0IP), fourth-lowest in the AL.
- Fanned a season-best eight batters, one short of his career-high, in a 4-3 loss on August 28 versus Tampa Bay.
- Owned a 6-7 record after the All-Star break despite a 3.93 ERA as the Tigers scored just 16 runs in his seven total second-half losses (2.3 runs per game).
- The Tigers scored 39 runs in his 13 defeats overall (3.0 per game).
- Surrendered 30 home runs (22 solo shots), tied for fifth-most in the league.

Won the most games (11) for a Tiger rookie in 20 seasons in 1997.

- His 11 wins were the most for a Tiger rookie since Dave Rozema won 15 in 1977.

- Finished second among AL rookie pitchers in wins, ERA (4.67) and starts (31)...tied for third among major league rookies in wins.
- Earned his first major league victory April 20 versus the A's, 9-2, giving up just two runs in seven innings.
- Tossed his first career complete-game shutout on April 26 at Anaheim, allowing just two hits and no walks in a 2-0 decision...the shutout completed a 2-1 April mark with a 2.45 ERA in five starts, earning the righthander Tiger Pitcher of the Month honors.
- Was the first Tiger rookie to pitch a complete-game shutout since Jeff Robinson did it on August 7, 1987, versus the New York Yankees...Robinson retired the final 24 batters he faced en route to a 8-0 victory.
- Posted consecutive losses on August 1 and 6 and was placed on the disabled list with a groin strain...was activated on August 22.
- Defeated Greg Maddux on September 1 in Atlanta, 4-2, snapping Maddux's 10 game win streak (2ER/6.0IP).

Was called up to the majors in late September of 1996 and made a pair of starts, marking his first taste of big league action.

- Was recalled on September 22 and received a no-decision in his major league debut that night at Milwaukee in a 7-5 Tiger win...allowed five unearned runs in 5.1 frames, but a four-run Tiger ninth rallied the club to a 7-5 comeback win.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Posted a league-leading 15 wins for Double A Jacksonville in 1996 and led the Suns to the Southern League title.

"The Bird" Was the Word

In 1976, Mark "The Bird" Fidrych enjoyed one of the most exhilarating and rewarding seasons ever by a rookie. Though the Tigers struggled to a fifth-place finish in the East Division, Fidrych was named the starting pitcher for the All-Star Game and captured AL Rookie of the Year honors after winning 19 games and pacing the league with a 2.34 ERA.

But the Fidrych story was about more than just numbers and trophies, and 22 years later, fans' memories of Fidrych's 1976 season remain alive and well.

That season, fans turned out in droves on days that "The Bird" was scheduled to pitch, sometimes as many as 40,000-strong despite the fact that the Tigers typically drew just 15-20,000 fans per game. When Fidrych walked out to take his warmups, entertainment followed closely behind. Whether it was the way he talked to the baseball before he threw it, how he groomed the mound with his hands between innings or the way he shut down the opposition, every Tigers fan found something to love about "The Bird."

However, as meteoric as his rise to fame was in 1976, his fall the next season turned out to be just as swift. On March 21, 1977, while shagging fly balls in the outfield during Spring Training, Fidrych tore cartilage in his left knee, and the start of his season was delayed until May 27. That night he went the distance in a 2-1 loss to the Mariners before 44,207 fans at Tiger Stadium, and everyone celebrated the return of "The Bird." But less than three weeks later on June 16, during his 11th start of the season against Toronto, Fidrych lasted only 15 pitches before leaving the game due to pain in his right shoulder. On August 28, the Tigers announced that Fidrych was done for the season after being out since July 12.

Fidrych attempted to several come backs between 1978 and 1980, but continued to be plagued by injuries. After his release by the Tigers in 1980, he never pitched in the majors again.

In 1999, "The Bird" returned to The Corner when he was honored on July 11 during Beanie Baby Day featuring "Kuku the Cockatoo." Fidrych also led off the parade of former and current Tigers greats who were assembled for the final game at Tiger Stadium on September 27, 1999, rushing out to groom the famous pitching mound one more time as he led off the emotion-filled post-game ceremonies.

- Was promoted to Oklahoma City on July 30 and posted a 1.65 ERA in 14 games, the lowest on the 89ers staff among pitchers with 10-or-more innings.
- Allowed just one earned run in his final 17 innings (nine games) for a 0.53 ERA.

Started the 1994 season at Single A Charlotte, going 1-0 with a 4.61 ERA in seven appearances.

- Promoted to Tulsa on April 29...appeared in 30 games, compiling a 1-4 record with a 1.64 ERA and earning six saves.

- Had the lowest ERA on the Tulsa staff and ranked third in saves.
- Did not pitch between July 1 and 22 due to right elbow pain...made his last appearance on August 14 before undergoing arthroscopic surgery on August 23 to repair a right elbow stress fracture and impingement.

Led Charlotte with 47 appearances in 1993 and ranked third with seven saves in his first full season in relief.

Tied for the Single A Gastonia lead in complete games with three in 1992.

- Started 21-of-23 games and tossed a career-high 105.1 innings.

Paced the GCL Rangers in wins (5) and innings pitched (50.0) in 1991...tied for the staff lead with nine games started.

Made his pro debut in 1990 for Single A Butte and went 0-3 with a 6.35 ERA in 13 games (three starts).

2000 SEASON

After leading the Pacific Coast League with 15 wins at Triple A Oklahoma in 1999, he struggled during the 2000 season, going 2-7 with a 7.37 ERA.

- His season ERA was the second highest in club history among pitchers with 100-or-more innings, trailing only Darren Oliver's 7.42 mark in 2000.

- Started the season in long relief...did not allow a run in giving up seven hits over 4.0 innings in his first four games April 5-25.

- Compiled an 8.10 ERA (18ER/20IP) in his next eight outings, all in relief...allowed 10 runs (seven earned) including two home runs and four walks in 2.0 innings May 5 against Oakland.

- Appeared in just nine of the Rangers first 54 games.

- Got his first major league victory on June 4 against Arizona...fanned two and walked two without allowing a hit or run in two-thirds of an inning.

- Entered the rotation June 17 at Tampa Bay and gave up just two hits over six shutout innings to combine on the 5-0 shutout of the Rays.

- Allowed two runs in a season-high seven-inning effort in his next outing, June 22 versus Minnesota...did not factor in the decision.

- Fell into a seven-game losing streak starting June 27...posted a 9.59 ERA (54ER/50.2IP) in his final 11 starts.

- Allowed 29 earned runs over five straight starts August 4-24, with 39 hits including three home runs in 22.1 innings...gave up 15 runs and 16 hits over 6.2 innings in back-to-back losses August 19 and 24.

- Struck out a season-high eight batters August 14 against the Yankees.

- Returned to the bullpen after that loss and posted a 7.62 ERA (11ER/13IP) in eight relief appearances the rest of the year.

- Allowed five-or-more runs in eight of his last 11 starts.

- Lasted just 0.1 inning July 21 at Seattle, the shortest outing by a Rangers starter since Bobby Witt pitched 0.1 inning September 14, 1997 versus Minnesota...Perisho allowed seven runs (six earned) on five hits and gave up three walks in that game.

- First batters hit .400 (6x15) against him...opponents batted .316 overall, with lefties hitting .331 (47x142) and righties averaging .308 (89x289).

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Was recalled from Oklahoma in September of 1999 and appeared in four games for the Rangers.

- Made his first appearance of the season September 4 at Chicago, giving up three runs in two innings.

- Pitched 8.1 scoreless innings in his next three outings.

- Got the start in the Rangers regular season finale, October 3 at Anaheim...gave up two hits in six scoreless innings while fanning a career-high 12 batters.

- The 12 strikeouts were the second-most ever by a Rangers lefthander, one shy of the club record set by Jamie Moyer on April 8, 1989 versus Toronto.

- Opponents batted just .211 (8x38) against him.

- Struck out 17 batters and walked just two in 10.1 innings with Texas.

Appeared in two games during a brief stint with Texas in 1998.

- Recalled from Oklahoma on June 16 and started that night against Oakland.

- Became the first lefthander other than Darren Oliver to start for the Rangers since Kenny Rogers on October 1, 1995.

- Lost both of his starts with Texas...allowed seven runs (six earned) with two homers, three walks and a hit batter in 2.1 innings June 16 versus Oakland and gave up 10 runs (nine earned) with five walks and another hit batter June 21 at Anaheim.

Spent time in the majors during three stints with the Angels in 1997.

- Made his major league debut on May 27 at Detroit...took the loss, allowing five runs and four walks while striking out six in five innings.

- Was 0-2 with a 10.22 ERA (14ER/12.1IP) in his first three starts and 0-0 with a 3.49 ERA

(11 ER/28.1IP) in his next six games (four starts) before being optioned to Triple A Vancouver July 7.

- Struck out eight batters in 6.1 innings in his start June 19 against Oakland.
- Returned to Anaheim on July 26...started on July 28 at Cleveland and allowed five runs on four hits with six walks but did not factor in the decision.
- Returned to Vancouver July 30 and was recalled by the Angels for a third time September 7.
- His only appearance the rest of the season was one scoreless relief inning September 26 versus Texas.
- The Angels bullpen failed in three save situations during his starts, resulting in three no-decisions.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Rebounded from shoulder surgery to lead the Pacific Coast League with 15 wins in 1999.

- Led all Triple A pitchers and tied for second among all minor league pitchers in wins while with Oklahoma...tied for fifth among Triple A hurlers with 150 strikeouts, was fourth with 78 walks, and tied for 10th in strikeouts per nine innings (8.64).
- Tied for fourth in the PCL with his starts (27) and strikeout totals.
- Broke the Rangers all-time Triple A single season victory mark, held by Larry McCall who posted 14 wins in 1979.
- Named to the PCL post-season all-star squad...paced Oklahoma in wins, starts and strikeouts and was second in innings (156.1).
- Went 2-2 with a 4.38 ERA (12ER/24.1IP) in his first five starts, April 10-May 2...improved to 4-0 with a 5.82 ERA (25ER/38.2IP) in seven starts May 7-June 8.
- Earned the win in three consecutive starts May 7-17.
- Fanned a season-high 11 batters May 22 at Salt Lake City.
- Was 1-4 with an 8.37 ERA (22ER/23.2IP) in five starts June 14-July 4 but went 6-1 with a 2.71 mark over his remaining 10 starts for Oklahoma.
- Posted a season-best five-game winning streak July 9-August 1, allowing nine earned runs over 35.2 innings (2.27 ERA) and was 3-0 with a 1.96 ERA in his final three games.
- Recorded two complete games, one on August 1 at Edmonton and on August 17 versus Las Vegas.
- Pitched into the sixth inning in 18 of his 27 starts and into the seventh in 11 games...surrendered no more than two earned runs in 11 of his outings.

Spent most of the 1998 season at Oklahoma before joining the Rangers.

- Was second on Oklahoma's staff with eight wins, the most by a Rangers Triple A lefty since John Barfield in 1989 (10) and was fourth on the staff with 15 starts.
- Went 6-1 with a 2.94 ERA (17ER/52IP) in his first eight starts with Oklahoma through May 13.
- Posted a complete game victory May 8 versus Fresno.
- Fanned a season-high 10 batters June 4 at Nashville.

- Was 7-5 with a 4.00 ERA in 15 starts, tied for fifth in the PCL in wins, when he was recalled by Texas on June 16.
- Returned to Oklahoma June 22...defeated Nashville June 26 for his final win of the season.
- Experienced pain in his shoulder during that game and was placed on the disabled list...activated July 23 but lasted just 2.1 innings against Tucson before leaving the game with pain.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on August 5 to repair partial labrum and rotator cuff tears in his left shoulder and missed the remainder of the season.

Started the 1997 season with Double A Midland in the Angels organization.

- Voted the sixth-best prospect in the Texas League by Baseball America.
- Was 5-2 with a 2.96 ERA in 10 starts, holding opponents to a .221 average.
- Issued three earned runs or less in nine of his 10 starts.
- Recalled by Anaheim May 23...optioned to Vancouver on July 7.
- Went 1-1 in three starts before rejoining Anaheim on July 26...returned to Vancouver July 30 and went 3-6 with a 4.21 ERA in six starts for the rest of the year.

Posted a combined 10-7 record between Single A Lake Elsinore and Midland in 1996.

- Went 7-5 with a 4.20 ERA in 21 games (18 starts) with one shutout for Lake Elsinore.
- Also posted a winning record for Midland, going 3-2 with a 3.21 ERA in eight starts.

Pitched exclusively for Lake Elsinore in 1995.

- Was second on the Lake Elsinore staff with 22 starts and fifth with 115.1 innings pitched.

Tied for second in the Midwest League with 88 walks and tied for fourth with 27 starts at Single A Cedar Rapids in 1994.

- Topped the staff in wins (12) and was second in innings pitched (147.2) and strikeouts (107).
- Won his only start in the Midwest League championship series against Rockford.

Tied for second on the Arizona League Angels (Rookie) with seven wins and one shutout in 1993.

Great Tigers Nicknames

The Tigers have had a number of players with famous and unusual monikers over the years. There were the famous (Schoolboy Rowe), the obscure (Pepper Peploski) and many in between. For instance, Soldier Boy Murphy, Phenomenal Smith (John Francis Smith) and Sailor Stroud suited up for Detroit, as have Piano Legs Hickman, Baby Doll Jacobsen, and the Wilson trio, Mutt, Icehouse and Squanto.

Other nicknames from the all-time Tiger roster include Sparky (Anderson), Skeeter (Barnes), Gator (Brown), The Bird (Fidrych), Goose (Goslin), Hooks (Dauss), Snooks (Dowd), Razor (Ledbetter), Wild Bill (Donovan), Rip (Radcliffe), Hack (Simmons), Rocky (Bridges and Colavito), Muddy (Ruel), Stubby (Overmire), Tubby (Spencer), Slim (Love), Baldy (Louden), Kid (Elberfeld and Gleason), Chief (Hogsett) and General (Crowder).

- Posted a 1.26 ERA in 11 appearances during July, allowing two runs on eight hits in 14.1 innings...International League opponents hit just .167 (8x48) against him that month.

- Struck out three batters for the third time August 15 at Norfolk, matching a season-high for strikeouts.
- Opponents hit .299 (58x194) against him during his 44 appearances with Toledo.

- Limited the leadoff batter in an inning to a .179 batting average (7x39).
- Recalled to Detroit September 1...made his first appearance with the Tigers that evening against Texas, allowing a hit to the only batter he faced.
- Pitched 2.2 scoreless innings of relief versus Texas two days later on September 3...walked one and struck out one batter while not allowing a hit.
- Made his final appearance of the season September 9 at Toronto, allowing one run on one hit.
- Had season-ending arthroscopic surgery on his left elbow September 22.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Appeared in just 12 games for the Tigers in 1999 before shoulder surgery ended his season.

- Allowed only two runs and four hits in his first eight appearances out of the Tigers bullpen...posted a 3.18 ERA during that stretch (April 7-28).
- Suffered the loss on April 12 versus Minnesota in the Tigers home opener, his only decision of the season...allowed a game-winning home run to Todd Walker, his only batter, in the top of the 12th inning in the 1-0 defeat.
- Tossed 4.1 scoreless innings over a five-game stretch from April 16-28.
- Pitched a career-high 3.0 innings in relief on May 3 at Tampa Bay.
- Posted a 3.37 ERA through 12 games (4ER/10.2IP)...suffered a left shoulder strain during his outing May 6 and went on the disabled list the next day.
- Elected shoulder surgery after pain continued in his left shoulder during rehab...the season-ending arthroscopy was performed on July 8 by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL.

appearances with 88 in 1998 in his first season above Double A.

- His 88 appearances tied the Tigers overall club record and were two short of the AL record set by the Twins Mike Marshall in 1979.
- The old rookie record for appearances had been 86, set in 1996 by Myers.
- His 3.58 ERA was third-best among AL lefthanded relievers (50-plus innings) and was the top mark among all of the league's rookie lefthanders.
- A specialty reliever, he pitched an inning or less in all but seven of his games...his season-long stint was 1.2 innings, a mark he reached on April 24 at the Yankees and on June 5 at Milwaukee.
- Fifty-eight percent of the batters he faced were lefties (125-of-214)...he was most successful against righthanders, holding them to a .234 batting average (18x77)...lefties hit .271 (29x107) off him.
- Was scored upon in just 18 of his 88 games and went 14 games without allowing a run from July 12-August 4...gave up a run in just seven of his last 39 outings.
- Made his big league debut on Opening Day in Tampa Bay on March 31, pitching one inning and allowing only a walk in the Devil Rays first-ever game.
- Pitched in nine of the Tigers first 10 games on the season, the only major league pitcher ever to do that for his team in research to 1975 (Elias Sports Bureau).
- Enjoyed his best work from May through July, when he pitched in 44 games, compiled a 1.80 ERA (6ER/30.0IP), fanned 22 batters and allowed just 22 hits.
- Earned his first major league victory on May 20 at Minnesota...pitched a perfect inning of relief, fanning two of the three batters he faced.
- Put together his best month in June, posting a 0.90 ERA (1ER/10.0IP) in 16 games.
- Was named Tiger Pitcher of the Month for July, when he made 17 appearances and allowed just two runs on eight hits in 12 innings (1.50 ERA).
- Notched his first big league save on July 11 versus Toronto.
- Gave up three home runs in his first 12.1 innings (22 games) but went 26 games without surrendering one (16.2IP) from May 19-July 11.
- Battled soreness in his left shoulder for much of the season's final month and appeared in just 10 of the Tigers final 26 contests...allowed eight earned runs in his last 10.2 innings to close the season.

- Posted a 3.00 ERA over his last 55 games, surrendering 10 earned runs in 30 innings.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder on October 6 by Dr. Terry Lock.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Assigned to Toledo for injury rehab on June 4, 1999... appeared in 10 games for Toledo, throwing 10.1 innings of relief and compiling a 3.48 ERA.

Switched from starting to relief in 1997 while pitching for Double A Mobile in the Padres farm system.

- All but one of his 40 games came out of the bullpen...notched a career-best 2.34 ERA.
- In his final 29 games after May 5, his ERA was 1.61.
- Did not allow a run in July or September.
- Allowed just four earned runs in his last 21.1 innings (1.69 ERA).
- Won three straight decisions from May 11-31...went unbeaten from April 21-June 17.

Was third on the 1996 Single A Quad City club with nine wins in the Astros system.

- Also placed third on the staff with 104 strikeouts.
- Was third in the Midwest League with an average of 1.8 walks per nine innings.

Spent the first of two consecutive years at Quad City in 1995.

Tied for fifth among 1994 New York-Penn League pitchers with seven wins.

- Was fourth in the circuit with 95.1 innings pitched.
- Earned New York-Penn League Pitcher of the Week honors for July 3-9.

Was one of three GCL Astros starters to post an ERA of under 3.00 in 1993.

- Tied for first in the league with 12 games started.

Began his pro career with the GCL Astros in 1992.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS

Saw action in the playoffs each year from 1993-97...in seven minor league seasons, he pitched for four division champions.

Centering on Frustration

Of the 137 home runs hit at Comerica Park in its inaugural season, just six cleared the center-field wall. The eight-foot, six-inch center field wall runs from the flag pole to the out-of-town scoreboard right below Comerica Park's giant water feature. Of the six home runs, only one was by a Tiger. Billy McMillon notched the trick in the first inning off Boston's Rolando Arrojo on September 16. Following is a list of those players who managed to hit roundtrippers to center field at Comerica Park:

Crazy Eight

The Tigers unloaded for a club-record eight home runs on June 20, 2000 at SkyDome in a 18-6 win versus Toronto. Seven Tiger players went deep off of four different Blue Jay pitchers. Five home runs were hit through the first four innings, including two in the top of the first. The Tigers then hit three in the last two innings, with back-to-back jobs by Robert Fick and Rich Becker in the ninth. Following is a recap of the record-setting night:

Inside-the-Park Home Runs by Tigers

Since 1912, when Hall-of-Famer Sam Crawford registered the Tigers first inside-the-park home run at month-old Fenway Park in Boston, Detroit players have accounted for 41 such roundtrippers. Crawford is the only Tiger ever to have two in the same season, also in 1912, and the all-time club leader in inside-the-park homers is Lou Whitaker, who had four during his long Tiger career. In 1956, Frank Lary became the only Tiger pitcher to post an inside-the-park homer on Opening Day versus the Athletics. Following is the Tigers all-time list of inside-the-park home runs, 26 of which have been accomplished in Detroit.

Tigers Win Organization of the Year Awards in 1997

Both Howe Sportsdata International, the official statistical service of minor league baseball, and Baseball America magazine each named the Detroit Tigers the Organization of the Year in 1997.

The major league Tigers impressive 26-win improvement over the 1996 season was cited by both Howe and Baseball America as a major factor in Organization of the Year honors.

The club's increased focus on player development also played a role in winning the awards, however. In the spring of 1996, Baseball America rated the Tigers minor league system as the second-worst in all of baseball. But over the next two seasons Detroit's farm system made a dramatic turnaround.

In 1997, the Tigers six minor league affiliates combined for a 363-320 record and a .531 winning percentage, fifth-best among the 30 major league clubs (including Tampa Bay and Arizona).

Detroit joined the Atlanta Braves as the only clubs in baseball to win Organization of the Year honors from both Howe and Baseball America in the same season.

Baseball America also named the Tigers Single A West Michigan affiliate its Team of the Year in 1997 after producing a record of 92-39, the best mark in the minor leagues.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Became the quickest Tigers draft pick ever to make the major leagues in 1999, enjoying a stellar first half of the season before battling fatigue for much of the second half.

- Held righthanded batters to a .236 batting average (65x276), fifth-best in the AL.
- Set the club record for strikeouts by a rookie righthander (114), surpassing the mark of Hookey Daus (107) set in 1913...his total was five shy of Dave Mlicki for the team lead in that category.
- Stopped Tiger losing streaks of six, five, four, three and two games (three times).
- Won his major league debut on April 14 versus Minnesota, 7-1...tossed five scoreless innings and allowed just one hit to become the first Tiger to win his big league debut since Clint Sodowsky in 1995.
- Was the second player from the 1998 draft (first pitcher) to make it to the big leagues behind St. Louis outfielder J.D. Drew.
- His debut was one day earlier than pitcher Dave Lemanczyk, who was selected by the Tigers in the 16th round of the June 1972 draft and debuted on April 15, 1973.
- Lost his second start, 1-0, versus Boston on April 20 as the Tigers were shut out by Pedro Martinez...allowed just two hits in six innings as a fourth-inning Troy O'Leary home run ended an 8.0-inning scoreless streak to open Weaver's career.
- Won six of his first nine starts, posting a 6-3 record and a 2.89 ERA (17ER/53.0IP).
- Went 13 consecutive starts without a victory from June 1-August 16, going 0-6 with seven no-decisions and a 7.39 ERA (58ER/70.2IP)...opened the stretch with five straight no-decisions in which he posted a cumulative 3.00 ERA (11ER/33.0IP).
- His 13-start winless string was two short of the club record set by Felipe Lira from July 14, 1996-April 25, 1997.
- Was 6-5 with a 3.84 ERA at the All-Star break...went 3-7, 8.29 after the break.
- Went 2x2 at the plate with a double, two runs scored and a sacrifice bunt on July 19 at Cincinnati...doubled off Pete Harnisch for his first major league hit.
- Tied the team record by allowing five home runs on July 24 against Boston.

- Rebounded with a 5-0 combined shutout win over the Angels on August 21 as he tossed seven innings and fanned a career-high seven batters.
- Extended his career-long scoreless streak to 13.0 innings in his next start on August 27 versus the Orioles before allowing a run...earned the win as he allowed three runs in 8.0 innings, his longest outing since July 8.
- Made his first relief appearance on September 26 versus the Royals, retiring all three batters he faced.
- Closed out the season with a victory in his final start on October 2 at Kansas City in a 4-3 win...allowed two runs in five innings.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Made one start with Double A Jacksonville in 1999, earning a no-decision after fanning six batters in 6.0 innings.

Enjoyed a solid start to his pro career in 1998 after being the Tigers top draft pick.

- Was named the Tigers second-best prospect after the season by Baseball America.
- His combined regular-season and playoff numbers at Single A Jamestown and Single A West Michigan included a 3-0 record, 0.88 ERA, 41.0 innings pitched, 20 hits, eight runs, four earned runs, five walks and 57 strikeouts.
- Averaged a combined 1.1 walks and 12.5 strikeouts per nine innings.
- Was assigned to Jamestown after coming to terms with the Tigers on July 31...made his pro debut in a start on August 15 versus St. Catharines, tossing three scoreless innings and fanning four.
- Picked up his first win as a pro in his third outing on August 25 at Erie...pitched five frames and allowed one earned run while striking out five.
- Moved to West Michigan for a pair of regular-season outings prior to the playoffs.
- Won his final regular-season outing on September 5 versus South Bend, permitting three hits and one earned run in seven innings while striking out 12.
- Helped pitch the Whitecaps to the Midwest League title, winning a game in each of the two playoff rounds.

AMATEUR/COLLEGIATE CAREER

Went 10-4 with a 2.98 ERA in his collegiate action in 1998 for Fresno State, earning first-team All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association.

- Was a second-team All-America pick by Baseball America and garnered first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight season.
- Appeared in 17 games (16 starts) with one save, nine complete games, 123.2 innings, 37 walks and 156 strikeouts.
- Fanned 19 Grand Canyon batters in a 5-0 shutout in WAC Tournament play.
- Finished his career as the Bulldogs career strikeout leader with 477...was 33-15 with a 3.12 ERA in three years at Fresno with his 33 wins ranked second all-time at the school.

Walk Down Memory Lane

The 2000 Tigers were tops in the American League for fewest walks allowed, giving up 496 free passes while second-place Boston allowed 499. It marked the first time since 1961 that the Tigers staff paced the league in this category. The '61 squad had a lock on AL opponents, giving up the fewest walks in the league for the third straight season. Only the Atlanta Braves topped the 2000 Tigers, holding opponents to 484 walks on the season.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

Trammell and Whitaker Set AL Record

Former Tigers Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker, who played together from 1977-95, established an American League record in '95 with 1,918 appearances as teammates. Trammell and Whitaker, who played shortstop and second base, respectively, broke the old AL mark of 1,914 held by Kansas City third baseman George Brett and second baseman Frank White. The major league mark for appearances by two players as teammates is 2,015, held by third baseman Ron Santo and outfielder Billy Williams of the Chicago Cubs, who played together from 1960-73.

Sparky's Legacy Honored at Cooperstown

On June 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. On the all-time victory list, Anderson's 2,194 total wins ranks third behind only Hall of Famers John McGraw and Connie Mack. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage, which ranks 10th all-time.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is also the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises, to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues, and manage teams from both leagues to a World Series title.

TIGERS IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

TY COBB

CF, 1905-26

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1936

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/175

Born: 12/18/1886 in Narrows, GA

Full Name: Tyrus Raymond Cobb

Nickname: "The Georgia Peach"

Batted/Threw: L/R

Died: 7/17/61 in Atlanta, GA

Perhaps the greatest player in baseball history, there is little doubt that Ty Cobb, called a "Genius in Spikes," was the greatest competitor the game has ever seen.

- Received seven more votes than Babe Ruth when elected as one of the five original members of the Hall of Fame...garnered 98.2 percent of the vote, the highest percentage ever until Tom Seaver was elected with 98.8 percent in 1992.
- Owens the highest lifetime batting average (.367) in major league history.
- Major league record 4,191 career hits stood for almost 60 years and single-season major league record of 96 stolen bases in 1915 stood for nearly 50 years.
- Still holds the major league record for career runs scored (2,246).
- Also ranks second all-time in triples (295), fourth in doubles (724) and fourth in stolen bases (892)...his triples total is second only to Tiger teammate Sam Crawford.
- Batted .400 or better three times (.420, 1911; .409, 1912; .401, 1922), tied for most in major league history...one of just two players (Hornsby) who played their entire career after 1900 to accomplish the feat.
- Chalmers Award-winner (AL MVP) in 1911 after batting a career-high .420.
- From 1907-20, won the league batting title in 12 out of 13 seasons.
- Drove in more than 100 runs seven times, mostly during the dead-ball era, and from 1907-11, led the league in RBI in four of the five years.
- Captured the 1909 Triple Crown, pacing both major leagues in batting average (.377), home runs (9) and RBI (107), en route to leading the Tigers to the last of his three World Series appearances.
- Led the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- Following a 22-year career as a Tiger, including six seasons (1921-26) as player-manager, played his final two seasons as a member of the Philadelphia Athletics.
- Did not wear a uniform number as they were not used by the Tigers until the 1930s.

MICKEY COCHRANE

C, 1934-37

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1947

Ht./Wt.: 5-10/180

Born: 4/6/03 in Bridgewater, MA

Full Name: Gordon Stanley Cochrane

Nickname: "Black Mike"

Died: 6/28/62 in Lake Forest, IL

One of the finest backstops the game has ever produced, Mickey Cochrane took over a fifth-place Tiger club as player-manager in 1934 and immediately led Detroit to back-to-back American League pennants and its first World Championship in 1935.

- Named the 1934 league MVP after leading the Tigers to their first AL pennant in 25 years.
- The following season, took the Tigers to their first-ever World Series title, scoring the winning run in the bottom of the ninth in Game 6 to defeat the Chicago Cubs at Tiger Stadium.
- Of that title-clinching game, Cochrane later said, "It was my greatest day in baseball."
- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tiger manager for part of the following season, he never played again.
- Known as one of the best batsmen ever to play catcher, posting a lifetime .320 batting average and hitting better than .300 in a season nine times in his career.
- Acquired by the Tigers from the Philadelphia Athletics following the 1933 season in exchange for Johnny Pasek and $100,000 after taking part in three pennant-winners...helped the 1929 A's, regarded as one of the greatest teams in baseball history, to the World Series title.
- Also named AL MVP in 1928 with the Athletics...spent a total of nine seasons with the A's after coming up to the big leagues in 1925.
- Despite spending just four of his 13 major league seasons in a Detroit uniform, Cochrane entered the Hall of Fame in 1947 as a Tiger.
- Wore uniform No. 3 while playing for Detroit.

SAM CRAWFORD

RF, 1903-17

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1957

Ht./Wt.: 6-0/190

Born: 4/18/1880 in Wahoo, NE

Full Name: Samuel Earl Crawford

Nickname: "Wahoo Sam"

Batted/Threw: L/L

Died: 6/15/68 in Hollywood, CA

Although he spent most of his career in the shadows of the great Ty Cobb, his teammate in the Tigers outfield for 13 seasons, "Wahoo Sam" Crawford carved his niche in baseball history as its most prolific triples hitter ever.

- Led the league in three-baggers six times, once in the National League with Cincinnati and five times in the American League with Detroit...five times he hit more than 20 triples in a season en route to his career record of 312.
- A lifetime .309 hitter known as one of the hardest hitters of the dead-ball era.
- Led the American League in RBI three times, runs scored once and doubles once.
- Finished his career just 39 hits short of 3,000.
- Batted .314 and led the league with 104 RBI and a career-high 26 triples in 1914 and finished runner-up to Philadelphia's Eddie Collins for the Chalmers Award (AL MVP).
- Helped the Tigers to consecutive AL pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.
- His nickname derived from his hometown of Wahoo, NE.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame by the Veterans Committee in 1957.

CHARLIE GEHRINGER

2B, 1924-42

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1949

Ht./Wt.: 5-11/180

Born: 5/11/03 in Fowlerville, MI

Full Name: Charles Leonard Gehring

Nickname: "The Mechanical Man"

Died: 1/21/93 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

Known for his quiet efficiency, Michigan native Charlie Gehringer was not only the best fielding second baseman of his time, but he also hit for power and average. Ty Cobb, who managed the Tigers during Gehringer's first three seasons, called him, aside from Eddie Collins, "the greatest second baseman (he) ever saw."

- Batted over .300 in 13 of his 16 full seasons, had 200 or more hits seven times and posted a lifetime batting average of .320.
- Named the American League MVP in 1937 after hitting a career-high .371 to lead the league...finished runner-up to teammate Mickey Cochrane for the MVP award in 1934.
- In 1929, led the AL in eight categories including hits, runs, doubles, triples, stolen bases, games, putouts and fielding percentage.
- Hit 15 or more home runs in a season six times and had 100 or more RBI seven times.
- Drilled 60 doubles in 1936, a Tiger record for a lefthanded hitter.
- Batted .375 and handled 39 chances without an error in the 1935 World Series to help Detroit to the title.
- Also a part of AL pennant-winning Tiger ballclubs in 1934 and 1940.
- Had his uniform No. 2 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Hank Greenberg's No. 5 was retired.
- Served as the Tigers General Manager from 1951-53.

HANK GREENBERG

1B, 1930-46

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1956

Ht./Wt.: 6-3/210

Born: 1/1/11 in New York, NY

Full Name: Henry Benjamin Greenberg

Nickname: "Hammerin' Hank"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 9/4/86 in Beverly Hills, CA

A fearsome run producer and home run hitter, "Hammerin' Hank" Greenberg made the most of a career interrupted by four years of military service during World War II and another season lost to injury to capture two MVP awards and a pair of World Series titles.

- Rapped a Tiger-record 63 doubles, just four short of the major league mark, in 1934 in his second full season in the majors as the Tigers won their first pennant in 25 years.
- Unanimous selection as AL MVP in 1935 after leading the league with 39 homers and 170 RBI as the Tigers won their first World Series title, defeating the Chicago Cubs.
- Suffered a broken wrist just 12 games into the 1936 season after beginning the campaign batting .348 with 16 RBI.
- Drove in 183 runs the next year, one short of Lou Gehrig's 1931 league record.
- In 1938, chased Babe Ruth's 11-year-old single-season home run record (60) before ending the year with a league-best 58 longballs.
- Won AL MVP honors again in 1940, his last full season before entering the Army, as he batted a career-best .340 and led the league with 41 homers, 150 RBI and 50 doubles...carried Detroit to its sixth AL pennant.
- Returned from a four-year stint in the Army in July of 1945 and drilled a grand slam on the final day of the season to spur the Tigers back to the World Series...batted .304 with two homers and seven RBI to lead Detroit past Chicago for its second World Series title.
- Drove in more than 100 runs a total of seven times in his career and hit better than .300 in each of his first eight seasons, including high marks of .340 in 1940 and .337 in 1937.
- Posted a lifetime slugging percentage of .605, good for fifth-highest in ML history.
- Completed his brilliant career with one final season in Pittsburgh after being sold by the Tigers to the Pirates on January 18, 1947.
- Had his uniform No. 5 retired by the Tigers on June 12, 1983, the same day that Charlie Gehringer's No. 2 was retired.

HARRY HEILMANN

RF, 1914-29

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1952

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/195

Born: 8/3/1894 in San Francisco, CA

Full Name: Harry Edwin Heilmann

Nickname: "Slug"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 7/9/51 in Southfield, MI

Rated second only to Rogers Hornsby among righthanded hitters of his era, Harry Heilmann batted .390 or better four times in his career, including .403 in 1923, to capture a quartet of batting titles.

- Bettered the .400 mark (.403) in 1923 to lead the league, collecting 211 hits and driving in 114 runs...in all, batted .340 or better eight times.
- Led the AL in hits in 1921 with 237 after hitting .394 to win his first batting title...also won the league batting crown in 1923, 1925 and 1927.
- From 1921-29, drove in at least 100 runs in eight out of nine seasons...drilled at least 40 doubles in eight of his last 10 seasons as a player.
- In 1927, finished runner-up to the Yankees Lou Gehrig in American League MVP balloting after hitting .398 and winning his final batting title.
- His 1921 total of 139 RBI would have led the league, but Babe Ruth drove in 171 runs that season...three times he ranked second in the AL in slugging percentage behind Ruth.
- Was sold to the Cincinnati Reds on Oct. 14, 1929, where he played in 1930 and '32...batted .333 in 1930 with 19 homers, two off his career-best, and 91 RBI.
- After his playing career, broadcasted Tiger games on the radio from 1934-51.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously by the Veterans Committee in 1952.

TIGERS IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

HUGHIE JENNINGS

SS/MGR, 1907-20

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1945

Ht./Wt.: 5-8/165

Born: 4/2/1869 in Pittston, PA

Full Name: Hugh Ambrose Jennings

Nickname: "Hustling Hughie"

Batted/Threw: R/R

Died: 2/1/28 in Scranton, PA

Detroit's manager from 1907-1920, Jennings piloted teams which featured all-time greats Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Sam Crawford, and he led the Tigers to consecutive American League pennants in 1907, 1908 and 1909.

- An outstanding shortstop in his playing days, had his best years with the National League's Baltimore Orioles between 1893 and 1899...drove in more than 100 runs three times, batted .401 in 1896 and led the league in fielding four times.
- With Detroit, served as player-manager from 1907-1918, although he only appeared in a handful of games and had just nine at-bats in those 12 years...became full-time manager for his final two seasons in a Tiger uniform.
- Although his Tigers won three straight league titles, they lost in the World Series each time, twice to the Cubs and once to the Pirates.
- Elected to the Hall posthumously in 1945 by the Veterans Committee.

AL KALINE

RF, 1953-74

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1980

Ht./Wt.: 6-2/180

Born: 12/19/34 in Baltimore, MD

Full Name: Albert William Kaline

Batted/Threw: R/R

If any player defined the Tigers during the last half-century it was Al Kaline, and in 1980, he became just the 10th player ever elected to the Hall in his first year of eligibility. At the time of his retirement, Kaline and Ty Cobb were the only Tigers ever to play 20 or more seasons in a Detroit uniform.

- Runner-up for the AL MVP award both in 1955 and 1963, finishing second to Yankee catchers Yogi Berra in '55 and Elston Howard in '63...both seasons, despite the vote of the baseball writers, The Sporting News chose Kaline as its Player of the Year.
- Won the league's batting crown in 1955 by batting .340 in just his second full season in the majors...accomplished the feat at age 20, making him the youngest batting champion in American League history.
- Came back from a broken arm earlier in the season to bat .379 against the Cardinals in the 1968 World Series...had two home runs among his 11 hits in the series and drove in eight runs, furthering his reputation as a tremendous clutch performer.
- Selected to 18 All-Star Games over his career, including 15 out of 16 between 1955 and 1967 (selected to two games each season, 1959-61)...selected to the All-Star squad in 1964 and '67 but did not play due to injury.
- Hit .300 or better eight times and drilled 20 or more homers nine times.
- An outstanding defensive player renowned for his powerful arm, he captured 10 Gold Gloves, enjoyed a streak of 242 straight errorless games and played in 16 All-Star games without committing a miscue.
- Spent the 1974 season as a full-time DH and rapped his 3,000th career hit off the Orioles' Dave McNally that season, making him the first American Leaguer since Eddie Collins in 1925 to reach that milestone.
- Ended his career with 3,007 hits, breaking Al Simmons' 30-year-old AL record for hits by a righthanded batter.
- Also posted 399 career home runs while maintaining a .297 lifetime batting average.
- Had his familiar uniform No. 6 retired by the Tigers on August 17, 1980, making him the first Tiger ever to have his number retired.
- Has spent every year since 1976 in the Tigers television broadcast booth.

Hughie Jennings' Famous Yell

Hall of Famer and former Tiger skipper Hughie Jennings (1907-1920) was famous for his distinguished "Eeeyah" yell. Jennings, who managed teams led by Hall of Fame players such as Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford and Harry Heilmann, began to use this act after being ejected from a game and fined for using a policeman's whistle while coaching at third base.

TIGERS IN THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

GEORGE KELL

3B, 1946-52

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1983

Ht./Wt.: 5-9/175

Born: 8/23/22 in Swifton, AR

Full Name: George Clyde Kell

Batted/Threw: R/R

The American League's foremost third baseman in the 1940s and '50s, George Kell is one of just eight third basemen enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

- Won the 1949 American League batting crown with a .343 average, nosing out Boston's Ted Williams on the final day of the season.
- Selected to 10 All-Star games, including eight straight between 1947 and 1954.
- Batted over .300 nine times and led the AL in hits in 1950 and 1951...also led the league in doubles both seasons.
- Was acquired by the Tigers on May 18, 1946, from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for outfielder Barney McCoskey.
- In seven seasons with the Tigers from 1946-52, he batted below .300 just once, 1952 when he was traded to the Red Sox just 39 games into the season.
- Known for sure hands and a strong, accurate arm, he led AL third basemen in fielding percentage seven times.
- Wore uniform No. 21 from 1946-50 and No. 7 in 1951 and '52 with the Tigers.
- Was included in an eight-player trade on June 3, 1952, in which he, Dizzy Trout, Hoot Evers and Johnny Lipon were sent from the Tigers to Boston in exchange for Johnny Pesky, Walt Dropo, Bill Wight, Fred Hatfield and Don Lenhardt.
- Also played for the White Sox and Orioles before retiring in 1957.
- Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1983 by the Veterans Committee.
- Began broadcasting full-time after retiring as a player and, except for 1964, called Tiger baseball every year from 1959-96...retired from broadcasting in January, 1997.

HEINIE MANUSH

LF, 1923-27

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1964

Ht./Wt.: 6-1/200

Born: 7/20/01 in Tuscumbia, AL

Full Name: Henry Emmett Manush

Batted/Threw: L/L

Died: 5/12/71 in Sarasota, FL

A lifetime .330 hitter, outfielder Heinie Manush played for six teams over 17 seasons but entered the Hall as a Detroit Tiger after playing his first four years there.

- Played his first three seasons in the big leagues for manager Ty Cobb and won his lone batting title in 1926 under Cobb's tutelage, batting .378...overtook Babe Ruth by going six-for-nine in a doubleheader on the last day of the season.
- In 1928, his second season with the St. Louis Browns, collected 241 hits, just 16 short of George Sisler's 1920 major league record...again batted .378 but lost the batting title by a single point to Washington's Goose Goslin.
- Topped the 200-hit mark four times in his career...also posted 40 or more doubles five times, leading the league in 1928 and '29, and topped the AL with 17 triples in 1933.
- Finished as runner-up to Jimmy Foxx for the batting title in 1933 after hitting .336...was selected to his only All-Star Game in 1934.
- In 7,654 career at-bats, fanned just 345 times (never more than 30 times in a season).
- Was traded from Detroit to the St. Louis Browns on Dec. 2, 1927, along with Lu Blue in exchange for Chick Galloway, Elam Vangilder and Harry Rice.
- Elected to the Hall in 1964 by the Veterans Committee.

HAL NEWHOUSER

LHP, 1939-53

Elected to Hall of Fame: 1992

Nickname: "Prince Hal"

Batted/Threw: L/L

Born: 5/20/21 in Detroit, MI

Died: 11/10/98 in Bloomfield Hills, MI

Full Name: Harold Newhouser

The only pitcher in major league history to win back-to-back league MVP awards, Hal Newhouser, Detroit born-and-raised, was one of the most dominant pitchers of the 1940s.

- Captured his first MVP award in 1944 after leading the majors with a 29-9 record and 187 strikeouts...his 29 victories tied George Mullin's 1909 club record.
- Named league MVP again the following season, becoming just the third AL pitcher to lead the entire major leagues in wins (25), strikeouts (212) and ERA (1.81) all in the same season....his 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched also led the majors.
- Spent 15 of his 17 big-league seasons in a Tiger uniform and during that span was a seven-time All-Star, led the AL in victories four times, led the league in strikeouts and ERA twice each, and hurled back-to-back 300-inning seasons in 1944 and '45.
- From 1944-48, won 20 or more games in four of the five years and rode his explosive fastball to a total of 118 wins, 107 complete games and 993 strikeouts...also allowed just 40 home runs and twice posted an ERA under 2.00 during that span.
- Retired in 1955 after two seasons as a reliever with Cleveland.
- On July 27, 1997, he became the fourth Tiger to have his uniform number retired by the club (No. 16).
- Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1992 by the Veterans Committee.

Mueller Goes 19-Plus in No-Decision

Les Mueller must have had a tired arm after July 21, 1945, the day the Tigers played the longest game in club history. Detroit played the Philadelphia Athletics to a 24-inning, 1-1 tie in a game which was called because of darkness. Mueller, who was in the midst of his only full season in the major leagues, pitched the first 19.2 innings of the ballgame and surrendered the Athletics' only run in the fourth inning. Detroit scored its lone run in the seventh inning of the game which still stands as the longest tie in American League history. That season, Mueller ended up with a 6-8 record and went the distance six times.

Tigers Dominate 1968 AL MVP Balloting

Led by American League MVP and Cy Young Award-winner Denny McLain, the 1968 Detroit Tigers won the third of the franchise's four World Series titles, defeating Bob Gibson and the St. Louis Cardinals, four games-to-three.

McLain, who easily won the AL MVP award that year by 119 points in balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America, was one of three Tigers to finish in the top four in the voting. Catcher Bill Freehan was the runner-up to McLain and outfielder Willie Horton finished fourth. In all, seven Tiger players received votes for the MVP including Dick McAuliffe (finished seventh), Jim Northrup (13th), Norm Cash (T-23rd) and Mickey Stanley (T-25th).

Thanks Two Million, Tiger Fans

The Tigers home attendance went past the two million mark for the seventh time since 1959 this past season, as 2,533,752 fans visited Comerica Park. When home attendance passed the two million mark on August 23, it marked the second-fastest that the team reached the milestone, surpassed only by the 1984 World Series champion season.

The Tigers have drawn over one million fans at home in each of the past 36 seasons, the lone American League team to do so. Only the Cardinals (37 years) and the Dodgers (55 years) have longer streaks. The Dodgers drew over one million fans in their last 13 seasons in Brooklyn, and all 42 years in Los Angeles. In addition, the Tigers topped the one hundred million mark in franchise history in 1994.

The 2000 season saw a 25% increase in attendance over 1999, as the Tigers had the second-largest one-year increase in the American League, topped only by the Chicago White Sox, and the fourth-largest increase in the majors behind San Francisco and Cincinnati.

Player/Managers Meet for Final Time

The 1934 World Series in which the Tigers played the Cardinals was the final World Series in which both opposing managers were also players. That year, second baseman/manager Frankie Frisch's Cardinals defeated catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane's Tigers four games to three. Cochrane had already been awarded with the MVP trophy for the '34 regular season, making him and former Cleveland skipper and shortstop Lou Boudreau (1948) the only American League player/managers ever to be named league MVP.

The Year of Motown Champions, 1935

In 1935, catcher/manager Mickey Cochrane led the Detroit Tigers to their first-ever World Series title as they defeated the Chicago Cubs, four games to two.

Not only was 1935 a great year for the Tigers, but it was also a great one for the entire city of Detroit, known that year as the "City of Champions." The Detroit Lions won the National Football League championship and the National Hockey League's Detroit Red Wings won the Stanley Cup. Detroit also had a minor league hockey team, called the Olympics, win its league championship.

Horton Honored with Statue, Number Retirement

On July 15, 2000, the Tigers honored both the on-field and civic contributions of hometown hero Willie Horton. The pre-game festivities celebrating Horton's baseball career and community accomplishments culminated with the unveiling of a stainless steel statue of Horton in action that joins the likenesses of five other Tigers greats that line the wall above left field at Comerica Park. In addition, Horton's #23 jersey was retired. The day also featured the creation of a Detroit Tigers Willie Horton Scholarship Fund of the Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan, a yearly $5,000 grant from the Tigers that will be awarded to a deserving student at Horton's alma mater, Northwestern High School in Detroit.

Following is the text that appears on Horton's statue at Comerica Park:

WILLIE HORTON
"WILLIE THE WONDER"

BORN OCTOBER 18, 1942 ARNO, VIRGINIA

Tigers Remember Fallen Family

The Tigers suffered the sudden and tragic deaths of two former players in 2000, as both Aurelio Rodriguez and Andujar Cedenno were killed in car accidents. Rodriguez, the Tigers star third baseman from 1971-79 and a beloved and devoted member of the city's Hispanic community, was struck by a vehicle on September 21 in Detroit at age 52. Rodriguez was a role model for countless Detroit-area youth, frequently stopping by Little League games to offer advice and tips. His impact on the Hispanic community and baseball fans of all ages was evident as hundreds of mourners packed a memorial service on October 3. Community leaders are working to establish permanent honors in Rodriguez' name, including a monument from the Hispanic Police Association and a scholarship in his name organized by the Hispanic Business Alliance.

Former Tigers infielder Andujar Cedenno was 31 when he was killed in a car accident in late October in the Dominican Republic. Cedenno was a member of the Atlantic League champion Nashua Pride, and played parts of seven seasons in the majors with Houston, San Diego and Detroit.

The Tigers organization also lost two of its family members in late 1999. Tigers scout Larry Bearnarth passed away on December 31, 1999, the victim of a heart attack at age 58. On December 27, 1999, young Tigers prospect Asdrubal Infante, 19, was shot and killed in Venezuela. Infante had just completed his first professional season, going 3-0 with a 1.10 ERA for the Gulf Coast League Tigers in 1999.

Office Phone: (313) 471-2114
Office Fax: (313) 471-2138

Guidelines for Media

Credentials

Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies.

- Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Tigers on a regular basis...these credentials will be laminated and must be worn in a visible manner at all times.
- Those not qualifying for season credentials will be considered for daily access.
- All requests for credentials must be made in writing on the letterhead of the representative organization.
- Deadline for requests are as follows: Season - March 6; Daily - one working day prior to the game requested.
- No spouses, guests or children of members of the media will be issued credentials or allowed in the press box.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs on the field or in the clubhouse...all requests should be made through the Tigers Public Relations Department with any violation resulting in immediate revocation of the credential.
- Daily credentials will be available at the designated press gate located on Montcalm Avenue three-and-a-half hours before the scheduled first pitch.
- No credentials will be mailed.

Media Entrance

Media may enter Comerica Park through the press gate behind home plate.

Parking

A limited number of parking spaces will be set aside for use by media on a daily basis. Please call the Tigers Public Relations office for more information.

Press Box

Comerica Park broadcast and press booths are located on the lower suite level behind home plate. Access to press areas is by ramp, media elevator and stairs (to the third-base side of home).

- No photography is permitted in the press box without prior approval from the Tiger Public Relations Department.
- A workroom, into which the press elevator opens on the lower suite level, is provided for media use directly behind the press box. Please ask Tigers Public Relations for assistance regarding any photocopying or faxing that you may need.
- When appropriate, seating charts will be posted, and some seats will be permanently reserved for the regular season. However, please contact a Tigers Public Relations representative for assistance with seating location.
- The Comerica Park press box includes a designated, partitioned area for electronic media located on the first-base side of the box.
- A number of credit card/collect telephones are available for media use in the main press box and press work room.
- Game information packages will be available in the press box approximately three hours before the game. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and post-game notes will be distributed in the press box, normally about 15 minutes after the game's final pitch.

Clubhouses

Entrance to both clubhouses is on the Comerica Park service level, accessible by media elevator, ramp or stairs. The Tigers clubhouse is located behind third base, while the visitors clubhouse is behind first base.

- Pre- and post-game access rules are those issued by Major League Baseball.
- All still photography and pre-game video photography is prohibited in the Tigers clubhouse without prior consent from the Tigers Public Relations Department.

MEDIA INFORMATION AND GUIDELINES

Pregame Field Access

Only media with credentials permitting field access will be allowed on the Comerica Park playing field. All media must clear the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

In-Game Field Access/Photo Wells

Only those with credentials expressly permitting in-game field access will be allowed in the photo wells. Two photo wells are located adjacent to each dugout, one on the infield side and one on the outfield side of each.

- In-game access is limited to still photographers and rightsholders broadcasting the game. Enter and exit the field via the home plate entrance only.
- All photographers must be inside the photo wells at all times.
- While the game is in progress, photographers on the field may only change location between innings. Those photographers on the field who change location at any other time without prior approval from the Tigers Public Relations Department are subject to immediate revocation of credentials.
- The installation and placement of parabolic microphones and remote equipment is limited to camera wells and must not interfere or block house video. All equipment must remain in the wells and not extend out toward the playing field.
- No ball — in-play or dead — should be handled by anyone other than a ballboy.

Media Hospitality

Media hospitality is in the dining room, located in the back of the press box. There is a $6.00 charge per meal.

- Open for meal service to accredited media members two hours before first pitch.

Media Guides

Media guides of the Tigers, Major League Baseball and other teams are available in the press box from Tigers Public Relations personnel.

Ernie Harwell

The Hall-of-Fame voice of Tigers baseball continues play-by-play duties on the Tigers Radio Network in 2001.

- The 2001 season will mark his 63rd year of broadcasting and his 42nd calling Tigers baseball...it marks his seventh decade as a broadcaster, making him the only broadcaster to do so.
- Over that span Harwell has missed only two broadcasts, making his consecutive games streaks longer than Lou Gehrig's and Cal Ripken Jr's.
- Since 1960, the only season Harwell has not covered Tigers games on radio or television was 1992, when he was a guest broadcaster for the California Angels and CBS Radio's "Game of the Week."
- Was originally the Tigers radio play-by-play voice from 1960-91...broadcasted Tigers television from 1993-98.
- Received the Ford C. Frick Award in 1981, presented by the Baseball Hall of Fame for broadcasting excellence...was the fifth recipient of the honor...became the first active broadcaster to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown.
- Was named to the National Sportscasters Hall of Fame in 1989 by a unanimous vote...that same year he was inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame...has been named Michigan Sportscaster of the Year 17 times.
- The 1998 season marked his 50th anniversary of calling major league baseball action (8/4/48).
- Began his career in radio in 1940 as a nightly sports commentator on Atlanta's WSB Radio...prior to that, he had served as a correspondent at The Sporting News and worked in the sports department of the Atlanta Constitution.
- Served four years in the United States Marine Corps during World War II...was editor of the Corps' Leatherneck Magazine during his tour of duty.
- Returned to Atlanta after his military service and broadcast games of the Southern Association's Atlanta Crackers baseball club...during his time in Atlanta he also worked The Masters golf tournament and Georgia Tech football...covered the premier of 'Gone With the Wind' for Life magazine.
- Was named play-by-play broadcaster for the Dodgers in 1948, his first major league appointment...was at the microphone for Bobby Thomson's historic playoff homer in 1951, marking the first coast-to-coast telecast of a major sporting event.
- After two seasons with the Dodgers, he moved on to play-by-play work for the Giants and Orioles before coming to Detroit in 1960.
- Has worked with CBS Radio, serving as play-by-play man for Saturday afternoon "Game of the Week" and play-off broadcasts.
- Was the voice of the first American League Championship Series in 1969 on NBC Radio...has aired national broadcasts of three World Series and two All-Star Games.
- Football credits include coverage of the New York Giants, Baltimore Colts and Brooklyn Dodgers pro clubs and Yale, Pittsburgh, Boston College, Fordham and Michigan State on the collegiate level.
- An accomplished songwriter, he has had more than 50 of his pieces recorded by artists such as Mitch Ryder, B.J. Thomas and Barbara Lewis.

Harwell Adds Radio Hall of Fame Induction to Baseball Hall's Honor

Legendary announcer Ernie Harwell, who has called play-by-play for Tigers baseball since 1960 and returned to the radio booth in 1999 for the first time since 1991, was honored during the 1998 off-season by induction into the Radio Hall of Fame in a ceremony in Chicago. The 1998 class of inductees also included singer Bing Crosby, talk show hosts Tom and Ray Magliozzi of National Public Radio, disc jockey Dick Biondi, urban radio pioneer Tom Joyner and radio sales executive Ralph Guild.

In 1981, Harwell received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the National Baseball Hall of Fame for excellence in broadcasting.

Harwell, who began his radio career in 1940 as a nightly sports commentator on Atlanta's WSB Radio, is also a member of the National Sportscasters Hall of Fame and the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame. He has been broadcasting baseball since August of 1948, when he started calling play-by-play for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

TIGERS BROADCASTERS

Jim Price

A member of the Tigers 1968 World Series champions, Jim Price begins his ninth season overall on Tigers broadcasts and his third full season on the Tigers Radio Network.

- Originally joined Frank Beckmann on the Tigers radio broadcasts in June, 1998, replacing Lary Sorensen...had spent the first part of that season as a feature reporter on FOX Sports Net's pre-game and "Tigers Weekly" programs.
- Began his Tigers broadcasting career on PASS cable telecasts in 1993, serving as color commentator...broadcast Tigers games on cable for five seasons.
- Was also the third man in the booth during the Tigers over-the-air broadcasts on WKBD-TV from 1995-97...filled in for a handful of games as play-by-play announcer in 1997.
- Played five major league seasons, all with the Tigers...played 64 games, 42 of them at catcher, for the 1968 team that defeated St. Louis in the Fall Classic.
- Was purchased by the Tigers in April of 1967 after seven minor league seasons with the Pirates.
- A native of Harrisburg, PA, he was a three-sport star at Hershey (PA) High School...refused a number of college football scholarship offers to sign with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1960.
- Other broadcast credits include work as play-by-play man on Chicago White Sox cable telecasts, color commentary for ESPN college baseball and anchoring weekend sports on Detroit's WJBK-TV.
- Assists in the Tigers front office efforts, focusing on baseball participation camps.

Dan Dickerson

After making his broadcasting debut for the Tigers during the 2000 season, veteran Michigan sports announcer Dan Dickerson is back again for the 2001 season of Tigers Baseball.

- Dickerson previously worked for five years with former Tigers flagship WJR-AM, in a variety of roles.
- Served as co-host of "WJR Sportswrap," a nightly call-in show.
- Worked as sideline reporter and substitute play-by-play announcer for University of Michigan football for WJR and spent two seasons as play-by-play announcer for University of Michigan basketball...was formerly WJR's morning sports anchor.
- Spent six-and-a-half years with Detroit's WWJ-AM from 1988-95, hosting a post-game call-in show following Detroit Lions broadcasts and serving as a sideline reporter for University of Michigan football.
- Also anchored WWJ's news and sports on the weekends and served as general assignment news reporter.
- Has won several awards from the Associated Press including "Best Live Broadcast, Sporting Event" (1996 and 1998) and "Best Coverage of Breaking News" and "Best Sports Feature" (1994).
- Began his sports broadcasting career at WCUZ Radio in Grand Rapids, MI, working for the station from 1982-88.
- Broadcast play-by-play for high school football and basketball for WCUZ, anchored afternoon drive sports and served in the station's news department as reporter and assignment editor/assistant news director.
- Started in radio in 1980 with WMAX radio in Grand Rapids, covering general assignment news and anchoring afternoon newscasts.
- Earned his bachelor of arts degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1980.

TIGERS BROADCASTERS

Frank Beckmann

Enters his third season of providing Tigers play-by-play in the UPN-50 television booth.

- Is a veteran of nearly 30 years of service in Detroit broadcasting.
- Serves as Morning Sports Anchor at WJR Radio in addition to his Tigers duties... was the station's Sports Director from 1979-95.
- Prior to broadcasting Tigers television, Beckmann was play-by-play announcer on the Tigers Radio Network from 1995-98.
- Began his career as a news reporter for WJR Radio in 1972.
- Created and hosted WJR's "Sportswrap" program from 1981-95, which became and remained the highest-rated sports talk show in the history of Detroit radio.
- Worked radio play-by-play and color for 11 seasons on Detroit Lions football broadcasts (1978-88)...was also color analyst for the Detroit Pistons of the NBA during the 1980-81 campaign.
- Filled in for a Detroit Red Wings (NHL) playoff broadcast, making him the only broadcaster in history to work games for each of the four major league teams in Detroit.
- His football work earned acclaim in 1985 from both wire services and the Detroit News as "Best Play-by-Play."
- Recently completed his 20th season as play-by-play man for University of Michigan football.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

Bruce Fields

Toledo Manager

Bruce Fields takes over the managerial duties at Triple A Toledo after spending the last four seasons at the helm at Single A West Michigan. The Midwest League's Manager of the Year in 2000 is in his seventh season as a minor league manager. Fields guided the Whitecaps to either a first or second place in seven of the eight halves he managed.

In 1998, Fields guided the West Michigan Whitecaps to the Midwest League title, and was named winner of the Dwight Lowry Award as the Tigers Player Development Man of the Year. In 1997, Fields led the Whitecaps to the best record in minor league baseball. Under Fields' direction, the Whitecaps owned the best winning percentage (.646) in minor league baseball over the 1997-98 seasons.

Fields spent the 1995 and 1996 campaigns with the Jamestown Jammers of the Single A New York-Penn League. He began his managerial career after coaching at Double A London for one year and at Triple A Toledo for two seasons.

The former outfielder played 14 years as a professional after being drafted by the Tigers in 1978, including three stints in the major leagues. Fields spent time with Detroit in 1986 and with Seattle in 1988 and 1989.

In the minors, Fields won three batting titles, one coming while playing at the Double A level and two at the Triple A level.

Luis Pujols

Erie Manager

Luis Pujols assumes the managerial duties at the Tigers new Double A affiliate in Erie after spending the last eight seasons as a coach on Felipe Alou's staff in Montreal. Pujols served as the Expos bench coach the past two season after spending his first six seasons as the first base coach in charge of the catchers.

Pujols joined the Montreal organization as a player-coach with Triple A Indianapolis in 1987. In 1988, he assumed the duties of minor league catching instructor, a post he held until joining the Expos coaching staff in 1993.

His stint as the manager of Escogido in the Dominican Winter League during 1994-95 is his only past managerial experience as he enters the 2001 season.

Played 15 seasons professionally after signing with the Astros in 1973 as a catcher. Appeared with Houston (1977-83), Kansas City (1984) and Texas (1985) during his nine seasons in the major leagues. Pujols appeared in the National League Championship Series in 1980 and the Division Series in 1981 while with the Astros.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

Kevin Bradshaw

Lakeland Manager

Kevin Bradshaw, the 2000 Dwight Lowry Award winner as the Tigers Player Development Man of the Year, assumes the managerial duties at Single A Lakeland as he enters his eighth year as a manager in the Tigers system.

Under his direction in 2000, the GCL Tigers finished in second place in the Eastern Division with a record of 34-26. Bradshaw led Oneonta to within a single game of the New York-Penn League playoffs in 1999 in its first year as a Detroit affiliate.

Bradshaw has spent his entire baseball career with the Detroit organization, managing for seven seasons, coaching for five seasons and playing four years as a Tigers farmhand. He began his coaching career in 1990 with the Double A London squad when the team went on to win the Eastern League title. During the next four seasons Bradshaw coached four different teams; Bristol in 1991, Toledo in 1992, Lakeland in 1993 and Trenton in 1994.

As a player Bradshaw excelled defensively, working his way up to the Triple A level before a torn achilles tendon prompted him to retire. Prior to his retirement, he played four seasons in the minor leagues, compiling a .241 lifetime average.

First Night Game in Detroit in 1948

Tiger Stadium, then known as Briggs Stadium, hosted its first-ever night game on June 15, 1948, as 54,480 fans watched Hal Newhouser and the Tigers defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 4-1. The eight light towers were turned on at 9:29 p.m., and were comprised of 1,458 incandescent bulbs. The stadium thus became the last in the American League to install a lighting system. The last park in the entire major leagues to install lights was Wrigley Field, home of the Chicago Cubs, which waited until 1988 before it began hosting night games.

In comparison to the artificial light that shone that night at Briggs Stadium, Comerica Park's 16 light standards produce over 1.3 million watts of light, with the five-story outfield structures holding just 75 bulbs each at over 20 inches in diameter.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

Gary Green

Oneonta Manager

Gary Green returns to Single A Oneonta for his second season as the manager, his fourth season overall in the Tigers organization. Last season, Oneonta finished fifth in the McNamara Division of the New York-Penn League with a 35-41 record.

In his first season as a manager in 1999, Green led the rookie Gulf Coast League Tigers to a third-place finish in the Northern Division, four games out of first place.

Green joined the Tigers organization in 1997, working as a coach at Single A Jamestown for the final month of the season. He then spent his first full year with the organization in 1998, coaching at Single A Lakeland.

Originally drafted as a shortstop by the San Diego Padres in 1984, Green played in the Padres organization from 1985-89. During the 1990 and 1991 seasons, Green played in the Texas Rangers system, and he concluded his professional career with the Cincinnati Reds, playing in their organization from 1992-95.

Green, who was originally drafted out of high school by the San Francisco Giants but elected instead to go to college, played four years at Oklahoma State University and was the starting shortstop for Team USA in the 1984 Olympic Games.

Howard Bushong

GCL Tigers Manager

Howard Bushong joins the Tigers organization to serve as the manager of the Gulf Coast League Tigers after managing the Arizona League Padres in San Diego's organization during the 2000 season.

Prior to his only season with the Padres organization, Bushong was the head coach of Southwest Texas State's baseball program. While at Southwest Texas State, he led the Bobcats to Southland Conference regular season championships in 1996 and 1997, to conference tournament titles in 1997 and 1999, and into the NCAA Regionals in 1997.

Before assuming the head coaching duties at Southwest Texas State, he served as the pitching coach at the University of Texas from 1991-93.

Kaline Wins Batting Title at Age 20

In 1955, Hall-of-Famer Al Kaline had one of the best seasons of his career at the tender age of 20. That season, he became the youngest man ever to win the American League batting crown - besting the immortal Ty Cobb by one day - and took the title in the AL by a whopping 21 points with a career-best .340 batting average. In fact, his batting average led the entire major leagues, ending up two points better than the Phillies Richie Ashburn, who won the NL crown. Kaline also hit 27 homers, drove in 102 runs and registered a career-high 200 hits that year. He wound up second in the league MVP balloting, finishing 17 points behind Yankee catcher Yogi Berra.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

Joe Boever

Lakeland Pitching Coach

Former Detroit Tiger Joe Boever returns for his second season as the pitching coach at Single A Lakeland. He spent the 1999 campaign in the same position at Single A West Michigan, his first as a professional coach.

As a player Boever appeared in a combined 941 games at the minor and major league levels in a career that spanned 16 pro seasons. He retired after the 1997 season.

Boever was acquired by the Tigers late in the 1993 season, and he also spent the 1994 and 1995 seasons with Detroit. In 1994, he recorded his best season in the majors, posting a career-high nine wins against two losses to go with a 3.98 ERA.

A veteran of six other major league teams (besides Detroit) including St. Louis, Atlanta, Philadelphia, Houston, Oakland and Pittsburgh, Boever led the NL with 81 appearances for the Astros in 1992. He also posted a career-best 21 saves for Atlanta in 1989.

In his major league career, Boever compiled a 34-45 record with 49 saves and a 3.93 ERA.

Basilio Cabrera

Lakeland Coach

Basilio Cabrera enters his 17th season in the Detroit minor league system. He played as a Tiger farmhand for eight years (1985-92) and the upcoming season marks his ninth as a minor league coach.

Cabrera returns for his second season as a coach at Single A Lakeland. Prior to joining Lakeland last season, he served as coach for the Gulf Coast Tigers from 1997-99.

In 1993, Cabrera began his coaching career with Single A Bristol. Since then he has spent a season each with Single A Fayetteville, the Gulf Coast Tigers and Lakeland, before returning to the Gulf Coast League in 1997.

As a player, Cabrera enjoyed three seasons (1987-89) in which he collected a total of 113 stolen bases, highlighted by the 1989 season, when he swiped 45 bases. He played Double A ball in each of his last three active seasons as a player and retired following the 1992 campaign.

Leon "Bull" Durham

Toledo Coach

Leon "Bull" Durham joins the Tigers organization as a coach for Triple A Toledo for the upcoming season.

The last five seasons Durham has served as a coach in the Anaheim Angels organization. Durham was a coach with Triple A Edmonton the past two seasons, and previously he was a coach with Triple A Vancouver in 1997-98 and with Single A Lake Elsinore during the 1996 season.

Durham played 10 seasons in the major leagues with St. Louis (1980, 1989), the Chicago Cubs (1981-88) and Cincinnati (1998). He finished his major league career with a .277 batting average and 147 home runs.

Durham belted 20-or-more home runs in five of his seasons, including a career-high 27 home runs during the 1987 season. He belted two home runs during the National League Championship Series in 1984 as the Cubs lost to San Diego in five games. He was selected to the National League All-Star team twice in his career, 1982 and 1983. Durham was named to The Sporting News' Silver Slugger team following the 1982 season after he batted a career-high .312 with 22 home runs.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

Glenn Ezell

Roving Catching Instructor

Glenn Ezell, the 1999 Dwight Lowry Award winner as the Tigers Player Development Man of the Year, returns to the Tigers organization for his sixth consecutive season and his fourth season as the club's roving catching instructor. Ezell spent the second half of the 2000 season as the manager at Triple A Toledo, replacing Dave Anderson as Anderson resigned to become the head coach of the University of Memphis baseball program.

He began the 1997 season managing Toledo, but left the team two months into the season to undergo heart surgery. Ezell returned to action in 1998.

With more than 25 years of coaching and managing experience, Ezell brings a wealth of baseball knowledge to the Tigers farm system. He has also coached on the major league level, most recently serving as Detroit's bench coach and bullpen coach in 1996.

Ezell played 10 seasons in the minor leagues. Originally signed by the New York Mets in 1966, Ezell went on to lead all Carolina League catchers in fielding percentage (.990), putouts (842) and assists (87) in 1967.

Joe Georger

West Michigan Pitching Coach

Joe Georger returns as the pitching coach at Single A West Michigan for the second season. The 2001 season marks his seventh season in the Tigers organization.

Prior to splitting the 1999 season as the pitching coach between Double A Jacksonville and Single A Lakeland, Georger was the pitching coach for Lakeland in 1997-98 and the Gulf Coast League Tigers in 1995-96.

Georger has been a part of professional baseball since 1979, as a player for five seasons (1979-83) and as a coach for the past 17 seasons (1984-present).

The Birmingham (MI) Seaholm High graduate was drafted by Seattle in the 13th round of the 1979 draft after graduating from the University of Kentucky. He pitched in the minors until becoming a minor league pitching coach in the Seattle system in 1984. Georger later served as a scout and was a coach in the Angels farm system from 1989-94 before joining the Tigers organization.

Jeff Jones

Toledo Pitching Coach

Jeff Jones returns to Triple A Toledo for his second consecutive season as pitching coach. He joined the Tigers coaching staff September 7 as the bullpen coach as Lance Parrish shifted to the bench coach after Bob Melvin came down with an illness. Jones spent the final month of the 1998 season and the entire 1999 season as Detroit's major league bullpen coach.

In all, Jones has been a coach in the Tigers organization since 1989, and he also played two seasons in the Tigers system. Jones spent both the 1997 and 1998 season as Toledo's pitching coach, as well as in 1990 and 1993-94.

Jones, who was also the Tigers major league bullpen coach in 1995, was pitching coach at Double A London in 1991-92 and at Double A Jacksonville in 1996. He started his coaching career as the pitching coach for Single A Fayetteville during the 1989 season.

A righthanded pitcher who was Oakland's 13th pick in the June 1977 draft, Jones spent parts of five seasons from 1980-84 on the major league level with the A's. In 1981, Jones went 4-1 with a 3.39 ERA and three saves in 33 appearances for the West Division champions.

After his release from Oakland following the 1984 season, he was signed by the Tigers as a minor league free agent in January of 1985 and retired in 1987.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

Rafael Landestoy

Roving Infield Instructor

Rafael Landestoy returns to the Tigers organization for his second season as the roving infield instructor.

For the first half of the 1999 campaign, Landestoy served as the Diamondbacks outfield and baserunning coordinator, and for the second half of the season he was the first base coach and hitting instructor for the club's Arizona League entry. In 1998, he was the Diamondbacks outfield and baserunning coordinator.

Landestoy has previously worked with six different organizations during his 15-year coaching career, making stops at the major league and minor league levels including a stint as manager of the St. Lucie Mets in 1994-95, when he compiled a record of 132-138.

Landestoy's other coaching experience includes serving as a major league coach for the New York Mets in 1996, first base coach for the Montreal Expos in 1989, and major league infield and first base coach for the New York Yankees in 1986.

A middle infielder, Landestoy played eight major league campaigns for Los Angeles, Cincinnati and Houston. His 1980 season with the Astros was his best as he appeared in 149 games, batted .247 and logged 23 stolen bases as Houston reached the National League Championship Series. He also played in the 1977 World Series with the Dodgers.

Matt Martin

Erie Coach

Matt Martin returns for his fifth season in the Tigers organization and fourth as a coach at the Double A level. Martin served as a coach with the Tigers former Double A affiliate in Jacksonville the past three seasons.

After beginning his coaching career with the Tigers as a roving instructor in 1997, Martin took over as manager at Single A Jamestown at mid-season after the untimely death of Dwight Lowry. In 1998, Martin moved into his current role at the Double A level.

Originally drafted as a shortstop by Cincinnati, Martin played in the Reds organization from 1991-94. In 1995, he became a coach in the Cincinnati system with Billings (Rookie) as the club won the first- and second-half Pioneer League titles. The following season Martin managed the Billings club, finishing with a 23-49 record.

Martin attended Lubbock Christian University as well as Texas Tech University.

Jon Matlack

Roving Pitching Instructor

The 2000 season marks John Matlack's sixth season as a coach in the Detroit organization, his fifth in his current role as the roving pitching instructor.

In 1996, Matlack served as pitching coach for the major league Tigers, his first coaching assignment at the big league level, before being reassigned late in the season. He was named roving pitching instructor in 1997.

From 1988-95, Matlack served as a minor league pitching coach for the Chicago White Sox and San Diego Padres, spending 1995 with Triple A Las Vegas.

A lefthanded pitcher, Matlack enjoyed a 13-year big league career with the New York Mets and Texas Rangers. He was voted the NL Rookie of the Year in 1972 and was a three-time All-Star (1974-76).

In 1973 with the Mets, Matlack tied an NLCS record for fewest hits allowed in a game when he fired a two-hit shutout against the Reds. The Mets advanced to the World Series against Oakland where Matlack made three appearances with a 2.16 ERA.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

Steve McCatty

Erie Pitching Coach

Steve McCatty returns for his third consecutive season as pitching coach at the Double A level and his sixth in the Detroit farm system. McCatty served as the Tigers former Double A affiliate Jacksonville's pitching coach from 1999-2000. He was the pitching coach at Triple A Toledo for the second half of the 1999 season after Dan Warthen was named the Tigers major league pitching coach.

McCatty coached at Single A West Michigan for the 1997 and 1998 campaigns before moving to Jacksonville.

In 1996, McCatty made his debut in the coaching profession at the Tigers former Single A affiliate, Visalia. Prior to the 1996 campaign, he had spent 1989-91 in the broadcast booth, two of those seasons broadcasting Oakland Athletics games and one as an ESPN broadcaster.

A righthanded pitcher, McCatty's playing career lasted from 1977-1988, during which he spent the majority of the time with Oakland. Primarily a starter, he enjoyed his best season in 1981, when he compiled a 14-7 record with four shutouts and a 2.33 ERA.

Bill Monbouquette

Oneonta Pitching Coach

Former Tiger Bill Monbouquette, an 11-year major league pitcher and a four-time All-Star, returns for his second season as pitching coach at Single A Oneonta.

Since his retirement in 1968, Monbouquette has spent the past 32 years as a scout and coach at both the major and minor league levels. Before joining the Tigers organization in 2000, he spent the previous 10 years in the Toronto organization, serving as a minor league special assignment scout in 1999 and prior to that as pitching coach for five different Blue Jays affiliates.

Monbouquette has twice coached at the major league level, first as pitching coach of the New York Mets in 1985, when Dwight Gooden went 24-4 and the Mets finished second in the majors in ERA. He also served as bullpen coach for the 1991 East Division champion Toronto Blue Jays.

Monbouquette, who pitched for Detroit in 1966 and the beginning of 1967, posted a 114-112 lifetime big league record and a 3.68 ERA in 343 career games. He earned all four of his All-Star selections while with Boston, for whom he pitched his first eight major league seasons, and he was the starting pitcher in the 1960 All-Star Game. He was inducted into the Red Sox Hall of Fame last year.

In the period from 1960-65, Monbouquette totaled 86 wins and surpassed 200 innings each year and he tossed a no-hitter against the White Sox on August 1, 1962. In 1961, he fanned 17 batters against the Senators, then the AL record for strikeouts by a pitcher in a night game, and in 1963, he won 20 games. Monbouquette wrapped up his playing career in 1968, a season he split between the Yankees and Giants.

Rich Ozarowski

Oneonta Coach

Rich Ozarowski returns to Single A Oneonta for his second season as a coach, also his second season as a coach in the Tigers organization.

Prior to beginning his coaching career in 2000, Ozarowski played three seasons in the Tigers minor league system after being selected out of Florida Atlantic University in the 30th round of the June 1997 draft.

Serving as a switch-hitting utility infielder, he hit .256 in 187 games over his three-year career. He batted a career-high .272 with six triples in 52 games for Single A Lakeland in 1999.

TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

Gene Roof

Roving Outfield/Baserunning Instructor

Gene Roof begins his 16th consecutive season in the organization, returning to the role he last held early in the 1997 season, roving outfield/baserunning instructor.

Last season, Roof managed Double A Jacksonville and he led the Suns to the East Division title in the second half of the season. The Suns advanced to the Southern League Championship Series, narrowly being defeated by the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx. He managed Triple A Toledo from 1997-99 after he took over as the Mud Hens manager in June of 1997 when Glenn Ezell left the team to undergo heart surgery. Before taking over for Ezell, Roof had served as the roving outfield/baserunning instructor since 1996.

Prior to his appointment as roving outfield/baserunning instructor, Roof spent four seasons as Detroit's major league first base coach. His Tiger roots run even deeper as Roof spent one season as the manager for Double A London (1991) and two seasons at Single A Fayetteville (1989-90).

As a player, Roof enjoyed a brief major league career, playing in parts of three seasons for the St. Louis Cardinals (1981-83) and Montreal Expos (1983). He collected a base hit in his first major league plate appearance on September 5, 1981, off the Dodgers Jerry Reuss. Baseball is in the Roof family, as Gene is one of five brothers to play professional ball. His brother Phil played 15 years as a major league catcher.

Tom Runnells

Roving Hitting Instructor

Tom Runnells enters his third full season as the Tigers roving hitting instructor and his ninth in the Detroit organization.

During the 1997 and 1998 seasons, Runnells served as a major league advance scout. Prior to that, Runnells had been manager at Triple A Toledo in 1995-96 and managed two Tigers Double A affiliates, Trenton in 1994 and London in 1993.

Runnells has also managed on the major league level. He compiled a 68-81 record over parts of two seasons from 1991-92 as the Montreal Expos skipper.

As a player, Runnells played in the majors in both the 1985 and 1986 campaigns with Cincinnati, collecting his first big league hit off the Dodgers Jerry Reuss on August 11, 1985. He won the Silver Glove award in 1985 as the top fielding second baseman in all of minor league baseball while playing in the Reds system, and he paced all Texas League shortstops in fielding for Shreveport in 1979 in the Giants organization.

Greg Sabat

GCL Tigers Pitching Coach

Greg Sabat begins his fifth season as the pitching coach with the GCL Tigers.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization in 1997, he spent four seasons as pitching coach and interim head coach at St. John's University (NY).

International coaching experience is one of Sabat's strengths. In 1995, he served as pitching coach for Team USA at the Pan-American Games in Argentina. He has also managed several baseball clubs in Italy, and he coached in the Mexican winter leagues from 1988-89.

Sabat, who is fluent in Spanish and Italian as well as English, pitched professionally in Columbia and Venezuela.

Brian Saltzgaber

West Michigan Coach

Former Tigers farmhand Brian Saltzgaber returns for his second season as a coach at Single A West Michigan after spending the 1999 season with Single A Lakeland.

A 24th-round draft pick of the Tigers in the June 1990 draft, Saltzgaber played outfield in the Tigers system from 1990-94. He concluded his playing career at Double A Trenton midway through the 1994 season and finished that year as a coach at Lakeland.

Prior to returning to the Tigers organization for the 1999 season, Saltzgaber was an assistant baseball coach at his alma mater, Western Michigan University, from 1995-97.

As a collegian, Saltzgaber played at Western Michigan from 1988-90, where he was a two-time all-conference outfielder for the Broncos and helped them to the 1989 Mid-American Conference title.

Saltzgaber graduated from Western Michigan in 1990 with a degree in physical education.

Lowry Remembered with Tigers Man of the Year Award

The Detroit Tigers family suffered a tragic loss during the 1997 season when Jamestown Jammers manager Dwight Lowry collapsed and died suddenly at his home in Jamestown, NY, on July 10.

Shortly after Lowry's death, the Tigers renamed their annual Player Development Man of the Year Award in his honor.

Lowry, who was 39 at the time of his death, had been tabbed the club's inaugural Player Development Man of the Year in 1996 after leading the Single A Fayetteville Generals to a second-half division title and a South Atlantic League post-season berth.

Lowry was in his fourth season as a manager in the Tigers minor league system, and he had also spent parts of four seasons as a player with Detroit, including the 1984 World Championship campaign. Lowry is survived by his wife Pamela and children Sesilie, Amanda and Zachary.

2000 TIGERS MINOR LEAGUE RECAP

The Tigers six minor league affiliates combined to post an overall record of 333-363, a .478 winning percentage. Two of the Tigers six affiliates advanced to the post-season in their respective leagues.

- In the Southern League, Double A Jacksonville finished atop the East Division in the second half of the season. After rallying from a 2-0 deficit to win the final three games in a best-of-five series against Greenville in the first round, the Suns met West Tenn in the finals. In the finals, the Suns again found themselves down 2-0 in the best-of-five series. Jacksonville won the third and fourth games of the series to force a series-deciding fifth game, only to lose 4-3 in 10 innings.
- In the Midwest League, Single A West Michigan posted the league's best record and advanced to the playoffs by winning the first half of the Eastern Division. The Whitecaps fell in the opening round 2-1 in a best-of-three series to Dayton.
- Toledo outfielder Billy McMillon earned Tigers Minor League Player of the Year honors, while two West Michigan hurlers, righthander Calvin Chipperfield and lefthander Andy Van Hekken, shared Minor League Pitcher of the Year honors. McMillon, called up to Detroit on July 31, led the International League with a .345 batting average and a .446 on-base percentage. Chipperfield led the minor leagues with a 2.13 ERA and he tossed a no-hitter against Kane County June 13 in the second game of a doubleheader that clinched the first-half championship for the Whitecaps. Van Hekken established a new Whitecaps record with 16 victories, while finishing second in the Midwest League with a 2.45 ERA.

TOLEDO MUD HENS (AAA)

THE SEASON: Toledo finished in fourth place in the International League's West Division with a record of 55-86 (.390). Outfielder Billy McMillon was the Mud Hens lone all-star representative, earning both mid- and post-season honors in the International League. Dave Anderson opened the season as the Mud Hens skipper before resigning June 23 to become the head baseball coach at his alma mater, the University of Memphis. Glenn Ezell, the Tigers minor league roving catching instructor, replaced Anderson for the remainder of the season.

THE BATS: The Mud Hens offensive attack was paced by the smooth stroke of McMillon and the longball; the club finished second in the International League with 168 home runs. McMillon led the league with a .345 batting average and a .446 on-base percentage, while he led Toledo with 30 doubles. McMillon posted an 18-game hitting streak May 16-June 4, batting .378 (28x74) with 16 runs, seven doubles, five home runs and 11 RBI. Fellow outfielder Chris Wakeland led the Hens with 28 home runs, tied for fifth best in the league, and 76 RBI. Third baseman Rob Sasser finished second on the club with 29 doubles and 25 home runs, and catcher/first baseman Carlos Mendez finished second with 72 RBI. Outfielder Karim Garcia homered in five consecutive games May 22-26 and hit 15 home runs in 40 games before being traded to Baltimore June 12.

THE ARMS: Righthander Mike Oquist led the Mud Hens staff throughout the season, leading the club in starts (28), innings pitched (161.0), complete games (3) and strikeouts (97), while tying for the team lead with seven wins. Oquist finished fourth in the league in innings pitched. Righthander Brandon Reed tied with Oquist for the team-high with seven wins, while also finishing second with six saves. Righthander Masao Kida led the Hens with seven saves before having his contract sold to the Orix Blue Wave in the Japanese Baseball League in early June. After winning both of his starts and not allowing an earned run and striking out 11 batters in 11.0 innings, righthander Bart Evans was named the IL Pitcher of the Week June 19-25. Righthander Shane Heams left the club in late August to join the USA Olympic Baseball team as it prepared for competition in the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

JACKSONVILLE SUNS (AA)

THE SEASON: Jacksonville finished the season with a record of 69-71 (.493), but advanced to the Southern League playoffs after winning the second half of the East Division with a record of 40-30 (.571). The Suns rallied from a 2-0 deficit against the Greenville Braves to win three straight and win the best-of-five series and advance to the Southern League finals. In the finals, the Suns again found themselves with a 2-0 deficit to West Tenn. After knotting the best-of-five series at 2-2, Jacksonville lost the fifth game 4-3 in 10 innings. Catcher Brandon Inge earned both mid- and post-season honors in the Southern League. Righthanders Shane Hearn and Shane Loux, along with second baseman Pedro Santana and outfielder Stoney Briggs were members of the mid-season all-star squad. Designated hitter Alejandro Freire earned post-season honors. Inge and first baseman Eric Munson participated in the Futures Game held at Turner Field in Atlanta held before the Major League All-Star Game.

THE BATS: Freire led the Southern League with a career-best 25 home runs, while leading the Suns with 73 runs scored and 77 RBI. Briggs led the league with 39 doubles and tied for the lead with 58 extra-base hits. After hitting .385 (10x26) with nine runs, three doubles, three home runs and eight RBI, Briggs earned Southern League Player of the Week honors July 21-27. Inge earned Player of the Week honors April 21-27, hitting .423 (11x26) with four doubles, two home runs and 13 RBI. Outfielder Rod Lindsey tied for second in the league with 46 stolen bases and Santana finished fifth with 40. Santana, who led the all Suns with 375-or-more plate appearances with a .281 batting average, surpassed the 30-steal mark for the fifth time in his six professional seasons.

THE ARMS: Loux tied for second in the league with a career-high 12 wins, and led the Suns with 130 strikeouts. He earned Southern League Pitcher of the Week honors May 5-11 after winning both of his starts, allowing two runs on nine hits in 13.0 innings. Righthander Kris Keller topped the league with 26 saves and finished second in appearances (62). Keller did not allow a run in 13 consecutive appearances June 24-July 26 and in 12 consecutive appearances August 7-31. Lefthander Mike Maroth led the Suns with 164.1 innings pitched and finished second with nine wins. Maroth rebounded well from a poor start in April and May (0-9, 6.36 ERA) to post a 9-5 record with a 2.62 ERA after June 1. Righthander Kevin Mobley tossed a no-hitter for the Suns in the second game of a doubleheader August 3 against Tennessee, striking out seven batters in 7.0 innings. Lefthander Adam Pettyjohn missed the first two months of the season with a left shoulder strain.

LAKELAND TIGERS (A)

THE SEASON: Lakeland finished the season with a record of 52-88 (.371), finishing seventh in the first half and eighth in the second half in the Florida State League's West Division. Outfielder Andres Torres earned both mid- and post-season all-star honors, while righthander Nate Cornejo earned mid-season all-star honors.

THE BATS: Torres led the Florida State League with 11 triples and 65 stolen bases, establishing a new Lakeland franchise record for stolen bases in a single season. During a 15-game hitting streak June 10-July 1, Torres hit .439 (25x57) with 11 runs, five doubles, a triple, four RBI and nine stolen bases. Torres paced the Tigers with 82 runs and his .296 batting average was best of all players with 375-or-more plate appearances. Fellow outfielder Rich Gomez finished second in the league with 10 triples and fourth with 48 stolen bases. In 22 games during June, Gomez hit .381 (32x84) with 17 runs, four doubles, four triples, two home runs, 13 RBI and nine stolen bases. Catcher Mike Rivera finished second on the club with 11 home runs and earned Florida State League Player of the Week honors April 17-23. During that week, Rivera hit .526 (10x19) with eight runs, two doubles, two home runs and 10 RBI. Outfielder Juan Camilo led the Tigers with 12 home runs.

THE ARMS: Lefthander Tim Kalita led the Tigers in wins (7), starts (25), innings pitched (149.2) and strikeouts (107). Of all pitchers with 111.0-or-more innings pitched, lefthander Randy Leek led with a 3.41 ERA. Leek along with righthander Rick Kirsten led the staff with two complete games. Lefthander Benny Lowe finished with 11 saves, tops on the team. Nineteen-year-old righthander Willy Serrano finished with a 3-3 record and a 3.10 ERA in 26 appearances.

WEST MICHIGAN WHITECAPS (A)

THE SEASON: The Whitecaps finished with an overall record of 88-52 (.629), the best record in the Midwest League. West Michigan finished with a record of 44-26 (.629) in the first half of the season to win the Eastern Division and advance to the Midwest League playoffs. In the playoffs, the Whitecaps lost a best-of-three series 2-1 to the Dayton Dragons and were eliminated. In the playoffs for the third time in four seasons, the Whitecaps finished with the most road wins (46) in franchise history and the second most wins in franchise history. Manager Bruce Fields was named the league's Manager of the Year. Shortstop Ramon Santiago, outfielder Corey Richardson, righthander Calvin Chipperfield and lefthander Andy Van Hekken were members of the mid- and post-season all-star squads. Catcher Maxim St. Pierre, lefthander Tommy Marx and righthander Greg Watson earned mid-season all-star honors.

THE BATS: Santiago led all players with 372-or-more plate appearances with a .272 batting average and finished second with 39 stolen bases. Richardson led the club with 120 hits, 80 runs scored and 41 stolen bases. Third baseman Neil Jenkins led the Whitecaps with 13 home runs, and he earned Midwest League Player of the Week honors June 25-July 1. During that week, Jenkins hit .462 (12x26) with six runs, a double, triple, three home runs and 11 RBI. Jenkins tied a Whitecaps record with 10 home runs on the road. Outfielder Cody Ross led West Michigan with 68 RBI and he tied for second in the league with nine triples. Ross hit .636 (7x11) with four runs, two doubles, a triple and six RBI to earn Player of the Week honors June 18-24. Second baseman Carlos Jimenez led the club with 18 doubles and finished fifth in the league with seven triples. Outfielder Antonio McKinney homered in four consecutive games April 27-30.

THE ARMS: The Whitecaps pitching staff led the way in the Midwest League with a 2.98 ERA. Chipperfield led the league with a stellar 2.13 ERA, tied for the lead with three shutouts and finished fifth with 151 strikeouts. The three shutouts by Chipperfield established a Whitecaps record, breaking the record of two held by four different hurlers. On June 13, Chipperfield no-hit Kane County in the second game of a doubleheader to earn Midwest League Pitcher of the Week honors June 11-17. Chipperfield's no-hit came three days later than fellow teammate Tommy Marx, who no-hit the same Kane County club June 10. Marx earned Pitcher of the Week honors June 4-10, winning both of his starts while not allowing a run on four hits in 14.0 innings with 17 strikeouts. Van Hekken tied for the league lead with 16 wins and finished second to Chipperfield with a 2.45 ERA. Van Hekken's 16 victories established a new Whitecaps record, breaking the previous record of 15 set in 1997 by Clay Bruner and Dave Borkowski. Van Hekken was named Pitcher of the Week August 6-12 after tossing a five-hit shutout and striking out seven batters against Lansing August 8. Watson finished second in the league with 30 saves and set a club record with 62 appearances.

ONEONTA TIGERS (A)

THE SEASON: Oneonta finished the season with a record of 35-41 (.461), fifth place in the New York-Penn League's McNamara Division. The Tigers finished third in the New York-Penn League with a .261 batting average.

THE BATS: Third baseman Hugh Quattlebaum led all Tigers with 202-or-more plate appearances in batting average (.301) and he tied for the team lead with fellow infielder Mark Moccia in triples (6). During a 17-game hitting streak June 29-July 21, Quattlebaum hit .448 (30x67) with 13 runs, two doubles, three triples and 10 RBI. First baseman Mike O'Brien led the club with 45 RBI and tied for team lead with nine doubles and five home runs. Outfielder Ryan Neill led the Tigers with 16 stolen bases and tied for the team-high with five home runs. In 28 games during August, Neill hit .317 (33x104) with 20 RBI. First baseman Joe Gerber tied for team best with nine doubles.

THE ARMS: Lefthander Rikki Johnston finished second in the league with 97.1 innings pitched while leading the Tigers in starts (15), strikeouts (58) and tying for the team-high with six wins. Righthander Shawn Hannah matched Johnston's win total of six while posting a 1.31 ERA. Hannah earned New York-Penn League Pitcher of the Week honors July 31-August 6, posting a 2-0 record without allowing a run in 6.1 innings and striking out seven batters in three relief appearances. Righthander Michael Steele recorded nine saves, tops on the team, in 22 appearances. The Tigers top pick in the June draft, righthander Matt Wheatland, made five starts after earning a promotion from the Gulf Coast League in early August. Wheatland posted a 1-2 record with a 5.55 ERA, striking out 25 batters in 24.1 innings while only walking four batters.

Miller, Zielinski Earn Minor League Awards

In 1996, two longtime members of the Detroit Tigers organization were recognized nationally for their distinguished service to the game of baseball.

Audrey Zielinski, a veteran of more than 40 years with the Tigers Minor League Department, was named the Rawlings Woman Executive of the Year by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (NAPBL).

Also in 1996, Dave Miller, the Tigers Director of Minor League Operations, was presented with the TOPPS Award for the long and meritorious service to the game of baseball. Miller has been a valued member of the Detroit Organization for more than 30 years.

GULF COAST LEAGUE TIGERS (ROOKIE)

THE SEASON: The Tigers finished with a record of 34-26 (.567), second-best in the Eastern Division of the Gulf Coast League. The Tigers finished 10th in the league with a .233 batting average and second with 90 stolen bases. Their pitching staff posted a 3.70 ERA, seventh-best in the league.

THE BATS: Third baseman/outfielder William Domero led all Tigers with 156-or-more plate appearances in hitting (.299). Domero finished second in the Gulf Coast League with five triples and led the team with 28 RBI. Second baseman Juan Francia led the Tigers with 52 hits and 34 runs, and he finished tied for the league lead with 23 stolen bases. First baseman Shawn Lambert led the club with five home runs, while outfielder Anthony Ware paced the team with nine doubles. Shortstop Exavier Logan, the Tigers third pick in the June draft, hit .279 in 43 games while finishing second on the club with 20 stolen bases.

THE ARMS: Righthander Manolin Cuello finished second in the Gulf Coast League with a 2.27 ERA and tied for second with six wins. Lefthander Jeremy Lewis led the Tigers in starts (10), innings pitched (57.1) and he finished fourth in the league with 57 strikeouts. Righthander Fausto Hernandez paced the league with 27 appearances and 17 saves. Each of the Tigers top two picks from the June draft debuted with the Tigers, righthander Matt Wheatland and lefthander Chad Petty. Wheatland, the Tigers top pick, posted a 2-1 record with a 1.25 ERA in five appearances, striking out 21 batters while walking just one in 21.2 innings pitched. Gulf Coast League opponents hit .173 (14x81) with Wheatland on the mound. Petty, the Tigers second pick, appeared in nine games with the Tigers, starting seven. Petty limited opponents to a .218 batting average (31x142) while posting a 2-3 record with a 3.00 ERA in 39.0 innings.

Tigers First to Hold Spring Training in Arizona

In 1929, the Detroit Tigers became the first major league team ever to host Spring Training in the state of Arizona. Detroit spent just one spring in Phoenix before moving the team's spring training site to Tampa, FL in 1930. The Tigers alternated sites over the next three seasons, training in both California and Texas, but the club returned to Florida in 1934 and set up camp in Lakeland. With the exception of 1943-45, when World War II forced the club to train in Evansville, IN in the nation's heartland, the Tigers have held Spring Training in Lakeland every year since.

Joker Marchant Stadium in Lakeland, FL will undergo a face lift thanks to a grant from the state of Florida. The development ensures the Tigers will remain in Lakeland for another 16 years. The newly renovated stadium is scheduled to be completed for the 2003 spring training season.

The Tigers first played at Lakeland's Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966.

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2001 for their 65th season in Lakeland and their 36th at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to hold Spring Training in Lakeland for another 16 years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects from the early 1970s to the present time have brought the current capacity to 7,100 seats. Included in the renovation process was a $160,000 light installation project enabling the first night game to be played in 1972. In 1994, a food and picnic plaza was constructed behind the stands for the convenience of the fans.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is Tigertown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the Tigertown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

Future renovations to Joker Marchant Stadium include increasing the seating capacity to 9,000 with a complete exterior done in Mediterranean style architecture, as well as press box expansion, the addition of four luxury suites, second story-upgraded seating, outfield berm seating, a new Triple A field, visitors' clubhouse and four indoor batting cages.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and the City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

In 2000, the Tigers drew the largest crowd in Marchant Stadium history when 7,530 fans paid to see the Tigers defeat the Atlanta Braves, 7-3, on March 26.

The Tigers record at Marchant Stadium is 271-216-8 and 2,102,566 fans have paid to see Tiger Grapefruit League games since the park opened.
